Education at the Intersection of Globalization and Technology Sharon Waller, Lee Waller, Vongai Mpofu, Mercy Kurebwa, 2021-04-07 Today's educators stand at the crossroads of globalization and technology The world is rapidly shrinking The workplace is being transformed before our very eyes Technology is forever changing the way we perceive reality and the way we do business Educators are required to equip students for a workplace that has yet to emerge The skill sets of today's job market are often obsolete before students can enter the workplace Now is the time for educators to rise to the challenges of our modern world By embracing the vision of yesterday's practitioners and joining hands with tomorrow's practitioners educators can transform our world and equip their students for the upward mobility and career flexibility required in tomorrow's workplace

Constructivist Education in an Age of Accountability David W. Kritt, 2018-01-16 This book contrasts authentic approaches to education with classroom practices based primarily on standards external to the individuals who are supposed to learn While other books tend to promote either a desperate scramble for meeting standards or determined resistance to neoliberal reforms this book fills that gap in ways that will inspire practitioners prospective teachers and teacher educators Mandates pay only lip service to constructivist and social constructivist principles while thwarting the value of both students and teachers actively creating understandings Authors in this book assert the central importance of a range of constructivist approaches to teaching learning and thinking inviting careful reflection on the goals and values of education
