Fascinated by what lies beyond the boundaries of human experience men and women have throughout history been irresistibly drawn to venture into the unknown Explorers charts the astonishing feats of history's most intrepid pathfinders From the early voyages of the Ancient Greek mariner Colaeus who first discovered that beyond the Mediterranean lay a far greater ocean to the compelling tale of the race for the poles this book encompasses the discovery and exploration of the great continents and oceans of the world Whether motivated by the prospect of conquest the spirit of scientific inquiry nationalism fanaticism or just plain curiosity the explorers in this book dared to seek out the most remote and inhospitable places on Earth and in so doing changed forever our perception of the planet Roosevelt the Explorer H. Explorers of the New Century Magnus Mills, 2011-09-05 The brilliant satirical novel by the Booker Prize shortlisted author of The Restraint of Beasts To write one unique book is a rare achievement The ability to produce several is truly special Independent A demented deadpan comic wonder Thomas Pynchon It is the beginning of the century and two teams of explorers are racing across a cold windswept deserted land to reach the furthest point from civilisation It is they find an awfully long way Johns and his men take the western route along a rocky scree gossiping bickering and grumbling as they go Meanwhile Tostig's men make their way along the dry riverbed in the east they are fewer with just five men and ten mules and better organised than their rivals But with Johns team keeping pace in the distance the race is on to reach the Agreed Furthest Point How Literary Worlds Are Shaped Bo Pettersson, 2016-09-12 Literary studies still lack an extensive comparative analysis of different kinds of literature including ancient and non Western How Literary Worlds Are Shaped A

Comparative Poetics of Literary Imagination aims to provide such a study Literature it claims is based on individual and shared human imagination which creates literary worlds that blend the real and the fantastic mimesis and genre often modulated by different kinds of unreliability The main building blocks of literary worlds are their oral visual and written modes and three themes challenge perception and relation They are blended and inflected in different ways by combinations of narratives and figures indirection thwarted aspirations meta usages hypothetical action as well as hierarchies and blends of genres and text types Moreover literary worlds are not only constructed by humans but also shape their lives and reinforce their sense of wonder Finally ten reasons are given in order to show how this comparative view can be of use in literary studies In sum How Literary Worlds Are Shaped is the first study to present a wide ranging and detailed comparative account of the makings of literary worlds

The Forensic Records Society Magnus Mills, 2017-04-06 The Forensic Records Society is like Animal Farm but with blokes for pigs and much better songs Guardian Two men with a passion for vinyl create a society for the appreciation of records Their aim is simple to elevate the art of listening by doing so in forensic detail The society enjoys moderate success in the back room of their local pub The Half Moon with other enthusiasts drawn to the initial promise of the weekly gathering However as the club gains popularity its founder s uncompromising dogma results in a schism within the movement and soon a counter group forms Then the arrival of a young woman called Alice further fractures the unity of the vulnerable society As rifts are forged and gulfs widen Magnus Mills examines the surreal nature of ordinary lives The master of the comic deadpan returns for his ninth novel a spectacularly disingenuous exploration of power fanaticism and really really good records

The Comic Turn in Contemporary English Fiction Huw Marsh, 2020-07-09 The Comic Turn in Contemporary English Fiction explores the importance of comedy in contemporary literature and culture In an era largely defined by a mood of crisis bleakness cruelty melancholia environmental catastrophe and collapse Huw Marsh argues that contemporary fiction is as likely to treat these subjects comically as it is to treat them gravely and that the recognition and proper analysis of this humour opens up new ways to think about literature Structured around readings of authors including Martin Amis Nicola Barker Julian Barnes Jonathan Coe Howard Jacobson Magnus Mills and Zadie Smith this book suggests not only that much of the most interesting contemporary writing is funny and that there is a comic tendency in contemporary fiction but also that this humour this comic licence allows writers of contemporary fiction to do peculiar and interesting things things that are funny in the sense of odd or strange and that may in turn inspire a funny turn in readers Marsh offers a series of original critical and theoretical frameworks for discussing questions of literary genre style affect and politics demonstrating that comedy is an often neglected mode that plays a generative role in much of the most interesting contemporary writing creating sites of rich political stylistic cognitive and ethical contestation whose analysis offers a new perspective on the present
