Sucking Up Yellow Jackets Jeanne Denault, 2010-10-16 Max loathed confinement Caught tunneling under the play yard fence he climbed up his crib side and dropped to the floor with a thud Jolted awake his mother scooped him into her arms and tore through the house No seven month old baby could do this without help But he had and repeated it nightly When he dismantled a neighbor s swing set without tools Max and his more sociable sister were banned from the play yard Hoping he would disappear forever she helped him climb out a window and suggested he go hand over hand along a frail line to a telephone pole sixteen feet above the ground He thought she was being sweet Obsessed with explosives and motorcycles he spent more time in police stations and court than an incompetent bank robber ER doctors knew him by name Sucking Up Yellow Jackets is a touching bizarre sometimes funny story about the toll undiagnosed Asperger Syndrome took on Max and his family before the syndrome was recognized Ordinary on Purpose Mikala MD Albertson,2022-03-08 Beauty is Found in the Ordinary The world is shouting at us to be more Strive Achieve Overachieve Never stop pushing As a family practice doctor wife and mother Mikala Albertson appeared to be living a perfect life but really her whole world was falling apart Married seven years to an alcohol and drug addict while raising two young children and finishing residency Mikala eventually reached a breaking point And surrendered In sifting through the shattered pieces of her life she realized she had been chasing something that doesn't exist Perfect is pretend And what she desperately needed to embrace was ordinary A good hard messy gritty lovely ordinary life In Ordinary on Purpose Mikala shares her heartfelt journey in a raw and revealing way as she invites you to lay down your own endless chase for perfection and embrace this beautiful messy life exactly as it is with our perfect loving God right by your side What would it look like to stop pretending to be perfect and be ordinary Instead of always feeling overwhelmed and alone you might discover the beauty of a good hard life grounded in the radiant hope of God's unending love Life happens in the ordinary after all Resources in Education ,2000 The Charged Classroom Judith L. Pace,2015-02-11 At a time when debate over school reform commands unprecedented attention Judith L Pace argues we must grapple with the underlying challenges of classroom teaching and at the same time strive to realize the ideals of democratic education Building on three qualitative studies in grades four through twelve The Charged Classroom examines the deeply embedded tensions escalating pressures and exciting possibilities of the contemporary American public school classroom Through detailed descriptions and analyses of social studies and English language arts classrooms Pace disentangles how teachers and students navigate three charged arenas academic expectations discussion of provocative topics and curricular demands In each domain democratic learning opportunities such as promotion of positive student identity dialogue across differences and exploration of conflict are both opened up and closed down A passionate and persuasive call for education reform the book offers crucial insights about the realities of teaching and key recommendations for advancing democratic education in a multicultural society Parenting Gifted Children Jennifer L. Jolly,Donald J. Treffinger,Tracy Ford Inman,2021-09-03 When parents need the most authoritative information on raising gifted kids they can turn to Parenting Gifted Children The Authoritative Guide From the National Association for Gifted Children a gifted education Legacy Award winner This comprehensive guide covers topics such as working with high achievers and young gifted children acceleration advocating for talented students serving as role models and mentors for gifted kids homeschooling underachievement twice exceptional students and postsecondary opportunities The only book of its kind this guidebook will allow parents to find the support and resources they need to help their children find success in school and beyond Written by experts in the field of gifted education and sponsored by the leading organization supporting the education of gifted and advanced learners this book is sure to provide guidance advice and support for any parent of gifted children Texas Association for the Gifted and Talented 2011 Legacy Book Award Winner Parenting Making Math Learning Fun for Inner City School Students Glendolyn Duhon-Jeanlouis,Alice Duhon-Ross McCallum,Ashraf Esmail,2010 Making Math Learning Fun for Inner City School Students is an effective tool for educators and a textbook for professors of higher education The concepts discussed in the book provide a body of knowledge that will enable leaders to understand the critical issues surrounding inner city school students in their ability to learn mathematical concepts Research shows that three to five teachers of mathematics leave the school system within the first two years of teaching because of frustration experienced while helping inner city school students comprehend and master mathematical skills Students are often discouraged by inappropriate teaching strategies that favor learning math concepts in isolation rather than making them relevant to daily life or cultural experiences Teachers of math must clearly understand inner city school students learning styles when they are implementing a process for the student to learn Classroom teachers in the twenty first century must have valid knowledge of how the brains of inner city school children work For students to master and comprehend math skills learning activities must be both fun and relevant to their present body of knowledge about life and living Schools and Families Megan Murray,2002 Investigations in Number Data and Space 2006 components for Grade 5
