G 10 Civic Education Textbook:

(Re)Constructing Memory: School Textbooks and the Imagination of the Nation James H. Williams, 2014-08-08

This book examines the shifting portrayal of the nation in school textbooks in 14 countries during periods of rapid political social and economic change. Drawing on a range of analytic strategies, the authors examine history and civics textbooks and the teaching of such texts along with other prominent curricular materials. Children's readers, a required text penned by the head of state, a Holocaust curriculum, etc. The authors analyze the uses of history and pedagogy in building, reinforcing, and redefining the nation and state, especially in the light of challenges to its legitimacy. The primary focus is on countries in developing or transitional contexts. Issues include the teaching of democratic civics in a multiethnic state with little history of democratic governance; shifts in teaching about the Khmer Rouge in post-conflict Cambodia; children's readers used to define national space in former republics of the Soviet Union; the development of Holocaust education in a context where citizens were both victims and perpetrators of violence; the creation of a national past in Turkmenistan; and so forth. The case studies are supplemented by commentary, an introduction, and a conclusion.

The Field Trip Book Ronald V. Morris, 2010-09-01
Looking for social studies adventures to help students find connections to democratic citizenship? Look no further. The Field Trip Book Study Travel Experiences in Social Studies provides just the answer teachers need for engaging students in field trips as researching learners with emphasis on interdisciplinary social studies plus skills in collecting and reporting data gathered from field explorations. This is the book for those educators who want to make social studies field experiences real and meaningful for their students. These real-world social studies experiences are teacher-tested and focus on anthropology, civics, economics, geography, history, and sociology. The Field Trip Book Study Travel Experiences in Social Studies makes social studies exciting for elementary and middle school students by introducing them to content in the world around them. This book is perfect for the elementary or middle school teacher, museum educator, or parent looking forward to increasing interaction between students and learning sites.

Handbook of Civic Engagement and Education Richard Desjardins, Susan Wiksten, 2022-12-08
Underscoring the complex relationship between civic engagement and education at all stages of life, this innovative Handbook identifies the contemporary challenges and best approaches and practices to encourage civic engagement within education.

Reimagining Civic Education Doyle Stevick, 2007
This volume surveys the new global landscape for democratic civic education. Rooted in qualitative research, the contributors explore the many ways that notions of democracy and citizenship have been implemented in recent education policy, curriculum, and classroom practice around the world. From Indonesia to the Spokane Reservation and El Salvador to Estonia, these chapters reveal a striking diversity of approaches to political socialization in varying cultural and institutional contexts. By bringing to bear the methodological, conceptual, and theoretical perspectives of qualitative research, this book adds important new voices to one of education's most critical debates: how to form democratic citizens in a changing world.
