Rights-based Integrated Child Protection Service Delivery Systems Murli Desai, 2019-09-17 The Sourcebook IV provides training modules for rights based integrated child protection service delivery systems at the secondary and tertiary prevention levels. Part 1 of the Sourcebook focuses on the preventative comprehensive integrated and systemic and universal community based and family based service delivery systems for children and the methods of case management and outcomes based project cycle. Part 2 discusses children and families at risk and the role of community based Integrated Childcare and Support Centres for providing supplementary care and support services to them at the secondary prevention level. It also focuses on children facing sociolegal problems such as deprivation of parental care, violence and conflict with law and the role of District based Integrated Child Protection Centres for providing protection, justice and rehabilitation to them at the tertiary prevention level. Part 3 focuses on children in emergencies in general and in specific situations and the role of Integrated Child Protection Centres in these situations. This is a necessary read for social workers, lawyers, researchers, trainers and teachers working on child rights across the world and especially in developing countries.

A Rights-Based Preventative Approach for Psychosocial Well-being in Childhood Murli Desai, 2010-09-02 Children are one of the most important phase of human development and the most important target group for social work intervention. Most of the schools of human development and social work round the world have an elective course on children and some offer a concentration in this area. There are plenty of textbooks on intervention with children published by Western authors focusing on useful theories and skills but mainly at the remedial level. They neither use the preventative approach nor the child rights perspective which has been found useful in the developing nations. The books on child rights are generally published by the United Nations Children's Fund UNICEF and other international organisations working in the field of children such as Save the Children These books focus on the useful child rights perspective but they neither integrate theories nor use the preventative approach The proposed book A Rights based Preventative Approach for Children s Psychosocial Well Being will be the first to apply the child rights perspective and the preventative approach to intervention for children s psychosocial well being It is an integration of theories with practice and teaching relevant in different parts of the world The book is divided into the following three parts Part 1 Introduction to a Rights based Preventative Approach for Children s Psychosocial Well Being Part 2 Primary Prevention for Children s Psychosocial Well Being Part 3 Secondary and Tertiary Prevention for Children s Psychosocial Well Being Storytelling and Other Activities for Children in Therapy Johanna Slivinske, Lee Slivinske, 2011-03-16 A comprehensive collection of hundreds of thought provoking stories and activities for use in the treatment of children confronting difficult situations Storytelling and Other Activities for Children in Therapy provides professionals with the knowledge insight and tools to help children ages 6 to 12 and their families work through their treatment issues using storytelling and other activities This invaluable guide includes helpful activity sheets that gradually progress through four levels of inquiry representing readiness for self disclosure Imaginative and easy to use the stories and activities in this book are tied to relevant practice issues including Illness and disability School issues Anger and behavioral issues Social adjustment and shyness Divorce and parental separation Domestic violence Community violence Trauma and child abuse Substance abuse Death With an accompanying website allowing therapists to personalize and print stories as well as activity sheets to meet their needs and those of their clients Storytelling and Other Activities for Children in Therapy is an important tool in easing the pain of emotionally hurt children towards a discovery of their inner strengths and resilience for life These resources can be accessed at www.wiley.com/go/slivinske Social Work Practice in Health Melissa Petrakis, 2022-12-01 Health services practice or working with clients facing health issues requires diverse approaches and wide ranging knowledge In this fully revised and expanded second edition Melissa Petrakis draws on the experience and expertise of leading researchers and practitioners to provide a guide to the disparate settings in which social workers are engaged and the conceptual frameworks and skills needed for effective practice Including new chapters on compassion in healthcare neoliberalism and health social justice suicidal distress and health social work in regional rural and remote settings the book begins by examining the nature of health social work and considers its core values and principles Part I also provides an overview of the social determinants of health Part II explores key areas of practice including trauma informed practice mental health aged care dual diagnosis and working with people living with disability Part III looks at politicised issues reform agendas in the field including indigenous approaches to health refugee health and concludes by considering how a focus on well being informed by Maori approaches could provide new insights into better practice Underpinning the book throughout is a clear guide to assessment procedures case management strengths based practices and developing
