A Cause Greater than Self Stephen J. Ochs, 2012-09-01 A privileged hell raising youth who had greatly embarrassed his family and especially his war hero father by being dismissed from West Point Michael J Daly would go on to display selfless courage and heroic leadership on the battlefields of Europe during World War II Starting as an enlisted man and rising through the ranks to become a captain and company commander Daly s devotion to his men and his determination to live up to the ideals taught to him by his father led him to extraordinary acts of bravery on behalf of others resulting in three Silver Stars a Bronze Star with V attachment for valor two Purple Hearts and finally the Medal of Honor Historian Stephen J Ochs mined archives and special collections and conducted numerous personal interviews with Daly his family and friends and the men whom he commanded and with whom he served The result is a carefully constructed in depth portrait of a warrior hero who found his life s deepest purpose both during and after the war in selfless service to others After a period of post war drift Daly finally escaped the hero s cage and found renewed purpose through family and service He became a board member at St Vincent s Hospital in Bridgeport Connecticut where he again assumed the role of defender and guardian by championing the cause of the indigent poor and the terminally ill earning the sobriquet conscience of the hospital A Cause Greater than Self The Journey of Captain Michael J Daly World War II Medal of Honor Recipient is at once a unique father son wartime saga a coming of age narrative and the tale of a heroic man s struggle to forge a new and meaningful postwar life Daly s story also highlights the crucial role played by platoon and company infantry officers in winning both major battles like those on D Day and in lesser known campaigns such as those of the Colmar Pocket and in south central Germany further reinforcing the debt that Americans owe to them especially those whose selfless courage merited the Medal of Honor
