La Ville Verticale:

L'architecture comme métier et autres écrits Giorgio Grassi, 1983 Le Corbusier Jacques Sbriglio, Le Corbusier, Jean-Louis Parisi, Monique Reyre, Jean-Marc Gauthier, 1992 Semiotic Theory and Practice, Volume 1+2 Michael Herzfeld, Lucio Melazzo, 2016-07-11 No detailed description available for Semiotic Theory and Practice Volume 1 2

Semiotic Theory and Practice Michael Herzfeld, Lucio Melazzo, 1988 The Suburbs Marie Bouchet, Nathalie Cochoy, Isabelle Keller-Privat, Mathilde Rogez, 2022-02-01 While suburbs provide a rich field of research for sociologists architects urbanists and anthropologists they have not been given much attention in literary and cultural studies The Suburbs New Literary Perspectives sets out to enrich the limited existing body of critical analysis on the subject with a landmark collection of essays offering a far larger perspective than the books or collections published so far on the topic This interdisciplinary and wide ranging approach includes literary and art studies philosophy and cultural comment It examines the suburbs across cultural differences contrasting British South African and North American suburbs The specificity of this book therefore lies in a cross national and cross continental exploration of these unchartered territories The suburbs are redefined as those rebellious margins whose geographical borders are necessarily fuzzy and sketch out a common place where cultural frontiers can be transcended They are to use Sarah Nuttall s terminology places of entanglement where contraries meet and where new ways of being in the world is reborn Seen through the prism of art and literature the suburbs may then be recognized as philosopher Bruce B gout argues as a new way of thinking and making urban space History of Construction Cultures Volume 1 João Mascarenhas-Mateus, Ana Paula Pires, 2021-08-01 History of Construction Cultures Volume 1 contains papers presented at the 7ICCH Seventh International Congress on Construction History held at the Lisbon School of Architecture Portugal from 12 to 16 July 2021 The conference has been organized by the Lisbon School of Architecture FAUL NOVA School of Social Sciences and Humanities the Portuguese Society for Construction History Studies and the University of the Azores The contributions cover the wide interdisciplinary spectrum of Construction History and consist on the most recent advances in theory and practical case studies analysis following themes such as epistemological issues building actors building materials building machines tools and equipment construction processes building services and techniques structural theory and analysis political social and economic aspects knowledge transfer and cultural translation of construction cultures Furthermore papers presented at thematic sessions aim at covering important problematics historical periods and different regions of the globe opening new directions for Construction History research We are what we build and how we build thus the study of Construction History is now more than ever at the centre of current debates as to the shape of a sustainable future for humankind Therefore History of Construction Cultures is a critical and indispensable work to expand our understanding of the ways in which everyday building activities have been perceived and experienced in different cultures from ancient times to our century and all over the world Towards a Public Space Marta

Sequeira,2017-09-22 Selected in the top eight short list for the Thought and Criticism category of the FAD Awards 2019 Le Corbusier is well known for his architectural accomplishments which have been extensively discussed in literature Towards a Public Space instead offers a unique analysis of Le Corbusier s contributions to urban planning The public spaces in Le Corbusier s plans are usually considered to break with the past and to have nothing whatsoever in common with the public spaces created before modernism This view is fostered by both the innovative character of his proposals and by the proliferation in his manifestos of watchwords that mask any evocation of the past like l esprit nouveau new spirit and l architecture de demain architecture of tomorrow However if we manage to rid ourselves of certain preconceived ideas which underpin a somewhat less than objective idea of modernity we find that Le Corbusier s public spaces not only didn t break with the historical past in any abrupt way but actually testified to the continuity of human creation over time Aimed at academics and students in architecture architectural history and urban planning this book fills a gap in the systematic analysis of Le Corbusier s city scale plans and specifically Corbusian public spaces following the Second World War

La nouvelle scène urbaine, 2011 Le XXIe siècle connaît-il parallèlement au développement international et national de l'État un nouvel ordre mondial des villes On assiste en effet à une imparable accélération de la transition urbaine l'échelle planétaire Au début du siècle pas une ville au monde n'atteignait un million d'habitants en 1960 on en comptait 105 en 2009 la dernière aire urbaine au monde à atteindre un million d'habitants figurait au 480e rang La population de ces ensembles dans bien des cas supérieure celle de nombreux États de l'ONU et la capacité de ceux-ci à capter et exploiter les flux économiques globaux leur confèrent une puissance qui en fait désormais des États des acteurs directs du nouvel ordre mondial Si les avantages de la métropolisation semblent incontestables pour la compétitivité économique et technologique les meutes urbaines n'ont pas cessé depuis la seconde moitié du XXe siècle de se multiplier en réponse à une marginalisation voire à une ghettoïsation accrue de populations paupérisées et stigmatisées La dualisation des territoires nationaux entre les espaces métropolisés qui gagnent et ceux dépourvus des ressources nécessaires pour participer à la compétition des villes entrepreneuriales traverse de l'intérieur les grands ensembles urbains les nouvelles limites urbaines peinent souvent les problèmes des populations des banlieues comme des handicaps en termes de charges et d'images l'ascension de leur cité Les errements des politiques de la ville étudiés ici plus particulièrement au Maghreb en France et aux USA témoignent des difficultés à terminer une réponse efficace entre les États et les villes elles-mêmes et de la tendance à finir des programmes presque toujours sous le coup des événements en faisant pour l'essentiel des politiques de réaction La situation des quartiers sensibles nous interroge sur la crise du temps postcolonial sur le travail postnational des sociétés et sur les conséquences d'une régulation postdémocratique de fait collatéralement associée aux nouvelles méthodes de l'action publique Mettant en regard les politiques de métropolisation et leurs impacts d'un côté et les politiques sociales de la ville de l'autre La nouvelle scène urbaine réunit des éléments de réflexion sur les transformations des grands ensembles politiques actuels États en volutions et métropoles en devenir et sur leur capacité voire sur leur volonté de régler les problèmes de ségrégation socio-économique de populations qui au Maghreb en Europe aux USA et ailleurs se chiffrent par millions
