Impostors Christopher L. Miller, 2018-12-10 Miller takes us on an exciting tour of postcolonial and world literature guiding us through the literary maze of the real and the pretenders to the real Ngugi wa Thiong o author of Wizard of the Crow Writing a new page in the surprisingly long history of literary deceit Impostors examines a series of literary hoaxes deceptions that involved flagrant acts of cultural appropriation This book looks at authors who posed as people they were not in order to claim a different ethnic class or other identity These writers were in other words literary usurpers and appropriators who trafficked in what Christopher L Miller terms the intercultural hoax In the United States such hoaxes are familiar Forrest Carter's The Education of Little Tree and JT LeRoy's Sarah are two infamous examples Miller's contribution is to study hoaxes beyond our borders employing a comparative framework and bringing French and African identity hoaxes into dialogue with some of their better known American counterparts In France multiculturalism is generally eschewed in favor of universalism and there should thus be no identities in the American sense to steal However as Miller demonstrates this too is a ruse French universalism can only go so far and do so much There is plenty of otherness to appropriate This French and Francophone tradition of imposture has never received the study it deserves Taking a novel approach to this understudied tradition Impostors examines hoaxes in both countries finding similar practices of deception and questions of harm In this fascinating study of intercultural literary hoaxes Christopher L Miller provides a useful brief history of American literary impostures as a backdrop for his investigation of France's literary history of ethnic usurpation Henry Louis Gates Jr New York Times bestselling author

Learning from Lying Julia Luisa Abramson, 2005 Learning from Lying narrates a new literary history as seen through the lens of mystification Beginning with an examination of mystification's elaboration during the century of Enlightenment the book accounts for mystification's distinctiveness relative to other deceptive forms particularly forgery and provides a timely intervention in current debates about the study of fakes Readings of works by Denis Diderot Prosper Merimee and Wolfgang Hildesheimer follow out the cosmopolitan roots of the genre in the Republic of Letters and show how it theorizes literature through practical experiment For when textual imitation is revealed it unveils the necessary collusion between reader and writer that allows literature to exist as such

Cacaphonies Annabel L. Kim, 2022-04-05 Exploring why there is so much fecal matter in literary works that matter Cacaphonies takes fecal matter and its place in literature seriously Readers and critics have too long overlooked excrement's vital role in the twentieth and twenty first century French canon In a stark challenge to the tendency to view this literature through sanitizing abstractions Annabel L Kim undertakes close readings of key authors to argue for feces as a figure of radical equality both a literary object and a reflection on literature itself without which literary studies is impoverished and sterile Following the fecal through line in works by C line Beckett Genet Sartre Duras and Gary and the contemporary authors Anne Garr ta and Daniel Pennac Kim shows that shit far from vanishing from the canon after the early modern period remains present in the modern and contemporary French literature that follows She argues that all the shit in the canon expresses a call to democratize literature making literature for all just as shit is for or of all She attends to its presence in this prized element of French identity treating it as a continually uttered desire to manifest the universality France aspires to as encapsulated by the slogan Liberté galit fraternité but fails to realize In shit there is a concrete universalism that traverses bodies with disregard for embodied differences Cacophonies reminds us that literature and the ideas to be found therein cannot be separated from the corporeal envelopes that create and receive them In so doing it reveals the aesthetic political and ethical potential of shit and its capacity to transform literature and life , Oratio Obliqua, Oratio Recta François Récanati,2000 Among the entities that can be mentally or linguistically represented are mental and linguistic representations themselves That is we can think and talk about speech and thought This phenomenon is known as metarepresentation An example is Authors believe that people read books In this book François Recanati discusses the structure of metarepresentation from a variety of perspectives According to him metarepresentations have a dual structure their content includes the content of the object representation people reading books as well as the meta part the authors belief Rejecting the view that the object representation is mentioned rather than used Recanati claims that since metarepresentations carry the content of the object representation they must be about whatever the object representation is about Metarepresentations are fundamentally transparent because they work by simulating the representation they are about Topics covered in this wide ranging work include the analysis of belief reports and talk about fiction world shifting opacity and substitutivity quotation the relation between direct and indirect discourse context shifting semantic pretense and deference in language and thought The Life Before Us Romain Gary,2022-11-14 Now back in print this heartbreaking novel by Romain Gary has inspired two movies including the Netflix feature The Life Ahead Momo has been one of the ever changing ragbag of whores children at Madame Rosa s boarding house in Paris ever since he can remember But when the check that pays for his keep no longer arrives and as Madame Rosa becomes too ill to climb the stairs to their apartment he determines to support her any way he can This sensitive slightly macabre love story between Momo and Madame Rosa has a supporting cast of transvestites pimps and witch doctors from Paris s immigrant slum Belleville Profoundly moving The Life Before Us won France s premier literary prize the Prix Goncourt Transition 111 IU Press Journals,2015-02-20 The 111th issue of the magazine of Africa and the Diaspora featuring fiction poetry art and essays focused on the black world Published three times per year by Indiana University Press for the Hutchins Center at Harvard University Transition is a unique forum for the freshest most compelling ideas from and about the black world Since its founding in Uganda in 1961 the magazine has kept apace of the rapid transformation of the African Diaspora and has remained a leading forum of intellectual debate In

Romain Gary Ralph Schoolcraft,2012-05-26 In this book Ralph Schoolcraft explores the extraordinary career of the modern French author film director and diplomat a romantic and tragic figure whose fictions extended well beyond his books Born Roman Kacew he overcame an impoverished boyhood to become a French Resistance hero and win the coveted Goncourt Prize under the pseudonym and largely invented persona Romain Gary Although he published such acclaimed works as The Roots of Heaven and Promise at Dawn the Gaullist traditions that he defended in the world of French letters fell from favor and his critical fortunes suffered at the hands of a hostile press Schoolcraft details Gary s frustrated struggle to evolve as a writer in the eye of a public that now considered him a known quantity Identifying the daring strategies used by this mysterious character as he undertook an elaborate scheme to reach a new readership Schoolcraft offers new insight into the dynamics of authorship and fame within the French literary institutions In the early 1970s Gary made his departure from the conservative literary establishment publishing works that boasted a quirky elliptical style under a variety of pseudonymous personae the most successful of which was that of an Algerian immigrant by the name of Emile Ajar Moving behind the mask of his new creation Gary was able to win critical and popular acclaim and a second Goncourt in 1975 But as Schoolcraft suggests Gary may have sold his shadow that is lost his authorial persona by marketing himself too effectively Going so far as to recruit a cousin to stand in as the public face of this phantom author Gary kept the secret of his true authorship until his violent death in 1980 from a self inflicted gunshot wound The press reacted with resentment over the scheme and he was shunned into the ranks of literary oddities Schoolcraft draws from archives of the several thousand documents related to Gary housed at the French publishing firms of Gallimard and Mercure de France as well as the Butler Library at Columbia University Exploring the depths of a story that has long remained shrouded in mystery Romain Gary The Man Who Sold His Shadow is as much a fascinating biographical sketch as it is a thought provoking reflection on the assumptions made about identities in the public sphere

Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège,2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumi_ re screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere Early silent pioneers Georges MZli_s Alice Guy BlachZ and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumi_ re brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe R ge identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895 From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France Each director s

The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films, shorts, documentaries, and television work. Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia: from masters of the Golden Age, Jean Renoir and René Clair, to French New Wave artists such as François Truffaut and Jean-Luc Godard. Final Drafts Mark Seinfelt, 1999-12. Some of the greatest writers in the history of the art: Hart Crane, Ernest Hemingway, Jerzy Kosinski, Sylvia Plath, Anne Sexton, and Virginia Woolf all chose to silence themselves by suicide, leaving their families and friends with heartbreak and the world of literature with gaping holes. Their reasons for killing themselves when known were varied and quite often unreasonable. Some were plagued by depression or self-doubt, and others by frustration and helplessness in a world they could neither change nor tolerate. Profoundly moving and morbidly attractive, Final Drafts is a necessary historical record, biographical treatment, and psychological examination of the authors who left this cruel world by their own hands, either instantly or over long periods of relentless self-destructive behavior. It is also a devoted examination of references to suicide in literature, both by those who took their own lives and those who decided to live. Mark Seinfelt has selected many well-known, mostly fiction writers from those whose work dates to over a century ago, when the medical community was ill-equipped to deal with substance abuse and depression, to more recent writers such as Kosinski, Michael Dorris, and Eugene Izzie, who have left a puzzled literary community with a sad legacy. Seinfelt reveals that many authors contemplated ending their lives; in their work, they were obsessed with destroying themselves, were unable in the case of the Holocaust to live with the fact that their contemporaries had been killed, believed death to be a freedom from the horrors that forced them to create, and sometimes were simply unable to withstand rejection or criticism of their work. Other noted authors discussed in this volume include John Berryman, Ambrose Bierce, Harry Crosby, John Davidson, William Inge, Randall Jarrell, Arthur Koestler, T. E. Lawrence, Primo Levi, Jack London, Jay Anthony Lukas, Tom McHale, Yukio Mishima, Henry de Montherlant, Seth Morgan, George Sterling, Sara Teasdale, Ernst Toller, John Kennedy Toole, Sergey Yesenin, and many others. Traveling in French Cinema Sylvie Blum-Reid, 2016-02-25. Travel narratives abound in French cinema since the 1980s. This study delineates recurrent travel tropes in films such as departures and returns, the chase, the escape, nomadic wandering, interior voyages, the unlikely travel rituals, pilgrimages, migrants' narratives, and emergencies, women's travel and healing narratives. French Cinema Rémi Fournier-Lanzoni, 2015-10-22. To a large extent, the story of French filmmaking is the story of moviemaking. From the earliest flickering images of the late nineteenth century through the silent era, Surrealist influences, the Nazi Occupation, the glories of the New Wave, the rebirth of the industry in the 1990s with the exception culturelle, and the present, Rémi Lanzoni examines a considerable number of the world's most beloved films. Building upon his 2004 best-selling edition, the second edition of French Cinema maintains the chronological analysis, factual reliability, ease of use, and accessible prose.

while at once concentrating more on the current generation of female directors mainstream productions such as The Artist and The Intouchables and the emergence of minority filmmakers Beur cinema      European Performative Theatre Annamaria Cascetta,2019-06-14 Performative theatre is one of the most important trends of our time It is emblematic of the work of many European theatrical artists in the early twenty first century Annamaria Cascetta does not propose a model or a historical overview but rather strives to identify the salient features of a significant trend in the theatrical research and transformation of our time by analysing some crucial examples from outstanding works of great international resonance She draws on work by artists from different generations all active between the late twentieth century and the first decades of the twenty first and in various European countries performed in a number of European theatres in recent years The aim is to apply a method of analysis in depth bringing out the technical elements of contemporary performative theatre in the field and above all to highlight the close links between it and the urgent and troubled issues and problems of history and society in the phase of cultural and anthropological transition we are experiencing      Teachers in the Movies Ann C. Paietta,2014-11-18 The teaching profession has a long history in motion pictures As early as the late 19th century films have portrayed educators of young children including teachers tutors day care workers nannies governesses and other related occupations in a variety of roles within the cinematic classroom This work provides a broad index of more than 800 films both U S and foreign which feature educators as primary characters Organized alphabetically by title each entry contains a short plot summary and many also include cast and crew details A detailed subject index is also included
