L'amour Fou Rosalind E. Krauss, Jane Livingston, Dawn Ades, 1985 Now back in stock A collection of fabulous photographs by the foremost Surrealist artists L'amour Fou Rosalind E. Krauss, Jane Livingston, 1986 L'amour Fou Rosalind Krauss, 1985 L'Amour Fou Rosalind Krauss, 1985 L'amour fou Rosalind Krauss, Jane Livingston, 1985 L'amour Fou Rosalind E. Krauss, Corcoran Gallery of Art, 1985 City Gorged with Dreams Ian Walker, 2002 The author analyses how the Surrealists utilised the tactics of documentary and how Surrealist ideas in turn influenced the development of documentary photography This is a study of what Louis Aragon called surrealist realism the exploration of the real life surreality of the city

Brassai Marja Warehime, 1998 In this study of Brassai's complete oeuvre the author analyzes Brassai's paradoxical position between documentary realism and surrealism in the France of the 1930s She stresses the subjects he pursued most passionately the shadowy Paris night urban graffiti and the nature of creative genius Amour fou (I'): photography and surrealism R. Krauss, 1985 The Art of Interruption John Roberts, 1998 This is the first monograph length study that charts the coercive diplomacy of the administrations of Richard Nixon and Gerald Ford as practised against their British ally in order to persuade Edward Heath's government to follow a more amenable course throughout the Year of Europe and to convince Harold Wilson's governments to lessen the severity of proposed defence cuts Such diplomacy proved effective against Heath but rather less so against Wilson It is argued that relations between the two sides were often strained indeed to the extent that the most special elements of the relationship that of intelligence and nuclear co operation were suspended Yet the relationship also witnessed considerable co operation This book offers new perspectives on US and UK policy towards British membership of the European Economic Community demonstrates how US détente policies created strain in the special relationship reveals the temporary shutdown of US UK intelligence and nuclear co operation provides new insights in US UK defence co operation and re evaluates the US UK relationship throughout the IMF Crisis Lee Miller, Photography, Surrealism and the Second World War Lynn Hilditch, 2018-01-23 Lee Miller 1907 1977 was an American born Surrealist and war photographer who through her role as a model for Vogue magazine became the apprentice of Man Ray in Paris and later one of the few women war correspondents to cover the Second World War from the frontline Her comprehensive understanding of art enabled her to photograph vivid representations of Europe at war the changing gender roles of women in war work the destruction caused by enemy fire during the London Blitz and the horrors of the concentration camps that embraced and adapted the principles and methods of Surrealism This book examines how Miller's war photographs can be interpreted as surreal documentary combining a surrealist sensibility with a need to inform Each chapter contains a close analysis of specific photographs in a generally chronological study with a thematic focus using comparisons with other photographers documentary artists and Surrealists such as Margaret Bourke White Dorothea Lange Walker Evans George Rodger Cecil Beaton Bill Brandt Henry Moore Humphrey Jennings and Man Ray In addition Miller's photographs are explored through Andr Breton s theory of convulsive beauty his credence that any subject no matter how horrible may be interpreted as art and his notion of the marvellous

Mina Loy, Twentieth-Century Photography, and Contemporary Women Poets Linda A. Kinnahan, 2017-03-16 In Mina Loy Twentieth Century Photography and Contemporary Women Poets

Linda A Kinnahan explores the making of Mina Loy s late modernist poetics in relation to photography s ascendance by the mid twentieth century as a distinctively modern force shaping representation and perception As photography develops over the course of the century as an art form social tool and cultural force Loy s relationship to a range of photographic cultures emerging in the first half of the twentieth century suggests how we might understand not only the intriguing work of this poet but also the shaping impact of photography and new technologies of vision upon modernist poetics Framing Loy s encounters with photography through intersections of portraiture Surrealism fashion documentary and photojournalism Kinnahan draws correspondences between Loy s late poetry and visual discourses of the body urban poverty and war discerning how a visual rhetoric of gender often underlies these mappings and connections In her final chapter Kinnahan examines two contemporary poets who directly engage the camera s modern impact Kathleen Fraser and Caroline Bergvall to explore the questions posed in their work about the particular relation of the camera the photographic image and the construction of gender in the late twentieth century

"Appropriated Photographs in French Surrealist Periodicals, 1924-1939" Linda Steer, 2017-07-05 The first monograph to analyze the Surrealist gesture of photographic appropriation this study examines found photographs in three French Surrealist reviews published in the 1920s and 1930s La R lution surr iste edited by Andr reton Documents edited by Georges Bataille and Minotaure edited by Breton and others The book asks general questions about the production and deployment of meaning through photographs but addresses more specifically the construction of a Surrealist practice of photography through the gesture of borrowing and re contextualization and reveals something crucial both about Surrealist strategies and about the way photographs operate The book is structured around four case studies including scientific photographs of an hysteric in Charcot s clinic at the Salp i hospital positioned as poetry rather than pathology and one of the first crime scene photographs depicting Jack the Ripper s last victim radically transformed into a work of art Linda Steer traces the trajectory of the found photographs from their first location to their location in a Surrealist periodical Her study shows that the act of removal and re framing highlights the instability and mutability of photographic meaning an instability and mutability that has consequences for our understanding both of photography and of Surrealism in the 1920s and 1930s

L' amour fou, 1986 The Beribboned Bomb Robert James Belton, 1995 Surrealism was ostensibly directed at the emancipation of the human spirit but it represented only male aspirations and fantasies until a number of women artists began to redefine its agenda in the later 1930s This book addresses the former using a thick description of the historically specific circumstances which required the male Surrealists to manufacture a sexual reputation of narcissism and misogyny These circumstances were determined by hegemonic masculinity an ideological construct which had little to do with individual masculinities In male Surrealism the beribboned bomb signified something both attractive and volatile a specific instance of the Surrealist principle of convulsive beauty In hegemonic masculinity similar devices served as metaphors of the sexuality all men were supposed to possess The intersection of these two axes produced an imagery of unrepentant violence

Photography and Surrealism David Bate,2020-08-12 David Bate examines automatism and the photographic image the Surrealist passion for insanity ambivalent use of Orientalism use of Sadean philosophy and the effect of fascism of the Surrealists The book is illustrated with a wide range of surrealist photographs

Danger in the Path of Chic Lucy Moyse Ferreira,2021-12-02 During the interwar years a proliferation of violence encroached upon the glossy idealistic world of fashion from the curiously common appearance of dismembered heads in fashion illustration to seemingly torturous techniques and devices advertised by beauty imagery even extending to garments designed to look assaulted and destroyed Danger in the Path of Chic brings this disturbing imagery to light for the first time proposing new directions for historians of fashion violence and culture in the interwar years Concentrating on London Paris and New York as fashion centres and political allies the volume explores why horror manifested itself in this way at this time and in a sphere that is usually perceived as being built on fantasy and escape In doing so Danger in the Path of Chic situates fashion within the very real social psychological economic and political traumas of the period

The Documentary Imagination in Twentieth-Century French Literature Alison James,2020-09-03 The Documentary Imagination in Twentieth Century French Literature identifies a documentary impulse in French literature that emerges at the end of the nineteenth century and culminates in a proliferation of factual writings in the twenty first Focusing on the period bookended by these two moments it highlights the enduring concern with factual reference in texts that engage either with current events or the historical archive Specifically it considers a set of ideas and practices centered on the conceptualization and use of documents In doing so it contests the widespread narrative that twentieth century French literature abandons the realist enterprise and argues that writers instead renegotiate the realist legacy outside or at the margins of the fictional space of the novel Analyzing works by authors including Gide Breton Aragon Yourcenar Duras and Modiano the book defines a specific documentary mode of literary representation that records assembles and investigates material traces of reality The document is a textual visual or material piece of evidence repurposed through its visual insertion textual transcription or description within a literary work It is a fact but it also becomes a figure standing for literature's confrontation with the real The documentary imagination involves a fantasy of direct access to a reality that speaks for itself At the same time it gives rise to concrete textual practices that open up new directions for literature by interrogating the construction and interpretation of facts
