Helming,2013-06-27 TW Index Volume 3 Jan Young, The Handbook of African Defence and Armed Forces Evert Kleynhans,Marco Wyss,2025-03-01 The Handbook of African Defence and Armed Forces provides the first in depth and multifaceted analysis of the evolution and current state of national defence policies strategies doctrines capabilities security challenges and strategic responses of African states and their armed forces Geographically these aspects are investigated at the national sub regional and regional levels Chronologically they are analysed against the backdrop of the superpower withdrawal from the continent in the 1990s and the so called New Scramble for Africa which has seen a crescendo of renewed great power interest in the continent s resources as well as its strategic role location and relevance since the 2000s The book takes a bottom up and African centric approach and is organized around five key themes i the differing security outlooks and defence policies of African powers within the region and the different sub regions ii the strategies doctrines transformation and employment of African armed forces iii the relationship between African armed forces with sub regional regional and international organizations iv the challenges that African states and their armed forces have been facing and their strategic responses and v the position of African perspectives and agency in the context of continental and international security and defence Understanding African security and defence especially in terms of each individual nation s ability to contribute to peacekeeping operations counterterrorism border security and internal security requires a focus on the national level of armed forces and defence policies this in turns sheds light on sub regional and regional divergences challenges and cooperation Based on this framework the chapters in this volume offer comprehensive African perspectives on African and international security and defence and in doing so show the agency of the continent s countries and armed forces in International Security and Relations Handbook on Critical Geographies of Migration Katharyne Mitchell,Reece Jones,Jennifer L. Fluri,2019 Border walls shipwrecks in the Mediterranean separated families at the border island detention camps migration is at the centre of contemporary political and academic debates This ground breaking Handbook offers an exciting and original analysis of critical research on themes such as these drawing on cutting edge theories from an interdisciplinary and international group of leading scholars With a focus on spatial analysis and geographical context this volume highlights a range of theoretical methodological and regional approaches to migration research while remaining attuned to the underlying politics that bring critical scholars together Handbook of Research on the Impacts, Challenges, and Policy Responses to Overtourism Ribeiro de Almeida, Cláudia,Quintano, Alfred,Simancas, Moisés,Huete, Raquel,Breda, Zélia,2020-02-28 In recent years the increasing number of tourists traveling to specific urban and resort destinations has caused challenges for the effective management of tourism in these areas with a resulting negative impact on towns cities and host communities Such issues have included placing undue pressure on infrastructure destruction of the physical economic and socio cultural environment and affecting the quality of residents daily lives by impacting their mobility and in some cases the price and rent of resident accommodation goods and services To achieve a certain level of balance between the interests of local residents and visitors new regulatory measures and legislation in high tourism areas must be discussed The Handbook of Research on the Impacts Challenges and Policy Responses to Overtourism is a collection of innovative research on best practices and legislation solutions for the management of tourism destinations suffering from overtourism tourismophobia or antitourism movement issues While highlighting topics including overcrowding social displacement and tourism management this book is ideally designed for local government officials policymakers lawmakers researchers entrepreneurs industry professionals travel agencies hotels academicians and students seeking current innovative empirical research on destination management practices and application techniques Handbook of Sustainable Development and Leisure Services Adrian Lubowiecki-Vikuk, Bruno Miguel Barbosa de Sousa, Bojan M. Derčan, Walter Leal Filho, 2021-01-16 This book reviews empirical and theoretical research on sustainable development in the context of leisure management for communities Although leading research centers are pursuing interdisciplinary research on leisure in the context of sustainable development there are still few papers that holistically address the current challenges in this area In addition demographic changes have made the promotion of a healthy lifestyle essential Doing so requires responsible behavior on the part of various stakeholders in this market This book fills an important gap in the literature and gathers contributions from an interdisciplinary and international team of authors whose fields of expertise include human geography management intersections of sustainability and leisure behavioral psychology and tourism Handbook on Space, Place and Law Robyn Bartel, Jennifer Carter, 2021-04-30 This innovative Handbook provides an expansive interrogation of the spaces and places of law exploring how we engage relationally in a material world within which we are inter dependent and reliant and governed by laws in a dynamic process It advances novel insights into the numerous intersections of space place and law in our lives Routledge Handbook of Naval Strategy and Security Joachim Krause, Sebastian Bruns, 2016-03-17 This new handbook provides a comprehensive overview of the issues facing naval strategy and security in the twenty first century Featuring contributions from some of the world s premier researchers and practitioners in the field of naval strategy and security this handbook covers naval security issues in diverse regions of the world from the Indian Ocean and the Mediterranean to the Arctic and the piracy prone waters off East Africa s coast It outlines major policy challenges arising from competing claims transnational organized crime and maritime terrorism and details national and alliance reactions to these problems While this volume provides detailed analyses on operational judicial and legislative consequences that contemporary maritime security threats pose it also places a specific emphasis on naval strategy With a public very much focused on the softer constabulary roles naval forces play such as humanitarian assistance disaster relief naval diplomacy maintenance of good order at sea the overarching hard power role of navies has been pushed into the background In fact navies and seapower have been notably absent from many recent academic discussions and deliberations of maritime security This handbook provides a much desired addition to the literature for researchers and analysts in the social sciences on the relationship between security policy and military means on under and from the sea It comprehensively explains the state of naval security in this maritime century and the role of naval forces in it This book will be of much interest to students of naval security and naval strategy security studies and IR as well as practitioners in the field

The Routledge Companion to Design Studies Penny Sparke, Fiona Fisher, 2016-06-17 Since the 1990s in response to dramatic transformations in the worlds of technology and the economy design a once relatively definable discipline complete with a set of sub disciplines has become unrecognizable Consequently design scholars have begun to address new issues themes and sub disciplines such as sustainable design design for well being empathic design design activism design anthropology and many more The Routledge Companion to Design Studies charts this new expanded spectrum and embraces the wide range of scholarship relating to design theoretical practice related and historical that has emerged over the last four decades Comprised of forty three newly commissioned essays the Companion is organized into the following six sections Defining Design Discipline Process Defining Design Objects Spaces Designing Identities Gender Sexuality Age Nation Designing Society Empathy Responsibility Consumption the Everyday Design and Politics Activism Intervention Regulation Designing the World Globalization Transnationalism Translation Contributors include both established and emerging scholars and the essays offer an international scope covering work emanating from and relating to design in the United Kingdom mainland Europe North America Asia Australasia and Africa This comprehensive collection makes an original and significant contribution to the field of Design Studies

The Law Reports of the Special Court for Sierra Leone Charles Chernor Jalloh, Simon Meisenberg, 2016-03-11 The Special Court for Sierra Leone was established through signature of a bilateral treaty between the United Nations and the Government of Sierra Leone in early 2002 making it the third modern ad hoc international criminal tribunal The tribunal has tried various persons including former Liberian President Charles Ghankay Taylor for allegedly bearing greatest responsibility for serious violations of international humanitarian law committed during the latter half of the Sierra Leonean armed conflict It completed its work in December 2013 A new Residual Special Court for Sierra Leone based in Freetown and with offices in The Hague has been created to carry out its essential residual functions This volume which consists of three books and a CD ROM and is edited by two legal experts on the Sierra Leone court presents for the first time in a single place a comprehensive collection of all the interlocutory decisions and final trial and appeals judgments issued by the court in the case Prosecutor v Charles Ghankay Taylor The Taylor case is the jewel in the crown of the SCSL as it was the first ever trial and conviction of a former African head of state for crimes committed in a neighboring state It is also one of a handful of such significant cases in international criminal law The Taylor Law Report contains the full text of all substantive judicial decisions including the majority separate and concurring as well as dissenting opinions and probably the longest trial judgment ever issued by an international criminal court It additionally provides relevant information for a better understanding of the case such as the indictments a list of admitted exhibits and a list of documents on the case file This book set which is the third in a series of edited law reports that follows volume 1 on Prosecutor v Brima Kamara and Kanu the so called AFRC case published in November 2012 and volume 2 Prosecutor v Norman Fofana and Kondewa the CDF case published in March 2014 seeks to capture the entire jurisprudential legacy of the tribunal fills the gap for a single and authoritative reference source of the tribunal s jurisprudence These law reports the last volumes of which will be published in 2015 and 2016 are intended for national and international judges lawyers academics students and other researchers as well as transitional justice practitioners in courts tribunals and truth commissions as well as anyone seeking an accurate record of the trials conducted by the Special Court for Sierra Leone N B The hardback copy of this title contains a CD ROM with the scanned decisions that are reproduced in the book and the trial transcripts The e book version does not Buy the complete set of 4 volumes 10 books in total with a discount see isbn 978 90 04 22161 1 The complete set consists of Volume 1 isbn 9789004189119 2 books Volume 2 isbn 9789004221635 2 books Volume 3 isbn 9789004221673 3 books Volume 4 isbn 9789004221659 3 books Service

Advising and Management Gary LaRosa,2019-01-17 In Service Advising and Management students gain the communication customer service and automotive knowledge they need to balance competing demands from customers technicians and shop management to become successful service advisors China's Digital Nationalism Florian Schneider,2018-08-16 Nationalism in China as much as elsewhere is today adopted filtered transformed enhanced and accelerated through digital networks And as we have increasingly seen nationalism in digital spheres interacts in complicated ways with nationalism on the ground If we are to understand the social and political complexities of the twenty first century we need to ask what happens to nationalism when it goes digital In China s Digital Nationalism Florian Schneider explores the issue by looking at digital China first hand exploring what search engines online encyclopedias websites hyperlink networks and social media can tell us about the way that different actors construct and manage a crucial topic in contemporary Chinese politics the protracted historical relationship with neighbouring Japan Using two cases the infamous Nanjing Massacre of 1937 and the ongoing disputes over islands in the East China Sea Schneider shows how various stakeholders in China construct networks and deploy power to shape nationalism for their own ends These dynamics provide crucial lessons on how nation states adapt to the shifting terrain of the digital age and highlight how digital nationalism is today an emergent property of complex communication networks Obama and the World Inderjeet Parmar,Linda B. Miller,Mark Ledwidge,2014-04-16 This significantly revised updated and extended second edition of New Directions in US Foreign Policy retains the strongest aspects of its original structure but adds a comprehensive account of the latest theoretical perspectives the key actors and issues and new policy directions Offering a detailed and systematic outline of the field this text Explains how international relations theories such as realism liberalism and constructivism can help us to interpret US foreign policy under President Obama Examines the key influential actors shaping foreign policy from political parties and think tanks to religious groups and public opinion Explores the most important new policy directions under the Obama administration from the Arab Spring and the rise of China to African policy and multilateralism Supplies succinct presentation of relevant case material and provides recommendations for further reading and web sources for pursuing future research Written by a distinguished line up of contributors actively engaged in original research on the topics covered and featuring twelve brand new chapters this text provides a unique platform for rigorous debate over the contentious issues that surround US foreign policy This wide ranging text is essential reading for all students and scholars of US foreign policy

Humanitarian Borders Polly Pallister-Wilkins, 2022-06-14 Winner of the 2023 International Political Sociology Book Award The seamy underside of humanitarianism What does it mean when humanitarianism is the response to death injury and suffering at the border This book interrogates the politics of humanitarian responses to border violence and unequal mobility arguing that such responses mask underlying injustices depoliticise violent borders and bolster liberal and paternalist approaches to suffering Focusing on the diversity of actors involved in humanitarian assistance alongside the times and spaces of action the book draws a direct line between privileges of movement and global inequalities of race class gender and disability rooted in colonial histories and white supremacy and humanitarian efforts that save lives while entrenching such inequalities Based on eight years of research with border police European Union officials professional humanitarians and grassroots activists in Europe's borderlands including Italy and Greece the book argues that this kind of saving lives builds expands and deepens already restrictive borders and exclusive and exceptional identities through what the book calls humanitarian borderwork

The Media and Aid in Sub-Saharan Africa Lena von Naso, 2018-02-05 News coverage on Africa is closely connected not only with how Western audiences see the continent but also with how a wide Western audience builds its opinion on issues that carry consequences for the public s and governments support and policy towards development aid The Western media reinforce a picture of a continent that drowns in chaos is dominated by conflicts diseases corruption and failed democratisation Whose interests lie behind that How does foreign news on sub Saharan Africa emerge which actors are relevant in its making and on the basis of what interests do these actors shape the coverage that is then presented as neutral information to a broad international audience Closely examining the relationship between foreign correspondents of international news media and humanitarian organisations Lena von Naso shows how the aid and media sectors cooperate in Africa in a unique way Based on more than 70 interviews with foreign correspondents and aid workers operating across Africa the book argues that the changing nature of foreign news and of aid is forcing them to form a deep co dependency that is having a serious and largely unnoticed effect on Western news coverage This comprehensive examination of a new paradigm will interest students and scholars of media and journalism African studies development and humanitarian studies and the aid and media communities operating across Africa
