SUMMER Comic Book Writing

You will need:

- Summer story brainstorming and comic pages
- Crayons, colored pencils, markers, etc.

Instructions:

1. Share this example with your child. We got in the car to go to the zoo as a family. After that we got in the car to head to the beach. After a while, there were the whales to feed everyone to get out! When we finished the zoo, while we waited, we thought that again. Then the zoo closed! When they close, the whales again, we get back in the car when it was time to go we get back in the car and drive.
2. Ask your child if they can think of their own summer stories that have lots of details. Just like the example. Then ask your child what they know about the format of comic books (panels, speech bubbles, etc. in the newspaper). Discuss this together (in pictures and text).
3. Tell the your child that they will be writing about their own summer stories. Some kids of get they will need to draw of a story about how several things that happened during their story.
4. Tell the children that first they need to come up with their summer story name. Read your child the list of summer brainstorming pages and ask them to choose one. They will have 2-3 days for their story.
5. Once they have chosen one storybook using the comic book pages.
