Polish Camp Literature Arkadiusz Morawiec, 2025-03-07 Polish Camp Literature expands the boundaries of Polish camp literature which has so far been defined too narrowly This restricted outlook has been determined by politics ideology the scarcity of historical knowledge the lack of literary research and frequent manipulation concerning terms such as concentration camp forced labor camp and death camp Camp literature was initially limited to Lager literature pertaining to Nazi German camps Over time gulag literature pertaining to Soviet camps came to be included as well It turns out that Polish camp literature is much more extensive and richer This volume consists of mini monographs on Polish literary works concerning either a specific camp or a specific type system of camps The chapters devoted to gulag literature i e texts about the Solovetsky Special Purpose Camp and Lager literature i e texts about Konzentrationslager Buchenwald expand on established findings while the following chapters deal with topics previously unexplored namely the literature relating to Polish camps such as the prewar Place of Isolation in Bereza Kartuska and the postwar communist concentration and labor camps in ambinowice and Jaworzno the Spanish Francoist Campo de Concentraci n de Miranda de Ebro and the Japanese Unit 731 and its research center in Pingfang Manchuria which included on top of laboratories and chemical and bacteriological weapons production units a prison a gas chamber and crematoria This book is intended to provide the impetus not just for further investigation into the unknown and insufficiently recognized areas of Polish camp literature but also through embedding the Polish literary output in the context of other national literatures and by means of their cross comparison for charting a map of world camp literature

Cultural Crowdfunding Vincent Rouzé, 2019-11-29 This new book analyses the strategies usages and wider implications of crowdsourcing and crowdfunding platforms in the culture and communication industries that are reshaping economic organizational and social logics Platforms are the object of considerable hype with a growing global presence Relying on individual contributions coordinated by social media to finance cultural production and carry out promotional tasks is a significant shift especially when supported by morphing public policies supposedly enhancing cultural diversity and accessibility The aim of this book is to propose a critical analysis of these phenomena by questioning what follows from decisions to outsource modes of creation and funding to consumers Drawing on research carried out within the Collab programme backed by the French National Research Agency the book considers how platforms are used to organize cultural labour and or to control usages following a logic of suggestion rather than overt injunction Four key areas are considered the history of crowdfunding as a system whose interests crowdfunding may serve the implications for digital labour and lastly crowdfunding's interface with globalization and contemporary capitalism The book concludes with an assessment of claims that crowdfunding can democratize culture
