Assessment and Management in Pervasive Computing: Operational, Legal, Ethical, and Financial Perspectives

Godara, Varuna,2008-10-31 Provides extensive information about pervasive computing and its implications from various perspectives so that current and future pervasive service providers can make responsible decisions about where when and how to use this technology Realities and Aspirations for Asian Youth Suzanne Naafs,Tracey Skelton,2020-06-09 This comprehensive volume explores the remarkable expansion of higher education systems and institutions in Asia in recent decades alongside changing forms of consumerism mobility and global economic conditions It demonstrates how recent changes in training education and employment have sparked new aspirations for possible and desirable livelihoods among the younger generation while also generating fresh problems and tensions The authors in this volume critically interrogate the links between education and employment normative understandings about youth and adulthood as well as personal national and regional level aspirations for economic success Comparative chapters on Cambodia China Hong Kong India Indonesia Japan Laos Nepal Singapore and Taiwan illustrate how young people are having to forge innovative pathways into the future while being confronted with ever increasing insecurities Offering important insights into the kinds of education and employment landscapes that Asian youth are navigating reworking or trying to avoid this collection is an essential reference for students and scholars of Asian Studies Cultural Anthropology Development Studies Human Geography and Youth Studies This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Children's Geographies World Development Report 2012 The International Bank for Reconstruction and Development / The World Bank The International Bank for Reconstruction and Development / The World Bank, 2011-09-28 The lives of women around the world have improved dramatically at a pace and scope difficult to imagine even 25 years ago Women have made unprecedented gains in rights education health and access to jobs and livelihoods More countries than ever guarantee equal rights in property marriage and other domains Gender gaps in primary schooling have closed in many countries while in a third of all countries girls now outnumber boys in secondary school And more young women than men attend universities in 60 countries Women are using their education to participate more in the labor force they now make up for 40 percent of the global labor force and 43 percent of its farmers Moreover women now live longer than men in every region of the world Despite the progress gaps remain in many areas Women are more likely to die relative to males in many low and middle income countries than their counterparts in rich countries especially in childhood and during their reproductive years Primary and secondary school enrollments for girls remain much lower than for boys in many Sub Saharan African countries and some parts of South Asia as well as among disadvantaged populations Women are more likely than men to work as unpaid family laborers or in the informal sector to farm smaller plots and grow less profitable crops operate in smaller firms and less profitable sectors and generally earn less Women especially poor women have less say over decisions and less control over household resources And in most countries fewer women participate in formal politics than men and are underrepresented in the upper echelons The World Development Report 2012 Gender Equality and Development argues that closing these persistent gender gaps matters It matters because gender equality is a core development objective in its own right But it is also smart economics Greater gender equality can enhance productivity improve development outcomes for the next generation and make institutions more representative Building on a growing body of knowledge on the economics of gender equality and development the Report identifies the areas where gender gaps are most significant both intrinsically and in terms of their potential development payoff and where growth alone cannot solve the issues It then sets forth four priorities for public action Reducing excess female mortality and closing education gaps where they remain Improving access to economic opportunities for women Increasing women's voice and agency in the household and in society Limiting the reproduction of gender inequality across generations The Mirror Margaret Safo (Mrs.), 2006-12-02 The Future of Rural Youth in Developing Countries Tapping the Potential of Local Value Chains OECD, 2018-05-30 Rural youth constitute over half of the youth population in developing countries and will continue to increase in the next 35 years Without rural transformation and green industrialisation happening fast enough to create more wage employment in a sustainable manner

the vast majority of rural LGBTI Asylum Seekers and Refugees from a Legal and Political Perspective Arzu Güler, Maryna Shevtsova, Denise Venturi, 2018-12-06 This book addresses the three moments in lesbian gay bisexual transgender and intersex LGBTI asylum seekers and refugees efforts to secure protection The reasons for their flight the Refugee Status Determination process and their integration into the host community once they are recognized refugee status The first part discusses one of the most under researched areas within the literature devoted to asylum claims based on sexual orientation and gender identity namely the reasons behind LGBTI persons flight It investigates the motives that drive LGBTI persons to leave their countries of origin and seek sanctuary elsewhere the actors of persecution and the status quo of LGBTI rights Accordingly an intersectional approach is employed so as to offer a comprehensive picture of how a host of factors beyond sexual orientation gender identity impact this crucial first stage of LGBTI asylum seekers journey In turn the second part explores the challenges that LGBTI asylum seekers face during the RSD process in countries of asylum It first examines these countries interpretations and applications of the process in relation to the relevant UNHCR guidelines and questions the challenges including the dominance of Western conceptions and narratives of sexual identity in the asylum procedure heterogeneous treatment concerning the definition of a particular social group and the difficulties related to assessing one s sexual orientation within the asylum procedure It subsequently addresses the reasons for and potential solutions to these challenges The last part of the book focuses on the integration of LGBTI refugees into the countries of asylum It first seeks to identify and describe the protection gaps that LGBTI refugees are currently experiencing before turning to the reasons and potential remedies for them State, Foreign Operations, and Related Programs

Appropriations for 2017 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on State, Foreign Operations, and Related Programs, 2016 Sweet Deal, Bitter Landscape Youjin B. Chung, 2024-01-15 2025 Outstanding Book Award by the Cultural and Political Ecology CAPE Specialty Group of the American Association of Geographers AAG Sweet Deal Bitter Landscape brings us to the mid 2000s when the Tanzanian government struck a deal with a foreign investor to convert more than 20 000 hectares of long settled coastal land to establish a sugarcane plantation Ten years on the deal was abruptly abandoned Popularly deemed a case of hubristic global development critics classified this project another in a line of failed modern resource grabs Youjin B Chung argues such tidy accounts conceal myriad and profound implications not only how gender history and culture shaped the project s trajectory but also how even in its stalled state the deal upended social life on the land by setting in motion incomplete processes of development and dispossession With rich ethnographic detail and visual storytelling Sweet Deal Bitter Landscape traces the lived experiences of diverse rural women and men as they struggled for survival under a seemingly endless condition of liminality In so doing she raises critical questions about the directions and stakes of postcolonial development and nation building in Tanzania and the shifting meanings of identity and belonging for those on the margins of capitalist agrarian transformation GED Test Prep 2023 /

Young Entrepreneurs in Sub-Saharan Africa Katherine V. Gough,Thilde Langevang,2016-03-02 Young people in sub Saharan Africa are growing up in rapidly changing social and economic environments which produce high levels of un and underemployment Job creation through entrepreneurship is currently being promoted by international organizations governments and NGOs as a key solution despite there being a dearth of knowledge about youth entrepreneurship in an African context This book makes an important contribution by exploring the nature of youth entrepreneurship in Ghana Uganda and Zambia It provides new insights into conceptual and methodological discussions of youth entrepreneurship as well as presenting original empirical data Drawing on quantitative and qualitative research conducted under the auspices of a collaborative interdisciplinary and comparative research project it highlights the opportunities and challenges young people face in setting up and running businesses Divided into a number of clear sections each with its own introduction and conclusion the book considers the nature of youth entrepreneurship at the national level in both urban and rural areas in specific sectors including mobile telephony mining handicrafts and tourism and analyses how key factors such as microfinance social capital and entrepreneurship education affect youth entrepreneurship New light is shed on the multi faceted nature of youth entrepreneurship and a convincing case is presented for a more nuanced understanding of the term entrepreneurship and the situation faced by many African youth today This book will be of interest to a wide range of scholars interested in youth entrepreneurship including in development studies business studies youth studies and geography as well as to development practitioners and policy makers The Open Access title has now been added to the Open Access page <http://www.tandfebooks.com/page/openaccess>
