Stick to the Skin Celeste-Marie Bernier, 2019-01-08 The first comparative history of African American and Black British artists artworks and art movements Stick to the Skin traces the lives and works of over fifty painters photographers sculptors and mixed media assemblage installation video and performance artists working in the United States and Britain from 1965 to 2015 The artists featured in this book cut to the heart of hidden histories untold narratives and missing memories to tell stories that stick to the skin and arrive at a new Black lexicon of liberation Informed by extensive research and invaluable oral testimonies Celeste Marie Bernier's remarkable text forcibly asserts the originality and importance of Black artists' work and emphasizes the need to understand Black art as a distinctive category of cultural production. She launches an important intervention into European histories of modern and contemporary art and visual culture as well as into debates within African American studies, African diasporic studies and Black British studies. Among the artists included are Benny Andrews, Bessie Harvey, Lubaina Himid, Claudette Johnson, Noah Purifoy, Faith Ringgold, Betye Saar, Joyce J. Scott, Maud Sulter and Barbara Walker.

See What You're Missing Will Gompertz, 2023-04-04 Taking us into the minds of artists from contemporary stars to old masters, See What You're Missing shows us how to look and experience the world with their heightened awareness. Artists are expert lookers; they have learned to pay attention. The rest of us spend most of our time on auto pilot, rushing from place to place, our overfamiliarity blinding us to the marvellous life-affirming phenomena of our world. But that doesn't have to be the case. In his inimitable engaging style, Will Gompertz takes us into the minds of artists from contemporary stars to old masters, the well-known to the lesser-known, and from around the world to show us how to look and experience the world with their heightened awareness. In See What You're Missing we learn, for example, how Hasegawa Tohaku can help us to see beauty, how David Hockney helps us to see colour, and how Frida Kahlo can help us see pain. In doing so, we come to know the exhilarating feeling of being truly alive. See What You're Missing is at once entertaining and enlightening art history while delivering empowering new insights to its reader.

Women Artists (Art Essentials) (Art Essentials) Flavia Frigeri, 2019-10-01 A chronological introduction to women artists throughout history, this book provides a rich understanding of key female artists from the Baroque to the present day. In 1971, in an essay that has now become one of the touchstones of feminist art history, Linda Nochlin raised the question heard round the world: Why have there been no great women artists? Since the 1970s, as a result of this kind of consciousness-raising, the feminist discourse around art has expanded, addressing forms of activism, the idea of a feminist aesthetic, the female body, sexuality and representation more largely. The reframing of female contributions to the history of art is still ongoing, and this new addition to the Art Essentials series draws attention to some of its key dimensions. Focusing on fifty diverse women artists from Artemisia Gentileschi through Judy Chicago, Ana Mendieta and the Guerrilla Girls to Barbara Kruger, Cindy Sherman and Mona Hatoum, this book equips readers with an understanding of feminist art as well as an appreciation of its most important figures. This latest addition to the Art Essentials series documents women artists in context to offer readers a rich understanding of key female artists from the Baroque to the present day.

Portrait and Place Giulia Paoletti, 2024-03-05 Strategically located on the Atlantic Ocean at the westernmost point of the continent, Senegal is well known as an epicenter of Africa's modernities, modernisms and liberation movements. It was also one of the countries where the daguerreotype first arrived in sub-Saharan Africa, before circulating inland and across the region. At that time, Senegal did not exist as a nation-state; local kingdoms were still in power, and the French presence was limited to trading posts along the coast. The pioneers of photography in the 1840s were not exclusively Europeans but also African American and Asian entrepreneurs In the decades that followed amateurs and professionals working in rural areas continued to explore and expand photography's possibilities Senegal's photographic histories thrived as part of a global visual economy during and despite the colonial experience Its works emerged as an integral part of the history of this medium which unlike any other was a global enterprise from the very beginning Portrait and place offers the first history of photography in this important country from its first iterations photographers and patrons of the 1840s to photographers such as Oumar Ka b 1930 and Mama Casset 1908 1992 who were active in the 1960s during the transition from the colonial to the postcolonial era Giulia Paoletti presents close studies of photographs firmly anchoring these objects their authors and their consumers in a global context that extends across West Africa the Black Atlantic and the greater Islamic community in other words beyond the borders of colonial empire Based on over ten years of field and archival research in Senegal this book features almost exclusively new previously unpublished visual material and explores both professional and amateur artists working in a wide variety of genres from landscape to portraiture and in media such as daguerreotypes and glass paintings As the first book to focus exclusively on Senegal's photographic histories Portrait and place expands the notions of what the medium has been and can be from a Eurocentric model to one that is decidedly insistently larger and more inclusive Black Artists in British Art Eddie

Chambers, 2014-07-29 Black artists have been making major contributions to the British art scene for decades since at least the mid twentieth century Sometimes these artists were regarded and embraced as practitioners of note At other times they faced challenges of visibility and in response they collaborated and made their own exhibitions and gallery spaces In this book Eddie Chambers tells the story of these artists from the 1950s onwards including recent developments and successes Black Artists in British Art makes a major contribution to British art history Beginning with discussions of the pioneering generation of artists such as Ronald Moody Aubrey Williams and Frank Bowling Chambers candidly discusses the problems and progression of several generations including contemporary artists such as Steve McQueen Chris Ofili and Yinka Shonibare Meticulously researched this important book tells the fascinating story of practitioners who have frequently been overlooked in the dominant history of twentieth century British art Lenard D. Moore and African American Haiku Ce

Rosenow, 2022-07-26 Lenard D Moore and African American Haiku Merging Traditions identifies Moore as a primary figure in the American Haiku Movement as well as a significant contributor to the field of African American haiku Ce Rosenow analyzes the ways in which Moore combines haiku with a variety of other traditions African American storytelling jazz poetry ekphrasis and elegies An examination of Moore's haibun a Japanese form combining prose and haiku reveals the further development of the African American aesthetic created in his individual poems Ultimately the author argues that Moore's decades long engagement with haiku and his prolific publication history solidify haiku as an established form in African American poetry
