M. Butterfly David Henry Hwang, 1993-10-01 David Henry Hwang's beautiful heartrending play featuring an afterword by the author winner of a 1988 Tony Award for Best Play and nominated for the 1989 Pulitzer Prize Based on a true story that stunned the world M Butterfly opens in the cramped prison cell where diplomat Rene Gallimard is being held captive by the French government and by his own illusions In the darkness of his cell he recalls a time when desire seemed to give him wings A time when Song Liling the beautiful Chinese diva touched him with a love as vivid as seductive and as elusive as a butterfly How could he have known then that his ideal woman was in fact a spy for the Chinese government and a man disguised as a woman In a series of flashbacks the diplomat relives the twenty year affair from the temptation to the seduction from its consummation to the scandal that ultimately consumed them both But in the end there remains only one truth Whether or not Gallimard's passion was a flight of fancy it sparked the most vigorous emotions of his life Only in real life could love become so unreal And only in such a dramatic tour de force do we learn how a fantasy can become a man's mistress as well as his jailer M Butterfly is one of the most compelling explosive and slyly humorous dramas ever to light the Broadway stage a work of unrivaled brilliance illuminating the conflict between men and women the differences between East and West racial stereotypes and the shadows we cast around our most cherished illusions M Butterfly remains one of the most influential romantic plays of contemporary literature and in 1993 was made into a film by David Cronenberg starring Jeremy Irons and John Lone

Comparative Political Culture in the Age of Globalization Hwa Yol Jung, 2002-01-01 With its specific focus on Asia this anthology constitutes an excursion into the realm of transversality or the state of postethnicity which the book argues has come to characterize the global culture of our times Hwa Yol Jung brings together prominent contemporary thinkers including Thich Nhat Hanh Edward Said and Judith Butler to address this fundamental and important aspect of comparative political theory The book is divided into three parts Part One demythologizes Eurocentrism deconstructing the privilege of modern Europe as the world's cultural scientific religious and moral capital Part Two traces the rise of Asian thought and the process of East West cultural hybridization while Part Three introduces the concept of the global citizen Jung's anthology reveals a postmodern multiculturalism whose new philosophical matrix transgresses the existing cultural and intellectual typology to offer new understanding of today's pluralistic world

Q&A Martin Manalansan, Alice Y. Hom, Kale Bantigue Fajardo, David L. Eng, 2021-07-16 This book is a follow up to Q A Queer in Asian America edited by David L Eng and Alice Y Hom published in 1998

Transforming Gender and Emotion Sookja Cho, 2018-03-08 The Butterfly Lovers Story sometimes called the Chinese Romeo and Juliet has been enduringly popular in China and Korea In Transforming Gender and Emotion Sookja Cho demonstrates why the Butterfly Lovers Story is more than just a popular love story By unveiling the complexity of themes and messages concealed beneath the tale's modern classification as a tragic love story this book reveals the tale as a rich academic subject for students of human emotions and relationships comparative geography and culture and narrative adaptation By examining folk beliefs and ideas that abound in the narrative including rebirth and a second life the association of human souls and butterflies and women s spiritual power this book presents the Butterfly Lovers Story as an example of local religious narrative The book s cross cultural comparisons best manifested in its discussion of a shamanic ritual narrative version from the Cheju Island of Korea frame the story as a catalyst for inclusive expansive discussion of premodern Korean and Chinese literatures and cultures This scrutiny of the historical and cultural background behind the formation and popularization of the Cheju Island version sheds light on important issues in the Butterfly Lovers Story that are not frequently discussed either in past examinations of this particular narrative or in the overall literary studies of China and Korea This new open approach presents an innovative framework for understanding premodern literary and cultural space in East Asia

Bodies, Boundaries and Vulnerabilities Lisa

Folkmarson Käll,2015-10-30 This volume explores the interrelations between bodily boundaries and vulnerabilities It calls attention to the vulnerability of bodies as an essential aspect of having boundaries and being bound to other bodies The volume advances an understanding of embodiment as the central aspect of subjectivity its identity formation and its relations to others and the world The essence of embodiment is what connects us with others and in equal measure what distinguishes us from others The collection also addresses the centrality of the body to political and cultural activity targeting the role and constitution of norms in the regulation of bodies and the construction of spaces that bodies inhabit in constructing national and cultural identities It raises questions of how bodies and boundaries materialize in co constitutive relation to one another how bodies are situated and come to embody various bodies and intersections between different categories of identity and systems of value meaning and knowledge how the regulation and policing of bodies and the boundaries between them come to constitute bodies as being weak strong vulnerable or resilient and as having more or less fixed or fluid boundaries The chapters in the volume all demonstrate how individual human bodies are formed in relation to each other as they are regulated and distinguished from one another by larger collective bodies of nature culture science nation and state as well as by other human or non human animal bodies

Human, All Too Human Diana Fuss,2013-10-31

The question of what it means to be human has never before been more difficult and more contested The human with a complicated social history that has rarely been examined remains entrenched in traditional Enlightenment thinking Human All Too Human considers how we might radicalize our notion of the human Can the human be thought outside humanism Any rethinking of the human places us immediately inside an ever widening field of contrasting labels animate and inanimate natural and artificial living and dead organic and mechanistic These and other boundary confusions at the frontier of the human are the subject of this volume as each essay takes up one of three disputed border identities animals things or children Human All Too Human examines how we explain our interest in anthropomorphism and our fascination with species categorizations Essays explore what we mean by things and how the integrity of the human may already be compromised by them The nine essays in this volume all attempt to rethink the category of the human challenging some of our most cherished cultural classifications By inviting us to place the traditions subject of knowledge in the unsettling position of object these writers interrogate the boundary distinctions that until now have exempted the human from the vigilant analysis it so urgently requires Contributors Nancy Armstrong Rey Chow Drucilla Cornell Diana Fuss Marjorie Garber Barbara Johnson Cora Kaplan James Kincaid Harriet Ritvo David Willis      Asian American Playwrights Miles Liu, 2002-05-30 In the late nineteenth century Asian American drama made its debut with the spotlight firmly on the lives and struggles of Asians in North America rather than on the cultures and traditions of the Asian homeland Today Asian American playwrights continue to challenge the limitations of established theatrical conventions and direct popular attention toward issues and experiences that might otherwise be ignored or marginalized While Asian American literature came into full bloom in the last 25 years Asian American drama has yet to receive the kind of critical attention it warrants This reference book serves as a versatile vehicle for exploring the field of Asian American drama from its recorded conception to its present stage Included are alphabetically arranged entries for 52 Asian American dramatists of origins from India Pakistan Vietnam the Philippines Japan Korea and China Each entry includes relevant biographical information that contextualizes the works of a playwright an interpretive description of selected plays that spotlights recurring themes and plots a summary of the playwright's critical reception and a bibliography of primary and secondary works The entries are written by expert contributors and reflect the ethnic diversity of the Asian American community The volume closes with a selected general bibliography which includes anthologies scholarly studies and periodicals      Field Work Marjorie Garber, 2013-10-28 First published in 1996 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company      Nationalisms & Sexualities Andrew Parker, Mary Russo, Doris Sommer, Patricia Yaeger, 2018-12-03 Originally published in 1992 Nationalisms and Sexualities addresses questions of how notions of identity are shaped by discussions of nationalism and sexuality The book looks at a variety of disciplinary and theoretical perspectives on a wide range of geographical regions and historical moments The volume departs from social scientific paradigms that treat nation and sexuality as discrete and autonomous entities Its contributors respond instead to emerging issues that redefine the horizons of what is globally considered today as the political how the formation of sexual gendered racial and or class identities have contributed to the formation of sexual gendered racial and or class identities and vice versa how technologies of representation play a role in the constitution of national and sexual identities how colonialism and postcolonialism have altered consolidations of national and sexual identities      The Artist as Monster William Beard, 2006-01-01 The first systematic examination in English of Cronenberg's feature films from Stereo 1969 to Crash 1996      Ethics After Idealism Rey Chow, 1998-01-22 Recognizing the necessity for a critique of idealism constitutes for Chow an ethics in the postcolonial postmodern age In particular she uses ethics to designate the act of making decisions in this context decisions of reading that may not immediately conform with prevalent social mores of idealizing our others but that nonetheless enables such others to emerge in their full complexities      Men and Masculinities in Global English Language Teaching R. Appleby, 2014-12-10 This book draws on a range of sources including tales of castaways fictional narratives and interviews with teachers in conversation schools and universities in Japan to explore many current concerns around teacher identity gender and intercultural sexuality in global English language teaching      The Politics of Insects Scott Wilson, 2011-08-18 Canadian film director David Cronenberg has long been a figure of artistic acclaim and public controversy Bursting into view with a trio of shocking horror films in the 1970s Cronenberg's work has become increasingly complex in its sensibilities and inward looking in its concerns and themes This trajectory culminates in the multiplex successes of his most recent films which appear to conclude a straightforward evolutionary arc that begins in the cold outside of shock horror and arrives in the warm embrace of commercial and critical success Scott Wilson argues persuasively that Cronenberg's career can be divided into broad thematic stages and instead offers a complex examination of the relationship between three inter related terms the director as auteur the industry that support or denies commercial opportunity and the audience who receive interpret and support or decry the vision represented on screen The Politics of Insects provides an opportunity to explore Cronenberg's films in relation to each other in terms of their thematic continuity and in terms of their relationship to industrial concerns and audience responses      Imagining the Nation David Leiwei Li, 1998 This book identifies the forces behind the explosive growth in Asian American literature It charts its emergence and explores both the unique place of Asian Americans in American culture and what that place says about the way Americanness is defined      Transgender Cinema Rebecca Bell-Metereau, 2019-03 Transgender Cinema reveals the scope of how trans people have been depicted on screen starting with Charlie Chaplin's comic drag scenes and culminating in current hits like Transparent and A Fantastic Woman It analyzes classic Hollywood movies indie films documentaries world cinema television and trans filmmakers and actors      Ends of Empire Jodi Kim, 2004 Ends of Empire examines Asian American cultural production and its challenge to the dominant understanding of American imperialism Cold War dynamics and race and gender formation Jodi Kim demonstrates the degree to which Asian American literature and film critique the record of U S imperial violence in Asia and provides a glimpse into the imperial and gendered racial logic of the Cold War She unfolds this particularly entangled and enduring episode in the history of U S global hegemony one that contrary to leading interpretations of the Cold War as a simple bipolar rivalry was significantly triangulated in Asia The Asian American works analyzed here constitute a crucial body of what Kim reveals as transnational Cold War compositions which are at once a geopolitical structuring an ideological writing and a cultural imagining Arguing that these works reframe the U S Cold War as a project of gendered racial formation and imperialism as well as a production of knowledge Ends of Empire offers an interdisciplinary investigation into the transnational dimensions of Asian America and its critical relationship to Cold War history      The Staging and Transformation of Gender Archetypes in A Midsummer Night's Dream, M. Butterfly, and A Kiss of the Spider Woman Mira Wiegmann, 2003

This study employs Jungian and post Jungian hermeneutics to address psychological social and political perspectives in A Midsummer Night s Dream M Butterfly and Kiss of the Spider Woman It should be of interest to theatre scholars and practitioners and scholars of popular culture     All My Relatives Bonnie TuSmith,1994 Challenges the prevailing notion that the work of all American writers reflects a sense of determined individualism     Contemporary Literary Criticism Jeffery Hunter,2005 Covers authors who are currently active or who died after December 31 1959 Profiles novelists poets playwrights and other creative and nonfiction writers by providing criticism taken from books magazines literary reviews newspapers and scholarly journals     Performing Ethnicity, Performing Gender Bettina Hofmann,Monika Mueller,2016-09-01 Performance and performativity are important terms for a theorization of gender and race ethnicity as constitutive of identity This collection reflects the ubiquity diversity and historical locatedness of ethnicity and gender by presenting contributions by an array of international scholars who focus on the representation of these crucial categories of identity across various media including literature film documentary and music video performance The first section Political Agency stresses instances where the performance of ethnicity gender ultimately aims at a liberating effect leading to more autonomy The second section Diasporic Belonging explores the different kinds of negotiations of ethnic performances in multi ethnic contexts The third part Performances of Ethnicity and Gender scrutinizes instances of the combined performance of ethnicity and gender in novels films and musical performances The last section Cross Ethnic Traffic contains a number of contributions that are concerned with attempts at crossing over from one ethnicity into another by way of performance
