Directory of Professional Women in Malawi ,1995 Malawi's Lost Years (1964-1994) Mwakasungura, Kapote,Miller, Douglas,2016-08-10 Malawi is a small and poorly known country but the crimes committed against its people by the brutal dictatorship of Dr Hastings Kamuzu Banda are a part of our shared human history It is about what happens when governments turn state violence on their own people with impunity The book gives voice to Malawians who were arbitrarily imprisoned who fled for their lives into exile or who suffered silently under the regime s state sponsored terror from 1964 to 1994 These are not easy stories for the victims to tell and people in power do not want them to be made public To add to the indignity endured by the regime s victims Malawi s current leadership has been rehabilitating Banda s image and honouring him despite well documented reports of atrocities and abuse of human rights Nevertheless even unpleasant history must be openly faced discussed and acknowledged to provide lessons for the future The book helps redress this one sided revision of Malawian history Fifty years after independence the Malawi people continue to suffer in absolute poverty and in greater numbers than ever because the lessons of history from Malawi s lost years have not been learned Malawi Telephone and Telex Directory ,1988 Journals of the Parliament of Malawi Malawi. Gender, Sport and Development in Africa Jimoh Shehu,2010 Drawing on various theories and cross cultural data the contributors to this volume highlight the various ways in which sport norms policies practices and representations pervasively interface with gender and other socially constructed categories of difference They argue that sport is not only a site of competition and physical recreation but also a crossroad where features of modern society such as hegemony identities democracy technology development and master statuses intertwine and bifurcate As they point out in many ways sport production reproduction distribution and consumption are relational spatial and contextual and therefore do not pay off for men women and other social groups equally The authors draw attention to the structure and scope of efforts needed to transform the exclusionary and gendered nature of sport processes to make them adequate to the task of engendering Africa s development
