Developing Professional Practice 14-19 Andrew Armitage, Gina Donovan, Karen Flanagan, Sabrina Poma, 2013-11-04 The Developing Professional Practice series provides a thoroughly comprehensive and cutting edge guide to developing the necessary knowledge skills and understanding for teaching within the 0 7 7 14 or 14 19 age ranges Each of the three titles offers a genuinely accessible and engaging introduction to a wide range of professional practice supporting the education of babies to young adults Discussion of current developments in theory policy and research is combined with guidance on the practicalities of working with each age group Numerous examples of real practice are included throughout along with a range of additional features to help promote understanding APAIS 1992: Australian public affairs information service ,

Boundaries of Adult Learning Richard Edwards, Ann Hanson, Peter Raggatt, 2013-09-13 Until relatively recently adult learning in the UK was largely recognised as being situated mainly within the LEA adult education centre university extra mural departments and the WEA However this picture has changed The major change has been a shift from education to learning as the key organising concept A greater range of settings are now recognised as sites producing learning and alongside this has grown a debate about the purpose and form of study within adult learning This has led people to question both the concept of adult learning and the boundaries of its provision This book reviews and assesses the changes which are taking place It explores the disputes surrounding adult learning discussing how boundaries have blurred thereby creating new opportunities such as APL and credit transfer and including a significantly wider range of activities within the definition of learning It also assesses the extent to which despite the changes in boundaries inequalities in learning opportunities still persist APAIS, Australian Public Affairs Information Service , 1992 Vol for 1963 includes section Current Australian
