The War

Plans of the Great Powers (RLE The First World War) Paul Kennedy, 2014-04-24 The origins of the First World War remain one of the greatest twentieth century historical controversies In this debate the role of military planning in particular and of militarism in general are a key focus of attention Did the military wrest control from the civilians Were the leaders of Europe eager for a conflict What military commitments were made between the various alliance blocks These questions are examined in detail here in eleven essays by distinguished historians and the editor s introduction provides a focus and draws out the comparative approach to the history of military policies and war plans of the great powers FMFM. , A

Photographic History of Amphibious Warfare 1939-1945 Simon Forty, Jonathan Forty, 2023-04-06 contains a plethora of after action reports diagrams and text which makes the work a thorough and engaging study of amphibious landings during the war WWII History Magazine Amphibious operations have always been an important element of warfare but they reached their climax during the Second World War when they were carried out on a large scale in every theater of the conflict That is why this wide ranging highly illustrated history of amphibious warfare 1939 1945 by Simon and Jonathan Forty is of such value Their book gives graphic accounts of the main amphibious assaults launched by the major combatants in particular the British American German and Japanese not just large scale landings like those in North Africa Normandy the Philippines and Okinawa but also raids such as Dieppe and St Nazaire and evacuations like Dunkirk and Kerch The rapid development of amphibious tactics and equipment is an essential element of the story as are the vital roles played by the navies air forces armies and special forces in each complex combined operation There is also a section on amphibious operations that were planned but didn't happen such as the German invasion of Britain and the Italian and German operation against Malta
