Exampler P2 Fal English 2014:

Early English Text Society ,1887 Problem-Solving Courts, Criminal Justice, and the International Gold Standard Anna Kawalek,2021-01-03 This book presents findings from a process evaluation carried out at a problem solving court located in England Manchester Review Court Unlike the widely documented successes of similar international models there is no detail of Manchester Review Court in the accessible literature not in any policy document nor is there a court handbook or website outlining objectives and expected practice In adopting the seminal wine and bottle analytical framework propounded by therapeutic jurisprudence scholars and by carrying out a detailed comparative analysis comparing the court to successful international problem solving courts the original empirical data brings clarity to an overlooked area A fidelity analysis is also offered for the forerunning English and Welsh drug courts which were established during the early 2000s but then shortly fell by the wayside without satisfactory explanation for why Findings from the book shed new light on the causes of the English and Welsh drug court downfalls pending recent calls to roll out a fresh suite of problem solving courts In light of the international evidence base and national struggles in the field the book proposes a renewed UK specific fidelity matrix to forge the impetus for new practice in this area whilst accounting for past failures and acknowledging current issues Therefore this book not only breaks new ground by advancing knowledge of a significantly uncharted area but provides important inroads for helping policymakers with their strategies in tackling recidivism addiction victimisation and austerity as widespread social and human issues currently facing both Manchester and the UK more broadly Presenting significant advancements in theory policy and practice at both national and international scale the book will be a valuable resource for academics and practitioners working in the fields of Therapeutic Justice Criminal Law Criminology Criminal Justice and Socio Legal Studies

The Miniatures and Meters of the Old English Genesis, MS Junius 11 Seiichi Suzuki,2023-05-22 The Old English Genesis is the sole illustrated Anglo Saxon poem In full appreciation of this unique concurrent execution of visualization and versification in a single manuscript this multidisciplinary work explores the pictorial Vol 1 and the metrical Vol 2 organization from both synchronic structural and diachronic comparative perspectives Among the most significant findings of each volume are The first twenty two images in the Old English Genesis originated on the whole from the Touronian Bibles and the underlying classical Old English and Old Saxon meters were interactively reshaped through mutual adaptation and recomposition aimed at their firm integration into a synthesized Old English Genesis While each part is solidly embedded in the respective scholarly tradition and pursues its own disciplinary concerns and problematics vigorous formal and cognitive reasoning and theorizing run commonly through both By way of mutual corroboration and integration the twin volumes eventually converge on the hypothesis that the earliest portion of the extant Old English Genesis lines 1 966 derived from the corresponding episodes of an illustrated Touronian Old Saxon Genesis in both pictorial and metrical terms

Childhood and Nation in Contemporary World Cinema Stephanie Hemelryk Donald,Emma Wilson,Sarah Wright,2017-02-09 The child has existed in cinema since the Lumi re Brothers filmed their babies having messy meals in Lyons but it is only quite recently that scholars have paid serious attention to her his presence on screen Scholarly discussion is now of the highest quality and of interest to anyone concerned not only with the extent to which adult cultural conversations invoke the figure of the child but also to those interested in exploring how film cultures can shift questions of agency and experience in relation to subjectivity Childhood and Nation in World Cinema recognizes that the range of films and scholarship is now sufficiently extensive to invoke the world cinema mantra of pluri vocal and pluri central attention and interpretation At the same time the importance of the child in figuring ideas of nationhood is an undiminished tic in adult cultural and social consciousness Either the child on film provokes claims on the nation or the nation claims the child Given the waning star of national film studies and the widely held and serious concerns over the status of the nation as a meaningful cultural unit the point here is not to assume some extraordinary pre social geopolitical empathy of child and political entity Rather the present collection observes how and why and whether the cinematic child is indeed aligned to concepts of modern nationhood to concerns of the State and to geo political organizational themes and precepts
