Exemplar For Tourism 2014:

Bushmen in the Tourist Imaginary Roie Thomas, 2016-12-14 This book is a semantic and semiotic analysis of tourism texts that represent specific groups of San or Bushmen in modern Botswana and is framed by postcolonial theory post tourism and resistance theories Critically the book demonstrates the power that both written and visual language can have upon consumers of texts It provides a case study of neo colonial exploitation and conversely reveals the efficacy of self representation for tourist consumption with an increasing number of San offering alternatives to an entrenched ethnic hegemony effecting gradual political and social recognition and autonomy As such the book is written in a spirit of optimism for the burgeoning self determination of a long marginalised group

Advanced Introduction to Sustainable Tourism

David Weaver, 2020-07-31 This critical review of sustainable tourism from its beginnings in the late 1980s to the present examines the pressing challenges posed by the effects of global warming and the persistence of deep poverty and social unrest in many regions David Weaver explores the convergence of mass and alternative tourism as a dominant theme Originally perceived as two incompatible forms of tourism they are positioned in this book through enlightened mass tourism as unified components of a single global tourisystem with the power to achieve sustainable tourism

Children in Tourism Communities Marko Koščak, Mladen Knežević, Tony O'Rourke, Tina Šegota, 2024-05-17 This book explores how children living in tourism destinations are particularly susceptible to the impacts of tourism and how they can be included in public policies programmes and decision making focusing particularly on case studies in Europe Children in Tourism Communities argues that for tourism to exercise its regenerative role and encourage sustainable development it must be inclusive of all voices especially children who represent the future generation and will soon become adults with the rights and responsibilities for engaging in and delivering tourism activities The book is based on original ground breaking research assessing the views of children regarding tourism with a specific focus on sustainable tourism and development It includes discussion on key case study locations including Croatia India Ireland Malta Serbia and Slovenia although the themes issues and practices have relevance in all tourism destinations worldwide Through child centred research the book evaluates the differences between those living in mass tourism destinations and smaller scale micro tourism areas It encourages a rethinking of sustainability as a concept and demonstrates how tourism can be utilised as a tool for achieving the Sustainable Development Goals This will be an important discussion text for students academics and instructors in sustainable tourism and development destination management culture and heritage as well as practitioners engaged in continuing professional development in these areas

Tourism as a Resource-based Industry Anna Lydia Svalastog, Dieter K. Müller, Ian Jenkins, 2022-08-16 Tourism as a Resource based Industry presents the conceptual framework of the Norwegian economic geographer Sondre Svalastog and functions as a practical tool for analyzing and identifying resources when working towards a more sustainable tourism industry Tourism resources and their sustainability are analysed through the lens of a multidisciplinary approach which includes social economic cultural and natural dimensions Contextual awareness is achieved by combining research based knowledge with local know how and information on local conditions The book facilitates a way forward that examines both productivity and sustainability The usefulness and value of Svalastog s conceptual work is demonstrated by a selection of new case studies by experts in the field from different countries including Sweden Norway Slovenia and the UK Tourism researchers and students will find this book helpful for understanding the development of tourism and how it can contribute to the UN Agenda 2030 which reflects the urgency for change to secure cultural and natural resources health and social resilience and the stability of a socially constructed economy Thus tourism research needs to include a constant review and if required renewal of processes that manage how society culture and natural resources are used to achieve a balanced sustainable tourism process
