Experiencing Chinese Workbook Living In China:

陈冠中: 中国 (陈冠中), 2006 12 Experiencing Chinese, 2006 Experiencing China Detlev Kirchgatter, 2003 If you are planning to enter the burgeoning Chinese economy may he be a person with just an interest in this fourth largest country in the world and a population of 1.3 billion people I went to China to discover facts of Chinese life its fantastic progress to see if I could make new friends and above all to separate fact from fiction in my mind In ten months stay of travel acting as a foreign expert I had the opportunity to meet Chinese from every walk of life Those heads of high technology plants to simple students from Tibet to the ancient farmer having lived through the dark ages of the Mao period a period that is not talked about and is best forgotten The adage that East and West shall never meet I would now firmly discard as one of the fictions adhered to in the West For when one delves below the superficiality one will find regardless if in the West or the East humanity has the same wants feels the same pains as well as joys Life Insurance in China Yien Dung, 1928

, 1916 Youth and Internet Addiction in China Trent Bax, 2013-08-15 A form of electronic opium is how some people have characterised young people's internet use in China The problem of internet addiction wanyin is seen by some parents as so severe that they have sought psychiatric help for their children This book which is based on extensive original research including discussions with psychiatrists parents and internet addicted young people explores the conflicting attitudes which this issue reveals It contrasts the views of young people who see internet use especially gaming as a welcome escape from the dehumanising pressures of contemporary Chinese life with the approach of those such as their parents who medicalise internet overuse and insist that working hard for good school grades is the correct way to progress The author shows that these contrasting attitudes lead to battles which are often fierce and violent and argues that the greater problem may in fact lie with parents and other authority figures who misguidedly apply high pressure to enforce young people to conform to the empty values of a modern dehumanised consumer oriented society Italy's Encounters with Modern China M.
