Intercultural Communication and Public Policy Ngozi Iheanacho, 2016-07-25 As there are different races and people in the world so there are different cultures meaning that cultural diversity is inevitable Through human contact and association cultures meet In such meetings every individual and culture projects itself as worthy and should be held in high esteem In today's world it is not encouraging to be ethnocentric always taking action or inactions that crystallize and project a feeling of one's own culture or racial superiority. Such attitude obstructs meaningful interaction, human relations, tolerance and cooperation. Conversely, the skill and ability to tolerate and communicate effectively with people from diverse cultures is a social activity which begins from thought to behaviour in both spoken and non-spoken versions. The book contains 19 essays structured into five parts.
