The Holy Spirit and Ch'i (Qi) Koo Dong Yun, 2012-03-02 This book articulates a contextual pneumatology from a perspective of the Eastern idea of ch'i in Korean Rather than understanding the Spirit from a Westernized philosophical perspective this book utilizes East Asian categories rooted in the I Ching and Asian religions in dialogue with such prominent Western theologians as Barth Pannenberg Moltmann and Harvey Cox The result is an exciting interaction between the Bible traditions of the West and experiences of the Spirit rooted in East Asia Yun argues that the formal dimension of the Spirit sangjeok is present and active in all cultures and religions while the material dimension of the Spirit muljeok is categorically revealed and embodied through the life of Jesus Christ the event of Pentecost and Charisms given to the church In making his case he mediates a creative balance between countercultural and exclusivist models on the one hand and pluralistic and anthropocentric models on the other

The Invention of World Religions Tomoko Masuzawa, 2005-05-15 The idea of world religions expresses a vague commitment to multiculturalism Not merely a descriptive concept world religions is actually a particular ethos a pluralist ideology a logic of classification and a form of knowledge that has shaped the study of religion and infiltrated ordinary language In this ambitious study Tomoko Masuzawa examines the emergence of world religions in modern European thought Devoting particular attention to the relation between the comparative study of language and the nascent science of religion she demonstrates how new classifications of language and race caused

Buddhism and Islam to gain special significance as these religions came to be seen in opposing terms Aryan on one hand and Semitic on the other Masuzawa also explores the complex relation of world religions to Protestant theology from the hierarchical ordering of religions typical of the Christian supremacists of the nineteenth century to the aspirations of early twentieth century theologian Ernst Troeltsch who embraced the pluralist logic of world religions and by so doing sought to reclaim the universalist destiny of European modernity
