Faces Of The Game:

Game Theory Drew Fudenberg, Jean Tirole, 1991-08-29 This advanced text introduces the principles of noncooperative game theory in a direct and uncomplicated style that will acquaint students with the broad spectrum of the field while highlighting and explaining what they need to know at any given point This advanced text introduces the principles of noncooperative game theory including strategic form games Nash equilibria subgame perfection repeated games and games of incomplete information in a direct and uncomplicated style that will acquaint students with the broad spectrum of the field while highlighting and explaining what they need to know at any given point The analytic material is accompanied by many applications examples and exercises The theory of noncooperative games studies the behavior of agents in any situation where each agent's optimal choice may depend on a forecast of the opponents' choices Noncooperative refers to choices that are based on the participant's perceived self-interest Although game theory has been applied to many fields Fudenberg and Tirole focus on the kinds of game theory that have been most useful in the study of economic problems They also include some applications to political science The fourteen chapters are grouped in parts that cover static games of complete information dynamic games of complete information static games of incomplete information dynamic games of incomplete information and advanced topics

Faces Inside and Outside the Clinic Tony McHugh, 2016-04-15 Drawing on studies of surface topography image editing and diagnostic and surgical experience Faces Inside and Outside the Clinic addresses the notion of truth in what are considered to be right and wrong faces whether in clinical cosmetic procedures or in specific sociocultural contexts outside the clinic With attention to the manner in which the human face and often the individual herself or himself as a consequence is physically defined conceptually judged numerically measured and clinically analysed this book reveals that on closer inspection supposedly objective and evidential truths are in fact subjective and prescriptive Adopting a Foucauldian analysis of the ways in which normalising technologies and techniques ultimately preserve and expand upon an increasing array of abnormal facial configurations Faces Inside and Outside the Clinic shows that when determining right and wrong faces what happens inside the clinic is inextricably linked to what happens outside the clinic and vice versa As such it will be of interest to scholars and students of social cultural and political theory contemporary philosophy and the social scientific study of science health and technology

About Face Christopher L. Flanders,2011-03-07 For Thais face is a fact writes Flanders However whether in theology evangelism or issues involving sin salvation or atonement Thai Christians and missionaries alike seem either uninterested in or possibly incapable of addressing issues related to face This glaring incongruity between the value of face for Thais and the lack of intentional engagement within the Thai Christian community is deeply troubling Surely such a lack of careful attention to face is a dangerous posture Uncritical views of face furtively attaching to the theology of the Thai church are potentially detrimental for its life and mission Such seems to be an unavoidable situation without proper attention to face Additionally to ignore face is to run the risk of missing valuable cultural resources implicit in the Thai experience of face for the critical task of authentic Thai theological reflection This lack of engagement with face raises critical issues with which we must wrestle How is it that such a central sociocultural issue has not been a more significant part of the Thai Christian vocabulary or experience How pervasive are these negative attitudes regarding face What lies behind them Might this lack of self conscious engagement with face have any relationship to the persistent Thai perception of Christianity as a foreign Western religion How should Christians understand this notion of face and how it relates to the ways we understand and proclaim the gospel
