Fake News in Ancient Greece Diego De Brasi,Amphilochios Papathomas,Theofanis Tsiampokalos,2024-12-02 Scholars have recognized that fake news is not a phenomenon peculiar to the 21st century While efforts for a more focused approach to fake news in the ancient world have been carried out in the field of Roman history the phenomenon of fake news in ancient Greece has received limited attention The contributions in this volume offer a selective approach to this phenomenon by applying media and cultural studies instruments to ancient texts They pinpoint parallels and differences between ancient and modern fake news by employing methods of literary and cultural studies as well as historical documentary analysis of ancient sources In particular they explore questions such as To what extent does reflection on the concepts of truth lie and opinion influence ancient Greek political rhetorical discourse What is the political or social function of embedding misleading information in ancient Greek historiographical texts or pamphlets Which intentions are pursued with the help of fake news in literary and documentary texts Can parallels be drawn with modern approaches to fake news Thus the volume investigates the mechanisms that historically lay behind the creation dissemination and adaptation of misleading information Domo's Quotes of Inspiration Part 1 D.J.
