The Socialist Car Lewis H. Siegelbaum, 2013-04-18 Across the Soviet Bloc from the 1960s until the collapse of communism the automobile exemplified the tension between the ideological imperatives of political authorities and the aspirations of ordinary citizens For the latter the automobile was the ticket to personal freedom and a piece of the imagined consumer paradise of the West For the authorities the personal car was a private mobile space that challenged the most basic assumptions of the collectivity The socialist car and the car culture that built up around it was the result of an always unstable compromise between official ideology available resources and the desires of an increasingly restless citizenry In The Socialist Car eleven scholars from Europe and North America explore in vivid detail the interface between the motorcar and the state socialist countries of Eastern Europe including the USSR In addition to the metal glass upholstery and plastic from which the Ladas Dacias Trabants and other still extant but aging models were fabricated the socialist car embodied East Europeans longings and compromises hopes and disappointments The socialist car represented both aspirations of overcoming the technological gap between the capitalist first and socialist second worlds and dreams of enhancing personal mobility and status Certain features of automobility shortages and privileges waiting lists and lack of readily available credit the inadequacy of streets and highways prevailed across the Soviet Bloc In this collective history the authors put aside both ridicule and nostalgia in the interest of trying to understand the socialist car in its own context

The Global 1970s Duco Hellema, 2018-09-03 No other decade evokes such contradictory images as the 1970s reform and emancipation on the one hand crisis and malaise on the other In The Global 1970s Radicalism Reform and Crisis Duco Hellema portrays the 1970s as a period of global transition Across the world the early and mid 1970s were still years of political mobilization with everything seemingly an object of public controversy and conflict including economic development education and family matters Social movements called for the reduction of social inequalities for participation and the emancipation of various groups at the same time as the rise of ambitious and reform oriented governments Ten years later a different world was emerging with the call for state controlled social and economic changes in decline and new economic policies centred on liberation and deregulation taking their place This book examines a range of explanations for this radical transformation highlighting how economic problems such as the oil crisis political battles and dramatic confrontations resulted in a free market oriented conservatism by the end of the period Divided into nine broadly chronological chapters and taking a global approach that allows the reader to see the familiar themes of the decade examined on an international scale The Global 1970s is essential reading for all students and scholars of twentieth century global history

Tarr, 1991 Price controls result in rents and in rent seeking Where the rent seeking dissipates the rents the costs of the price controls are magnified enormously above the traditional resource misallocation costs But there are cases where rent seeking does not

Jacobs, 2017-06-19 This book examines the dramatic increase in automotive assembly plants in the former Socialist Central European CE nations of Czechia East Germany Hungary Poland and Slovakia from 1989 onwards Enticed by relatively lower wage labour and significant government incentives the world s largest automakers have launched more than 20 passenger car assembly complexes in CE nations with production accelerating dramatically since 2001 As a result the annual passenger car production in Western Europe declined by more than 20% between 2001 and 2015 and alternatively in the CEE it increased by nearly 170% during this period Drawing on case studies of 25 current and former foreign run assembly plants the author presents a rare historical account of automotive foreign assembly plants in the CE following this dramatic geographic shift This book will expand the knowledge of policy makers in Europe in relation to their pursuits of FDI and will be of great interest to scholars and students of business economic history political science and development      The Evolution of European Identities

Graham Day, Robert Miller, 2012-06-29 The European project is in a state of perpetual crisis in which the root cause is a lack of identification by ordinary citizens with Europe and European institutions The Evolution of European Identities employs state of the art analysis of in depth interviews by renowned practitioners to give a unique bottom up perspective on the development or its lack of a sense of European mental space Linking conceptual findings with case studies the book provides unique insights into groups that have been especially sensitized by their life experiences to question what it means to be European in the twenty first century The groups explored in this book include adults who experienced European education exchanges when young transnational workers civil society organization activists persons involved in cross border intimate relationships farmers who are subject to European markets regulations and subsidies and migrants into fortress Europe

Cross Purposes Magdalena Waligórska, 2022-12-22 Traces the controversial history of how the symbol of the cross in modern Poland has been appropriated by different secular projects      Tadeusz Różewicz and Modern Identity in Poland since the Second World War Wojciech Browarny, 2019-04-10 As Andrzej Mencwel observed as a result of fundamental historical changes the need arises for restructuring of the whole present memory and tradition system Rodzinna Europa po raz pierwszy Changes of such significance took place in Poland during the Second World War and several following decades Collective experience of that time was made up of apart from political antagonisms social and cultural phenomena such as change of elites reinterpretation of their grand narratives or symbolic world the ultimate inclusion of the masses into the national project based on the post gentry tradition and national history the intensive development of urban lifestyle and the expansion of popular culture industrialization and the process of forming a single nationality state that diverted from the politics of domination over eastern neighbors and instead focused on developing the so called Polish Western and Northern Lands Tadeusz R ewicz s work referred to these experiences on both the intellectual and biographical level Comparing Juliusz Mieroszewski s political journalism with Tadeusz R ewicz s works Andrzej Mencwel stressed its unique relationship of the author of Niepokój According to him both writers were writing as though they had truly experienced the end of the world Przedwiośnie czy potop? Studium postaw polskich w XX wieku In the afterword to the German anthology of Różycki's works Karl Dedecius mentioned Stunde Null hour zero as the founding experience of his writing It was this experience that induced him to undertake the challenge of attempting a new collective and national as well as individual self identification searching for a radically new way of thinking and writing about man and verifying the essential components of his identity Andrzej Walicki called this urge the catastrophism after a catastrophe explaining that once the catastrophe took place a catastrophist acknowledging its inevitability must think about a new beginning about determining his own place in a new world Zniwolony umysł po latach Hanna Gosk specifies that it gave rise to situations when the necessity of discovering one's place in new geographical social axiological and world view related environment urged self identification Bohater swoich czasów Postać literacka w powojennej prozie polskiej o tematyce współczesnej It must be stressed that the need for re-establishing the sense of identity resulting from a major crisis was by no means limited to the postwar artistic and political elites On the contrary due to social changes and democratization of the access to national culture it concerned more than ever in the past the everyman who did not belong to one class solely the intelligentsia bourgeoisie peasantry or proletariat but most often represented multiple social rooting Tadeusz Różycki alongside with writers such as Tadeusz Borowski Marek Hasek or Miron Białoszewski made the Polish everyman Tadeusz Drewnowski the central figure of his work This study discusses the modern identity of an individual in Poland in two variants a cultured man with traditions and an ordinary transitional temporal or new man By adopting the narrativist approach identity can be described through its articulations in culture for example in literary texts Analyzing methods of modern identification and self awareness throughout this book I try to prove that prose works of the author of miejscowa dekoracja present an extensive interesting and diverse material in the matter When necessary I refer also to his dramatic works and poetry especially to some longer poems published after 1989 The author's most important prose works have so far been written in the first 30 year period starting from his debut volume of partisan novellas notes and humorous sketches Echa leśne mimeographed in 1944 While focusing on this period I also analyze later works published in collections Nasz starszy brat and Matka odchodzi published in the last decade of the 20th century although written at an earlier date Różycki's prose works analyzed here were published predominantly in the three volume edition of Utwory zebrane in 2003 2004 in the reportage collection entitled Kartki z Węgier 1953 as well as in the collection of newspapers features letters and notes written in the 60s and 70s in most cases entitled Marginesy 2010 I also make use of the earlier editions of his works containing prose works not included in Utwory zebrane for example from the volume Opadły liście z drzew as well as of some narratives published in journals and anthologies Conversations with the writer published in Wbrew sobie Rozmowy z Tadeuszem Różyckim 2011 and his letters to Jerzy and Zofia Nowosielscy included in Korespondencja comprise an auxiliary material What specifically draws my attention in Tadeusz Różycki's prose I read his works in the context of identity narratives manifest in culture and historical biographical stories. The questions then arise about their formative influence on an individual what within them presents a reference for the self seeking identification. When and how does individual experience take on an intersubjective meaning. Under what circumstances is it expressed in the public sphere. Have new identification patterns emerged in the Polish modernity and if so then what fields and phenomena of the 20th century culture or history have taken on such model significance. How and where were boundaries drawn between what is individual in an identity of a person speaking and thinking in Polish on the one hand and on the other what is collective. What has been considered native in this identity and what alien for example Western bourgeois communist German Jewish non normative in terms of religion or sexuality and in what way has cultural otherness been constructed at that time. Trying to answer these questions I refer to categories of cultural anthropology such as symbolic universe collective memory autobiographical identity body and space in culture as well as to notions from the social sciences interpersonal relationship public discourse and communicative community. To put it simply using these categories I try to describe the most important narrative forms and topics of R ewicz s prose that allow the writer to address and express in a liter ary form identity problems faced by an individual and the community. I also attempt to analyze the very process through which R ewicz develops his own unique identity narratives as well as the evolution of narrative conventions of his literary work. Reading R ewicz s works in this manner and organizing chapters of this book from the ones presenting public identity displayed publicly and codified in ideology or aesthetic to the ones presenting private identity I put an especial emphasis on some issues related to cultural studies and social communication. According to the reconstruction model I assume that even private experiences shape one s identity through culture and language. In R ewicz s narratives I describe and compare both more collective and more individual premises for constructing identity. The criterion for differentiating between these premises is determined by the narrativist approach adopted in this book. An individual s identity even autobiographical one is created and expressed within the existing culture and public sphere and for this reason I am interested in history of ideas in social relationships symbols and role models changes of customs and everyday life which left a distinct impression on literary political or historical narratives. Reading these narratives I make use of the following authors: Jan Assmann, Jean Baudrillard, Zygmunt Bauman, Ernst Cassirer, Michel Foucault, Marc Fumaroli, Hans Georg Gadamer, Jerzy Jedlicki, Anthony Giddens, Izabela Kowalczyk, Philippe Lejeune, Maurice Merleau Ponty, Stanisław Ossowski, Ewa Rewers, Paul Ricoeur, Richard Rorty, Elbieta Rybicka, Richard Shusterman, Georg Simmel, Jerzy Szacki, Magdalena Roda, Charles Taylor, Nikodem Boćza Tomaszewski, Christian Vandendorpe, Anna Wiczorkiewicz. I rely on their reconstruction of social historical background of modern identity presented by these authors as well as on language used by them. The book structure results from the overlapping or even conflict of two research objectives. My task is to analyze the most important premises and forms of identity in R ewicz s prose and I describe them in separate chapters as problems of culture literature and history of ideas as well as models and social projects It is my wish that all these perspectives make up a coherent identity narrative of man of the second half of the 20th century a biographical case study The study covers the process of political empowerment of an individual his her participation in democratized mass culture his her attitude towards collective memory towards Polish and European cultural community experiencing of body sexuality and everyday existence emotional and social relationship with space and finally an autobiographical identity which I reconstruct as a transitional and provisional whole One of the most significant issues covered in the book is the western orientation of Polish collective identity in the 20th century related to the modernization of Central Europe and the postwar division of the continent by the Iron Curtain which created in Poland a phantom idea of the West as well as to the shifted borders of the Polish state to the territories by the Odra river and the Baltic Sea to polonization of former German lands and finally to historical and political discourse legitimizing this transfer of territories Tadeusz R ewicz as a travelling writer and journalist has relentlessly problematized the relationship between Europe and its Polish idea as a resident in Gliwice and Wrocław not only has he described since the trip down the Odra river on a fishing boat from Kołobrzeg to Szczecin in 1947 symbolic colonization of the post German Nadodrze but also artistically diagnosed the birth of the new individual and social identity of the inhabitants of this border area with its clashing narratives of history biography and national literature alongside the overlapping traces of different cultures and traditions Writing about R ewicz s man in this book I clearly do not mean the writer himself It is obvious that among many convictions and attitudes that the author of Sobowtór manifests there are some of which he is fond and there are others of which he is not I do not disregard his views voiced in non fiction narratives and public speeches yet I am mostly interested in experience world view and self comprehension of his literary persona and literary hero presented or partially derived from an idea of man and of community in his texts Analyzing R ewicz s works I therefore distinguish between his self evident journalistic approach and his humanistic reflection which is a result of a philosophical or literary presentation of identity problems an individual faces I read his prose as an element of a public discourse and at the same time as an indirectly formulated in fictional intimate or notebook narratives criticism of social reality and European culture in the 20th century In most cases I leave open questions such as whether or not R ewicz was or is committed to a specific political project whether or not he is a modern man in different meanings of this notion whether or not his personal identity coincides with identity narratives in his books Finding an answer to these questions is not a purpose of this book It is distinctively the problem of Tadeusz R ewicz s intellectual commitment to modern culture literature and history and a problem of the writer s role in creative and critical understanding of them that I find more interesting and important

Apor, 2021-07-29 This volume offers fresh perspectives on the representation of the recent past in museums of the Second World War and of communism in post-communist Eastern Europe. It does so against the background of recent European-wide debates on history, memory and politics. The contributors from across Europe focus comparatively on a wide variety of case studies pointing out similarities and differences and accounting for transnational patterns of remembrance at regional and European level. Occupation and Communism in Eastern European Museums argues that museums have a huge influence on the image of the communist past in Eastern Europe. It shows how they use a vast array of media tools, visual tactics and commercial strategies in order to substantiate ideological approaches to the past and to shape the attitude of public opinion.

Estrada, Patricia A. Gwozdz, 2024-10-07 From the nineteenth century to the present, literary entanglements between Latin America and East Central Europe have been socio-politically and culturally diverse but never random. The Iron Curtain, in particular, forced both regions to negotiate transatlantic elective affinities to take a stance in relation to the West and to position themselves within world literature. As a result, the intellectual fields and creative productions of these regions have critically engaged with notions such as post-imperial, marginal or peripheral. In this edited volume, scholars from Germany, Brazil, Czech Republic, Hungary, Mexico, Poland, Slovenia and Spain cross the globe from South to East and back to uncover transcultural and transareal convivialities. Their papers explore literary history, poetics, intellectual networks and aesthetic theory while discussing new key concepts in global literary history.      Polish Perspectives, 1985
