Geography Midyear Examination Paper 1 Memorandum 2013:

Tigray: The Panarchy of War Mirjam Van Reisen, Munyaradzi Mawere, 2024-11-17 The Tigray War 2020-2022 left a deep and lasting impact not only on Tigray but also on the wider Horn of Africa. In this second book in a three-part series, the authors examine the devastation wrought by the war on Tigray's cultural heritage and identity. The deliberate destruction of ancient cultural sites and the assault on the Tigrayan people's identity have fueled a desire for greater autonomy among the people of Tigray to protect their future. Through the lens of Panarchy, this book explores how the war's effects extend far beyond Tigray, reshaping the dynamics of the entire region. Crucially, it uncovers Eritrea's secret role in the conflict, which was deliberately concealed by Ethiopia. Eritrean forces were implicated not only in atrocities but also in the use of particularly cruel and inhumane sexual violence intended to break the spirit of the Tigrayan people and erase Tigray as an ethnic and cultural group. This ethnographic research, conducted in collaboration with universities inside and outside Ethiopia, reveals the profound transformations caused by the war with consequences that will reverberate for years to come. It sheds light on the war's long-term impact and highlights the urgent need for international attention on the challenges faced by Tigray and the wider region.

The Northeast Question Pradip Phanjoubam, 2015-12-14 This book explores the idea, psychology, and political geography of Northeast India as forged by two interrelated but autonomous meta-narratives. First, the politics of conflict inherent in and therefore predetermined by physical geography; and second, the larger geopolitics that was unfolding during the colonial period. Unravelling the history behind the turmoil engulfing Northeast India, the study contends that certain geographies, most pertinently fertile river valleys and surrounding mountains which feed the rivers, are integral to nature and any effort to disrupt this cohesion will result in conflict. It comprehensively traces the geopolitics of the region since the colonial era, in particular the Great Game, the politics that went into the making of the McMahon Line, the Radcliffe Line, and the Pemberton Line, the region's relations with its international neighbours: China, Bhutan, Myanmar, Bangladesh, and Nepal, as well as the issue of many formerly non-state bearing populations awakening to the reality of the modern state. Lucid and analytical, this book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of Northeast India, modern Indian history, international relations, defence and strategic studies, and political science.

Land Fictions D. Asher Ghertner, Robert W. Lake, 2021-03-15 Land Fictions explores the common storylines, narratives, and tales of social betterment that justify and enact land as commodity. It interrogates global patterns of property formation, the dispossessions, property markets, enactments, and the popular movements to halt the growing waves of evictions and land grabs. This collection brings together original research on urban, rural, and peri-urban India, rapidly urbanizing China, and Southeast Asia, resource expropriation in Africa and Latin America, and the neoliberal urban landscapes of North America and Europe. Through a variety of perspectives, Land Fictions finds resonances between local stories of land's fictional powers and global visions of landed property's imagined power to automatically create value and advance national development. Editors: D. Asher Ghertner.

and Robert W Lake unpack the dynamics of land commodification across a broad range of political spatial and temporal settings exposing its simultaneously contingent and collective nature The essays advance understanding of the politics of land while also contributing to current debates on the intersections of local and global urban and rural and general and particular Contributors Erik Harms Michael Watts Sai Balakrishnan Brett Christophers David Ferring Sarah Knuth Meghan Morris Benjamin Teresa Mi Shih Michael Levien Michael L Dwyer Heather Whiteside

Geopolitical Perspectives from the Italian Border Christian Sellar, Gianfranco Battisti, 2023-04-13 This book presents the work of Gianfranco Battisti on Geopolitics and Border Geographies in north eastern Italy Europeanization and Globalization contributing to debates on the inclusion of non English speaking scholars in international geography It highlights the institutions and cultures that shaped more than fifty years of his writing as they emerged through his biography theoretical contributions and methods Battisti uses historical geographies as tools to explain contemporary geopolitics while maintaining a high attentiveness to data driven research He applies these tools to investigate geographical facts at the local regional and global scale viewed from the distinctive viewpoint of the city of Trieste a laboratory of geopolitical change for more than two centuries To better understand the importance of place in the production of geographical theories and methods this book discusses Battisti s biography in the context of the Triestino School of geography that started from the same French and German classics that shaped Anglo American geography in the 19th century to later express original features This book explains such features by introducing the concept of Geography as an industry that operates in a local and global context It then deploys the methods Battisti developed within his school to discuss the realities and problems of borderlands in a historic and local context during the first and second World Wars and the geopolitical rationale that shaped the times between The book continues to give an outlook on how Europe reconstructed itself geopolitically the implications thereof and a comparison of how this fits in with geopolitical agendas on a global scale

Jerusalem in Memory and Eschatology Emma O'Donnell Polyakov, 2025-06-12 Investigating a range of eschatological ideologies this volume explores the connection between notions of sacred space and time in Jewish Christian and Muslim understandings of Jerusalem The recognition of Jerusalem as a holy city both unites and divides Judaism Christianity and Islam While these three religious traditions share a reverence for the same ancient city this veneration leads more often to tension and violence than to commonality and cooperation Each of these religions draws heavily from religious memory and eschatological prophecies and sees Jerusalem as a site of past and future upheaval however the distinctions in their visions imbue Jerusalem with meanings that reinforce conflicting and contested ideologies Offering multiple analyses of religious interpretations of the city and its sacred sites this volume explores these divergent visions of the remembered and anticipated Jerusalem

The Report: Trinidad & Tobago 2016 Oxford Business Group, 2016-08-07 In its March 2016 Economic Bulletin the Central Bank of T T stated that after negative growth of 1% in 2014 T T's economy contracted by a further 2.1% in 2015 as per provisional data Meanwhile government revenue fell by 6.2% in FY 2014/15 with a 35% decline in energy collections outstripping increases in non energy and capital receipts Nonetheless the recessionary environment is not without opportunity for the country's new leadership As the Government of Keith Rowley which assumed office in September 2015 works to bring government spending under control policies aimed at economic diversification could be set to gain further traction Moreover given that T T has a safety buffer in the form of strong foreign currency reserves and a sovereign wealth fund there is a relatively room to manoeuvre

Zionism and Land Tenure in Mandate Palestine Aida Essaid, 2013-12-04 A fundamental aspect of the conflict between Palestinians and Israelis is the territorial dispute which began long before the State of Israel was established Analysing the land tenure system in Palestine under the administration of the British Mandate this book questions whether and to what extent the land tenure system in Palestine facilitated Zionist land acquisition The research uses benchmarks elaborated in the guidelines of the United Nations Human Settlements Programme as its analytical starting point and looks at the formation and implementation of the land tenure system in Palestine It goes on to place the penetration of Zionism into the land tenure system within the theoretical context of a colonial settler framework employing information from land registry records located at the Jordanian Department of Lands Providing a political historical analysis of the land tenure system from the end of Ottoman Rule until the end of the British Mandate this book will be of interest to scholars and students of Middle Eastern History Imperial and Colonial History and Middle Eastern Politics

Democracy and the Vote in British Politics, 1848-1867 Dr Robert Saunders, 2013-07-28 The Second Reform Act passed in 1867 created a million new voters doubling the electorate and propelling the British state into the age of mass politics It marked the end of a twenty year struggle for the working class vote in which seven different governments had promised change Yet the standard works on 1867 are more than forty years old and no study has ever been published of reform in prior decades This study provides the first analysis of the subject from 1848 to 1867 ranging from the demise of Chartism to the passage of the Second Reform Act Recapturing the vibrancy of the issue and its place at the heart of Victorian political culture it focuses not only on the reform debate itself but on a whole series of related controversies including the growth of trade unionism the impact of the 1848 revolutions and the discussion of French and American democracy Security and Territoriality in the Persian Gulf Dr Pirouz Mojtahed-Zadeh,Pirouz Mojtahed-Zadeh,2013-11-05 This study presents the story of successes and failures of the treatment of security matters pertaining to territorial and boundary affairs in the maritime areas of the Persian Gulf and at the same time provides an example of the impact of territoriality on world wide maritime security
