Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 2010 The Shifting Global World of Youth and Education Mabel Ann Brown, 2017-08-15 The Shifting Global World of Youth and Education explores how increasing migration and population changes are having an unprecedented impact on global education Given that the number of children of migrant background is growing internationally there is a need for increasing awareness of the educational attainment and cultural integration of this population group This book presents international perspectives on migration and youth and analyses what kinds of effects such demographic changes are having on educational systems around the world The chapters in this volume provide a fascinating insight into how countries around the world are dealing with loss or growth in their young population as well as changes to their education systems Written by specialist academics from the relevant country the book covers Cuba Lithuania the United Kingdom the United States Finland Greece Germany Austria Hungary Latvia China Australia India Italy and Poland Taking into consideration the countries social and political context the chapters discuss educational issues surrounding curriculum assessment and the opportunities available for the support of young people Conclusions are drawn about what could be done in the future for the benefit of both the migrant and the existing populations The Shifting Global World of Youth and Education will be of great interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the disciplines of education sociology political sciences and social work The book will also give secondary teachers teaching assistants social workers and youth workers the opportunity to reflect on their role within a national and international context Cross-Curricular Teaching and Learning in the Secondary School... Humanities Richard Harris, Simon Harrison, Richard McFahn, 2013-03 Drawing on case studies taken from a range of innovative secondary schools and interrogating the use of cross curricular approaches in UK schools Cross Curricular Teaching and Learning in Humanities constructs a research based pedagogy with practical steps for students and teachers as they consider how cross curricular approaches can be implemented in their own subject areas The Knowledge Gap Natalie Wexler, 2019-08-06 Essential reading for teachers education administrators and policymakers alike STARRED Library Journal The untold story of the root cause of America's education crisis It was only after years within the education reform movement that Natalie Wexler stumbled across a hidden explanation for our country's frustrating lack of progress when it comes to providing every child with a quality education The problem wasn't one of the usual scapegoats lazy teachers shoddy facilities lack of accountability It was something no one was talking about the elementary school curriculum's intense focus on decontextualized reading comprehension skills at the expense of actual knowledge In the tradition of Dale Russakoff's The Prize and Dana Goldstein's The Teacher Wars Wexler brings together history research and compelling characters to pull back the curtain on this fundamental flaw in our education system one that fellow reformers journalists and policymakers have long overlooked and of which the general public including many parents remains unaware But The Knowledge Gap isn't just a story of what schools have gotten so wrong it also follows innovative educators who are in the process of shedding their deeply ingrained habits and describes the rewards that have come along students who are not only excited to learn but are also acquiring the knowledge and vocabulary that will enable them to succeed If we truly want to fix our education system and unlock the potential of our neediest children we have no choice but to pay attention
