G. Kise,2014 Move from entrenched differences to common goals All too often key education initiatives collapse because leaders fail to anticipate and learn from the concerns of those charged with implementation This illuminating book shows how education leaders can bring opposing groups to common ground resulting in a solid plan built on diverse wisdom Acclaimed education coach Jane Kise demonstrates how polarity thinking a powerful tool for bridging differences developed by Barry Johnson of Polarity Partnerships provides an alternative to endless debates and either or thinking Rather than seeing conflicting forces the tools help us view them as equally important even interdependent concepts approaches or models Readers will find Ways to recognize polarities map the positive and negative aspects and channel energy wasted on disagreement toward a greater common purpose Tools for introducing and working with polarities Polarity mapping to help leaders improve processes for leading change and creating buy in Ways to use polarity with students as a framework for higher level thinking Jane Kise provides guidance for educators engaged in deep change and implementation of initiatives in which stakeholders have opposing perspectives Through authentic examples of significant changes educators face today Kise guides educators to leverage polarity thinking to promote commitment engagement and investment Joellen Killian Senior Advisor Learning Forward The mind entrenched in the rigidity of either or thinking dwells on the divisions and ignores the connections of both and This engaging and practical book helps our students and their teachers transcend those divisions in a journey toward enriched enlightenment and greater flexibility Arthur L Costa Emeritus Professor California State University Sacramento Renewing the physical infrastructure of English further education colleges Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Committee of Public Accounts,2009-07-28 In 2001 the newly established Learning and Skills Council the Council took over a programme of capital works in the further education sector to renew an estate that was too large with much of it in poor condition and no longer fit for modern educational purposes By March 2008 a total of 4 2 billion of projects had been approved in detail including grant support from the Council of 1 7 billion and about half of the estate had been renewed Since April 2008 there has been a very serious failure in the management of the programme It approved in principle 79 colleges projects which required nearly 2 7 billion of Council funding more than it could afford Before the current problems arose the programme had achieved some successes enabling the estate to be reduced in size and the buildings are generally of good quality and are contributing to increased learner participation The economic downturn could affect colleges ability to fund projects by restricting their access to loan finance or their ability to sell surplus assets The indebtedness of the sector is rising The Council needs to monitor closely the financial health of some colleges particularly those that have borrowings that exceed 40 per cent of their annual income In 2010 the Council is expected to be dissolved and its functions taken over by the Skills Funding Agency and the Young People s Learning Agency There needs to be clarity about responsibilities for the capital programme and additional administrative burdens on colleges must be avoided Human Heritage Miriam Greenblatt,Peter S.
