

Activity Overview: Argument Strategy with Partner History

As we get used to this routine, I'd want to invite partners to incorporate evidence to defend their position and to respond to their partner's evidence.

Remember that a good argument should include both evidence and reasoning.

1. How did the first argument strategy to make the first argument work?
2. How did the second argument strategy to make the second argument work?

3. How did the first argument strategy to make the first argument work?
4. How did the second argument strategy to make the second argument work?

Using argument strategy evidence to defend your position is a good argument strategy.

5. How did the first argument strategy to make the first argument work?
6. How did the second argument strategy to make the second argument work?

7. How did the first argument strategy to make the first argument work?
8. How did the second argument strategy to make the second argument work?

The argument strategy evidence to defend your position is a good argument strategy.

As we get used to this routine, I'd want to invite partners to incorporate evidence to defend their position and to respond to their partner's evidence.
