E. A. J. Johnson

Guided Answer Key Imperialism:

Imperialism Richard Koebner, Helmut Dan Schmidt, 1964-01-03 This is a comprehensive study examining the changing concepts of Empire and Imperialism from the nineteenth century to the beginning of the 1960s This study is not simply the biography of a word but a history of political consciousness important to historians and political scientists alike U.S. Imperialism and Revolution in the Philippines E. San Juan, Jr., 2007-09-03 Please note this is a Palgrave to Order title PTO Stock of this book requires shipment from an overseas supplier It will be delivered to you within 12 weeks This book offers the first history of the Filipinos in the United States focusing on the significance of the Moro people's struggle for self determination

American Imperialism in the Image of Peer Gynt E. A. J. Johnson, 1971 American Imperialism in the Image of Peer Gynt was first published in 1971 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions This is the life story of an economic historian whose distinguished career has included nine years of service as a United States government official in various capacities both military and civilian around the world It is a revealing and often disturbing account evoking in the author's mind as he reflects on his own experiences and those of other American emissaries abroad the image of Ibsen's Peer Gynt who wandered over the earth thinking he was doing good only to find when he returned home that both his virtues and his sins were so insignificant that his soul was scheduled by the buttonmolder to be cast into limbo in the form of a little lead button Professor Johnson's book is much more than an autobiography From the vantage point of his experiences and observations he provides a critical evaluation of American efforts abroad He discusses cultural factors that have shaped American preconceptions and attitudes over the last half century and attempts to explain why a generation of presumably well equipped Americans has been singularly incapable of materializing the hopes and aspirations of both the American people and the world community

British Imperial and Foreign Policy, 1846-1980 John Aldred, 2004 Heinemann Advanced History has quickly established itself as a major series for AS and A level students As well as word of mouth success it has been praised in journals such as the Times Educational Supplement and BBC History Magazine What makes Heinemann Advanced History so attractive to teachers and students It's cost effective Each book offers complete coverage of one AS A level topic so teachers and students buy the books that apply to their specific courses Thorough and up to date exam practice includes sample questions advice on what makes a good answer and help for students on how to interpret the material as well as and plan essays The expert authors have teaching and examination experience giving teachers confidence in the series PLUS Profile raising campaign To include press advertising in New Perspective and Teaching History making sure teachers are aware of the full range of 30 titles and encouraging students to buy their own copies

America Pathways to the Present, 1995 Alliance and Illusion Robert Bothwell, 2011-11-01 Alliance and Illusion is the definitive assessment of the domestic and international aspects of Canadian foreign policy in the modern era

Robert Bothwell provides nuanced studies of Canada's leaders and discusses international currents that drove Canadian external affairs from American influence over Vietnam and the draft dodgers to the French case of de Gaulle's eruption into Quebec in 1967. This definitive recounting and assessment of Canadian foreign policy in the modern era fills a crucial gap in Canadian history and provides invaluable context for understanding Canada's present-day foreign policy dilemmas.

Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists, 1969-02. The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security. Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists, the Bulletin's iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world.

Colony, Nation, and Globalisation Eddie Tay, 2010-06-01. The literature of Malaysia and Singapore, the multicultural epicentre of Asia, offers a rich body of source material for appreciating the intellectual heritage of colonial and postcolonial Southeast Asia. Focusing on themes of home and belonging, Eddie Tay illuminates many aspects of identity anxiety experienced in the region and helps construct a dialogue between postcolonial theory and the Anglophone literatures of Singapore and Malaysia. A chronologically ordered selection of texts is examined, including Swettenham Bird, Maugham, Burgess, and Thumboo. This genealogy of works includes colonial travel writings and sketches as well as contemporary diasporic novels by Malaysian and Singapore-born authors based outside their countries of origin. The premise is that home is a physical space as well as a symbolic terrain invested with social, political, and cultural meanings. As discussions of politics and history augment close readings of literary works, the book should appeal not only to scholars of literature but also to scholars of Southeast Asian politics and history.
