Guidelines To Selling Homemade Foods:

Manual for the Preparation and Sale of Fruits and Vegetables Andrés F. López Camelo, Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2004-01-01 The fruit and vegetable production sector of Latin America and the Caribbean Asia and Eastern Europe is facing a new situation where on the one hand supermarket chains account for an increasing percentage of the domestic food retail market and on the other hand producers must compete in an increasingly demanding global market for non traditional and off season fruits and vegetables Small farmers are increasingly being marginalized and will be facing unequal market conditions unless they are able to change their practices to meet the needs of a modern food marketing system Regardless of the production system the technological challenge is to increase returns through the rational use of available resources reducing production costs and post harvest losses enhancing competitiveness and adding value to the final product
