Partial Hegemony Jeff D. Colgan,2021-09-01 The global history of oil politics from World War I to the present can teach us much about world politics climate change and international order in the twenty first century When and why does international order change The largest peaceful transfer of wealth across borders in all of human history began with the oil crisis of 1973 OPEC countries turned the tables on the most powerful businesses on the planet quadrupling the price of oil and shifting the global distribution of profits It represented a huge shift in international order Yet the textbook explanation for how world politics works that the most powerful country sets up and sustains the rules of international order after winning a major war doesn't fit these events or plenty of others Instead of thinking of the international order as a single thing Jeff Colgan explains how it operates in parts and often changes in peacetime Partial Hegemony offers lessons for leaders and analysts seeking to design new international governing arrangements to manage an array of pressing concerns ranging from US China rivalry to climate change and from nuclear proliferation to peacekeeping A major contribution to international relations theory this book promises to reshape our understanding of the forces driving change in world politics

Race Discrimination and Management of Ethnic Diversity and Migration at Work Joana Vassilopoulou,Julienne Brabet,Victoria Showunmi,2019-08-28 Race Discrimination and Management of Ethnic Diversity and Migration at Work analyses nine countries perspectives on Diversity Management and their increasing awareness of diversity equality racism and discrimination within companies and organisations throughout Europe Finding Reliable Information Online Leslie F. Stebbins,2015-09-16 We live in an information saturated environment and spend far too much time searching surfing skimming contributing and organizing the information in our lives We spend too little time immersing ourselves in reliable high quality information We are often so buried in information and strapped for time that we grab information like it was fast food without bothering to evaluate its quality Finding Reliable Information Online Adventures of an Information Sleuth uses stories or information adventures to illustrate the best approaches to searching for information and to help us develop our aptitude for locating high quality resources in a rapidly changing digital environment that is becoming proficient at monopolizing our attention with useless or unreliable information This book is about taking charge of the search process and not handing over the reins to search engines like Google Bing or Yahoo to dictate what information we consume Each chapter focuses on a quest for different types of information while digging deeper into the complexities of finding credible places to look for information and ways to think about evaluating it As the Internet evolves and becomes more sophisticated our strategies for finding and evaluating information need to evolve as well The stories in this book range from investigating challenging research questions to exploring health issues and everyday life questions like finding a reliable restaurant or product review These chapters go beyond the simple and more mechanical checklist approach to evaluating information though these factors are also discussed Association of Diabetes Mellitus with Cognitive Impairment and Neurological Disorders Ben Nephew,Richard Lopez,Xiaodong Sun,Joana Nicolau ,Lei Sha,2024-11-01 Diabetes mellitus DM can have a range of impacts on the nervous system and can lead to a decrease in multiple domains of cognitive function which range from small decrements in function to dementia Cognitive impairment as a comorbidity of diabetes is multifactorial and dysfunction in one pathway can lead to discordance in metabolic signaling These mechanisms can be related to mitochondrial dysfunction insulin signaling dysfunction and endothelial dysfunction amongst others These defects have been associated with various structural and functional changes in the brain which can be identified using neuroimaging technology on patients Some of these changes include interhemispheric asymmetry peculiarities of vascularization and brain hypo connectivity Complications associated with pathology of the central nervous system are expected to increase due to the prevalence of type 2 diabetes mellitus and increasing life expectancy of populations across the World This may have significant impacts on public health in the future Architectural Research Addressing Societal Challenges Volume 1

Kyriakidou, 2025-04-24 Artificial intelligence AI is rapidly transforming the world of work but how does it impact diversity equity and inclusion DEI AI and Diversity in a Datafied World of Work addresses the critical question of whether AI will create more inclusive workplaces or exacerbate existing inequalities Global Plastic Pollution and its Regulation Gerry

Nagtzaam, Geert Van Calster, Steve Kourabas, Elena Karataeva, 2023-08-14 Addressing one of the most pressing environmental issues this topical book carefully inspects the current extent of the plastic pollution crisis and observes contemporary approaches to its regulation By adopting a strong interdisciplinary approach this book fully encapsulates the key challenges and solutions surrounding this globally applicable problem Future Cities - City Futures Christian

Veddeler, Joran Kuijper, Michal Gath-Morad, Iris van der Wal, 2023-04-13 The book is about future cities and possible scenarios for city futures A question central to this book is how to face urban challenges while providing and safeguarding positive outcomes concerned with the improvement of the quality of urban life How can future cities be made more liveable sustainable and resilient How can cities continue to provide a wide range of opportunities for all necessities of life To tackle these complex questions the book includes a collection of 25 articles written by 37 emerging voices in urban design and research Together they contribute from a diverse spectrum of interest expertise academic disciplines and practice They approach the built environment from a socio cultural respectively socio economic perspective from the viewpoint of urban policy and public health with environmental concerns for urban sustainability and circularity in mind and through the lens of urban computer and data science providing a take on urban digitalization and transformation of cities into smart cities

Together their contributions reflect the complexity and diversity of challenges and opportunities underpinning future cities Future Cities City Futures intends to be a platform for trans disciplinary urban discourse Diffusion of Good Government Natasha Borges Sugiyama, 2012-12-15 One of the most fundamental questions for social scientists involves diffusion events simply put how do ideas spread and why do people embrace them In Diffusion of Good Government Social Sector Reforms in Brazil Natasha Borges Sugiyama examines why innovations spread across political territories and what motivates politicians to adopt them Sugiyama does so from the vantage point of Brazilian politics a home to innovative social sector reforms intended to provide the poor with access to state resources Since the late 1980s the country has undergone major policy transformations as local governments have gained political fiscal and administrative autonomy For the poor and other vulnerable groups local politics holds special importance municipal authorities provide essential basic services necessary for their survival including social assistance education and health care Brazil with over 5 000 municipalities with a wide variety of political cultures and degrees of poverty thus provides ample opportunities to examine the spread of innovative programs to assist such groups Sugiyama delves into the politics of social sector reforms by examining the motivations for emulating well regarded programs To uncover the mechanisms of diffusion her analysis contrasts three paradigmatic models for how individuals choose to allocate resources by advancing political self interest to gain electoral victories by pursuing their ideological commitments for social justice or by seeking to demonstrate adherence to the professional norms of their fields Drawing on a mixed method approach that includes extensive field research and statistical analysis on the spread of model programs in education especially Bolsa Escola a school grant program and health Programa Sa de da Fam lia a family health program she concludes that ideological convictions and professional norms were the main reasons why mayors adopted these programs with electoral incentives playing a negligible role
