Academic Life in the Measured University Tai Peseta, Simon Barrie, Jan McLean, 2020-05-18 While a life in academia is still one bestowed with enormous privilege and opportunity on the inside its cracks and fragility have been on display for some time We see evidence of this in researchers bemoaning time spent applying for grants rather than doing research teachers frustrated at the ways student feedback data are deployed to feed judgements about them and doctoral students realising that they have little chance of securing full time academic work Yet in the public policy domain the opposite appears true academics left to their own devices in their elite ivory towers rarely ever do enough This collection addresses the fact that academic life deserves to be rigorously researched Its emphasis on the measured university traces how academic life had ceded itself to the logics of perverse measures and raises questions about whether the contemporary university may well have become too measured to adequately counter the political times now upon us The contributors explore the ways in which measurement inhabits paradoxical positions in these spaces It sketches the contours and consequences of mismeasurement including the personal costs to academic staff It examines our desires and fumbled efforts at institutional transformation and it puts on display our own ethical conduct The collection concludes with a call to chart a course for a revitalized moral economy of academic labour This book was originally published as a special issue of Higher Education Research activities and events Inclusive Teaching in South Africa Tsediso M. Makoelle, 2016-08-31 Inclusive education presupposes an all inclusive approach where all learners are taught in regular classrooms regardless of background disability or social context While there has been much debate indications are that inclusive education has been gaining momentum The book is divided into six coherent sections that address the how of inclusive education both inside and outside of the classroom Coined Kabir Sehgal, 2025-05-01 A New York Times and Wall Street Journal Bestseller From New York Times bestselling author Kabir Sehgal an informative rousing surprising history of the one thing that makes the world go round money The importance of money in our lives is readily apparent to everyone rich poor and in between However grudgingly we are all aware of the power of money how it influences our moods compels us to take risks and serves as the yardstick of success in societies around the world Yet because we take the daily reality of money so completely for granted we seldom question how and why it has come to play such a central role in our lives In Coined The Rich Life of Money And How Its History Has Shaped Us author Kabir Sehgal casts aside our workaday assumptions about money and takes the reader on a global quest to uncover a deeper understanding of the relationship between money and humankind More than a mere history of its subject Coined probes the conceptual origins and evolution of money by examining it through the multiple lenses of disciplines as varied as biology psychology anthropology and theology Coined is not only a profoundly informative discussion of the concept of money but it is also an endlessly fascinating and entertaining take on the nature of humanity and the inner workings of the mind Managing Resource Abundance and Wealth Jonathon W. Moses, Bjørn Letnes, 2017-05-19 Managing Resource Abundance and Wealth The Norwegian Experience describes the sundry and significant challenges both economic and political facing petroleum producing countries The volume outlines the pitfalls that policymakers encounter in the aftermath of a major resource discovery and what they can do to protect their countries from the most adverse consequences These lessons are derived from two very different sources The broader if still underdeveloped social science literature that examines the Paradox of Plenty in its disparate forms and the experience of a country that has successfully managed its natural resources over several decades As a small country on the margins of Europe Norway has stood up to powerful international interests in one of the world s most powerful industries Norway has exerted sovereign control over its natural environment and exploited its resources in a way that has delivered significant wealth to its citizens This volume explains how Norway has largely avoided the Paradox of Plenty It aims to demonstrate the variety of policy tools that are available to states rich in natural resources and how these tools can be adjusted to changing domestic and international contexts It considers a number of questions such as how countries need to administer and regulate the industry to consider the costs and benefits associated with various contract and licensing regimes and fiscal arrangements to maintain competitiveness and avoid becoming too dependent upon the sector to maximize local content and to protect the broader economy from the volatility of petroleum prices The volume shows how the industry can be managed in a democratic just and ethical manner and for the benefit of the general population Africans and the Exiled Life Sabella Ogbobode Abidde, Brenda Ingrid Gill, 2018-01-12 Since their early beginning in Africa as foragers hunters and gatherers humans have been on the move In modern times their movements have been compelled by geographical economic political cultural social and personal reasons However beginning in the second half of the twentieth century and into the twenty first century their reasons for and pattern of migration have been largely influenced by globalization Globalization by its very nature cuts across virtually every aspect of the human life and human society And especially in the United States African immigrants are subject to the undercurrents of globalization particularly in the areas of culture religion interpersonal relationships and the assimilation and acculturation process Relying on the vast theoretical and practical experience of academics and public intellectuals across three continents this book succinctly interrogates some of the pull push factors of migration the challenges of globalizing forces and the daily reality of relocation The everyday reality and experiences of blacks in the diaspora Latin America Caribbean and Europe are also part of the discourse and the subject matters are approached from different perspectives and paradigms Africans and the Exiled Life therefore is a compelling and rich addition to the ongoing global debate and understanding of migration and exile Edinburgh Companion to Modern Jewish Fiction David Brauner, 2015-06-07 This book provides a critical overviews of the main writers and key themes of Anglophone Jewish fiction highlighting the rich diversity of the field identifying key themes analysing the main trends in Anglophone Jewish fiction and situating them in a historical context Resistance Shane Moran, 2021-04-19 In Resistance Sol Plaatje and South Africa Shane Moran studies Sol Plaatje the founding secretary of what was to become the African National Congress ANC and his work within the context of colonial politics and resistance Arguing for a return to the study of one of the founders of anti racism Moran explores issues of land reform human rights and the legacy of colonialism Through an in depth analysis of Plaatje s resistance to racial domination Moran examines the nature of the struggles that continue within and beyond South Africa today In particular Moran analyzes events from the beginning of the previous century that shaped post 1994 South Africa such as the resolution of the ANC to expropriate land without compensation No Last Place to Rest Dineo Skosana, 2025-02 No Last Place to Rest Coal Mining and Dispossession in South Africa is an exploration of the ongoing struggles faced by families whose lives have been upended by the relentless expansion of coal mining operations in the Mpumalanga and KwaZulu Natal provinces These regions burdened with the task of fulfilling the nation s energy needs and boosting the country s economy witness daily the harsh realities of land dispossession that extend far beyond the mere loss of property Dineo Skosana presents a compelling argument that dispossession remains a present day reality and crisis contradicting the notion that it is merely a relic of the past in the post apartheid landscape She challenges the narrow perspective that measures land loss in material and economic terms only By considering the impact of grave relocations a common occurrence in these mining dominated locales she demonstrates the profound spiritual anguish and dehumanisation communities endure as their lands are excavated and families lose their sacred connections with their ancestors Skosana argues that the act of dispossession of both the living and the dead from their land wounds the collective soul of a people eroding their cultural heritage collective identity and sense of belonging This book offers a rich ethnographic account of the experiences struggles and resistance of the affected communities as well as a critical analysis of the legal and policy frameworks that enable their exploitation In relation to the land question in South Africa No Last Place to Rest presents deep insights for communities activists and government sectors acting in support of social justice and redress

The Contested Idea of South Africa Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, Busani Ngcaweni, 2021-11-29 This book reflects on the complex and contested idea of South Africa drawing on a wide range of disciplinary perspectives Ever since the delineation of South Africa as a country the many diverse groups of people contained within its borders have struggled to translate a mere geographical description into the identity of a people Today the new struggles for South Africa and to become South African are inextricably intertwined with complex challenges of transformation xenophobia claims of reverse racism social justice economic justice service delivery and the resurgent decolonization struggles reverberating inside the universities This book covers the genealogy of the idea of South Africa exploring how the country has been conceived of by a broad group of actors including the British Afrikaners diverse African nationalist traditions and new formations such as the Economic Freedom Fighters EFF Black First Land First BLF and student formations Rhodes Must Fall Fees Must Fall Over the course of the book a broad range of themes are covered including identity formation modernity race ethnicity indigeneity autochthony land gender intellectual traditions poetics of South Africanness language popular culture truth and reconciliation and national development planning Concluding with important reflections on how a colonial imaginary can be changed into a free and inclusive postcolonial nation state this book will be an important read for Africanist researchers from across the humanities and social sciences

Pitch Battles Peter Hain, Andre Odendaal, 2021-09-01 There will be a black Springbok over my dead body Dr Danie Craven President of the South African Rugby Board 1969 Just a year after the controversial D Oliveira affair the organised disruption of the all white 1969-70 South African rugby and cricket tours to Britain represented a significant challenge to apartheid politics Led by future cabinet minister Peter Hain the Stop the Seventy Tour campaign brought about the cancellation of both tours presaging white South Africa's expulsion from the Olympics and the end of apartheid sport altogether With his brand of attention grabbing direct action sports protest the 19 year old Hain emerged as a hero to some and enemy to others Now reflecting on these experiences with fifty years of hindsight Lord Hain together with South Africa's foremost sports historian and fellow anti apartheid activist Andr Odendaal shows how decades of relentless international and domestic campaigning for equality led to a Springbok team captained by black athlete Siya Kolisi winning the 2019 Rugby World Cup Interspersing a wide range of examples with personal testimony Pitch Battles explores the themes of sport globalisation and resistance from the deep past to the present day Published in the same year as the Stop The Tour documentary from acclaimed director Louis Myles this compelling story of sacrifice struggle and triumph reveals how sport should never be divorced from politics or society's values

Lost Childhood Kapil Dev, Dipendra Nath Das, Sangeetha Esther, 2020-11-26 Lost Childhood explores the everyday lives of street children in India. It presents insights on their life on the streets to provide a comprehensive understanding of why they are driven to extreme means of livelihoods. This volume inquires into the histories of street children and discusses their socio-economic and socio-demographic characteristics to provide a sense of their living conditions. It sheds light on the social injustice experienced by these children, their health and hygiene, and also looks at the insecurities faced by the children in their interactions with the society. It uses detailed field research data to highlight issues that affect the lives of street children such as education, gender discrimination, and their social networks. It suggests a way forward that would not only benefit street children but will also be of use to the community in understanding their lives, problems, and help explore this issue in further detail. The book will be useful to scholars and researchers of human geography, development studies, child development, urban poverty, and social justice. It will also be of interest to policymakers, social workers, and field workers who work with street children.

Research in Chemistry Education Liliana Mammino, Jan Apotheker, 2021-05-17 This volume emphasizes the role of chemical education for development and in particular for sustainable development in Africa by sharing experiences among specialists across the African continent and with specialists from other continents. It considers all areas and levels of chemistry education, gives specific attention to known major challenges, and encourages explorations of novel approaches. The chapters in this book describe new teaching approaches, approach explorations, and in-class activities, analyse educational challenges, and possible ways of addressing them, and explore cross-discipline possibilities and their potential benefits for chemistry education. This makes the volume an up-to-date compendium for chemistry educators and educational researchers worldwide.

dec 15 2022 this free step by step lesson guide explores the point slope form equation and how it can be used to solve 5 point slope form example problems detailed explanations and answers are included writing equations converting among forms sparknotes - Apr 06 2022

thus to convert to point slope form first convert to slope intercept form then move the constant term b to the left side of the equation or isolate x and then divide by the y coefficient example convert $3x + 4y = 8$ to point slope form point slope slope intercept equations algebra video khan academy - Mar 17 2023 point slope is the general form $y - y_1 = m(x - x_1)$ for linear equations it emphasizes the slope of the line and a point on the line that is not the y intercept we can rewrite an equation in point slope form to be in slope intercept form $y = mx + b$ to highlight the same line s slope and y intercept replace the m with 3 the point $(2, 4)$ tells us that $x - 2$ point slope form of a line mathwarehouse com - Jan 15 2023 overview of different forms of a line's equation there are many different ways that you can express the equation of a line there is the slope intercept form standard form and also this page's topic point slope form each one expresses the equation of a line and each one has its own pros and cons point slope form this page's topic makes it easy to find the line's intro to point slope form algebra video khan academy - Aug 22 2023 the point slope form is very useful when you don't have your y intercept it is used to write equations when you only have your slope and a point point slope form $y - y_1 = m(x - x_1)$ for example your slope m is 3 and your point a is $(9, 10)$ you would substitute your y coordinate for a and your x coordinate for b point slope form simply explained w 17 examples calcworkshop - Jun 08 2022 jan 20 2020 how to find $y = mx + b$ with two points find the y intercept given two points use $y - y_1 = m(x - x_1)$ to write the equation of the line given the point $(4, 5)$ and slope of 6 find y when $x = 24$ so together we are going to learn how to write the equation of a line using point slope form represent equations from point slope form to slope intercept form mar 1 2022 in this post you will learn how to determine the point slope form of a line given two points or given a point and a slope you will also see how to graph and how to determine x and y intercepts using point slope form point slope form calculator - Jul 21 2023 aug 13 2023 point slope form is a form of a linear equation where there are three characteristic numbers two coordinates of a point on the line and the slope of the line the point slope form equation is $y - y_1 = m(x - x_1)$ where (x_1, y_1) is a point on the line and m is the slope of the line point slope form math net - May 19 2023 point slope form point slope form is one of the more commonly used forms of a linear equation and has the following structure $y - y_1 = m(x - x_1)$ where m is the slope of the line (x_1, y_1) is a point on the line and x and y are variables representing other points on the line point slope form definition overview study com - Oct 12 2022 point slope form in point slope form which is written like this $y - y_1 = m(x - x_1)$ y_1 is the y value of the known point on the line m is the slope and x_1 is the x value of the

what is point slope form in math mashup math - May 07 2022 dec 17 2022 the point slope form is one such form used with linear equations and is useful when building an equation of a given straight line let's walk through what the point slope form is and learn its use cases with examples
