Law Pre Entry 2015 2016:

Research Handbook on International Refugee Law Satvinder Singh Juss, 2019 In an age of ethnic nationalism and anti immigrant rhetoric the study of refugees can help develop a new outlook on social justice just as the post war international order ends The global financial crisis the rise of populist leaders like Trump Putin and Erdogan not to mention the arrival of anti EU parties raises the need to interrogate the refugee migrant citizen stateless legal and illegal as concepts This insightful Research Handbook is a timely contribution to that debate

Weaponising Investments Jens Hillebrand Pohl, Thomas Papadopoulos, Janosch Wiesenthal, Joanna Warchol, 2024-02-20 This second volume of highly topical two volume set The Investment Weapon continues to present pioneering research for the purpose of developing a common analytical foundation and framework for the emerging interdisciplinary research field of investment control This second volumes shifts the focus from the policy context to the legal and regulatory aspects of investment controls specifically from an international transnational and comparative law perspective The topics range from control of subsidized investments to non national security related investment controls and alternatives to investment screening

Lawyers in 21st-Century Societies Richard L Abel, Ole Hammerslev, Hilary Sommerlad, Ulrike Schultz, 2020-04-02 The world s legal professions have undergone dramatic changes in the 30 years since publication of the landmark three volume Lawyers in Society which launched comparative sociological studies of lawyers This is the first of two volumes in which scholars from a wide range of disciplines countries and cultures document and analyse those changes The present volume presents reports on 46 countries with broad coverage of North America Western Europe Latin America Asia Australia North Africa and the Middle East sub Saharan Africa and former communist countries These national reports address the impact of globalisation and neoliberalism on national legal professions the relationship of lawyers and their professional associations to the state and tensions between state and citizenship changes in lawyer demography rapidly growing numbers and the profession s efforts to retain control the entry of women and obstacles to full gender equality ethnic diversity legal education the proliferation of institutions and pedagogic innovation the regulation of lawyers structures of production especially the growth of large firms and the impact of technology and paraprofessionals the distribution of lawyers across roles and access to justice state funded legal aid and pro bono services The juxtaposition of the reports reveals the dramatic transformations of professional rationales labour markets and working practices and the multiple contingencies of the role of lawyers in societies experiencing increasing juridification within a new geopolitical order

Good Faith and Insurance Contracts Peter MacDonald Eggers, Simon Picken, 2017-12-06 Good Faith and Insurance Contracts sets out an exhaustive analysis of the law concerning the duty of utmost good faith as applied to insurance contracts Now in its fourth edition it has been updated to address the arrival of the Insurance Act 2015 as well as any references to new case law In addition it synthesises all known judicial decisions by the English Courts concerning good faith in this area This book is still the only text devoted to a discussion of the duty of utmost good faith applicable to insurance contracts As good faith is an issue which arises in respect of all insurance contracts it is a book which will be extremely useful to lawyers involved in insurance as well as insurance practitioners International Governance and the Rule of Law in China under the Belt and Road Initiative Yun Zhao,2018-10-18 Evaluates the challenges and changes that the Belt and Road Initiative brings to China in international law and governance The Refugee in International Law Guy S. Goodwin-Gill,Jane McAdam,Emma Dunlop,2021 Millions of people are today forced to flee their homes as a result of conflict systematic discrimination or other forms of persecution The core instruments on which they must rely to secure international protection are the 1951 Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees and its 1967 Protocol This book the leading text in the field examines key challenges to the Convention such as the status of refugees applications for asylum and the international and domestic standards of protection The situation of refugees is one of the most pressing and urgent problems facing the international community and refugee law has grown in recent years to a subject of global importance In this long awaited fourth edition each chapter has been thoroughly revised and updated and every issue old and new has received fresh analysis The books includes analysis of internally displaced persons so called preventive protection access to refugees safety of refugees and relief personnel the situation of refugee women and children a detailed examination of the role of the UNHCR and the Palestinian situation and an assessment of the protection possibilities or lack of them in the European Convention on Human Rights This new edition has been expanded with coverage of forced migration and displacement as a result of disasters and climate change It is once again an unmissable reference work for practitioners and students in the field Reconceptualizing International Investment Law from the Global South Fabio Morosini,Michelle Ratton Sanchez Badin,2017-10-26 This book shows how the current reform in investment regulation is part of a broader attempt to transform the international economic order Countries in the North and South are currently rethinking how economic order should be constituted in order to advance their national interests and preferred economic orientation While some countries in the North seek to create alternative institutional spaces in order to promote neoliberal policies more effectively some countries in the South are increasingly skeptical of this version of economic order and are experimenting with alternative versions of legal ordering that do not always sit well with mainstream versions promoted by the North While we recognize that there are differences in approaches to the investment regimes proposed by countries in the South we identify commonalities that could function as the founding pillars of an alternative economic order

European Integration Perspectives in Times of Global Crises Andreas Kellerhals,Tobias Baumgartner,Corinne Reber,2023-04-06 With its White Paper on the Future of Europe the European Commission initiated a debate on fundamental reforms of the Union s structures in 2017 The paper outlined five reform scenarios ranging from a reduction and refocusing of the EU s competences to deeper integration in the spirit of a United States of Europe However the White Paper ultimately had no tangible impact as none of the proposed scenarios were implemented Nevertheless current global challenges including health crises climate change energy resource management shifting global power dynamics and related security issues underscore the growing need for a strong and united Europe The idea of an ever closer union as enshrined in the preamble of the 1992 EU Treaty could be experiencing a revival Against this backdrop the 13th Network Europe Conference examined the significance of the European integration project in times of global crisis Discussions focused on key policy challenges the EU s relationships with its eastern and southern neighbors and its role in relation to global actors such as China and Russia The publication features contributions from Michael Amb hl Jelena Ceranic Perisic Viorel Cibotaru Christelle Genoud Christos V Gortsos Iris Goldner Lang Nora Meier Peter Christian M ller Graff Eva Pils Clara Portela and Peter R Rodrigues Network Europe was founded in 2003 by the Europa Institute at the University of Zurich with support from the Swiss government It serves as a forum for scholarly exchange on legal and political aspects of European integration bringing together researchers from across Europe Handbook on the Governance and Politics of Migration Emma Carmel,Katharina Lenner,Regine Paul,2021-04-30 This innovative Handbook sets out a conceptual and analytical framework for the critical appraisal of migration governance Global and interdisciplinary in scope the chapters are organised across six key themes conceptual debates categorisations of migration governance regimes processes spaces of migration governance and mobilisations around it Crimmigrant Nations Robert Koulisch,Maartje van der Woude,2020-03-03 As the distinction between domestic and international is increasingly blurred along with the line between internal and external borders migrants particularly people of color have become emblematic of the hybrid threat both to national security and sovereignty and to safety and order inside the state From building walls and fences overcrowding detention facilities and beefing up border policing and border controls a new narrative has arrived that has migrants assume the risk for government sponsored degradation misery and death Crimmigrant Nations examines the parallel rise of anti immigrant sentiment and right wing populism in both the United States and Europe to offer an unprecedented look at this issue on an international level Beginning with the fears and concerns of immigration that predate the election of Trump the Brexit vote and the signing and implementation of the Schengen Agreement Crimmigrant Nations critically analyzes nationalist state policies in countries that have criminalized migrants and categorized them as threats to national security Highlighting a pressing and perplexing problem facing the Western world in 2020 and beyond this collection of essays illustrates not only how anti immigrant sentiments and nationalist discourse are on the rise in various Western liberal democracies but also how these sentiments are being translated into punitive and cruel policies and practices that contribute to a merger of crime control and migration control with devastating effects for those falling under its reach Mapping out how these measures are taken the rationale behind these policies and who is subjected to exclusion as a result of these measures Crimmigrant Nations looks beyond the level of the local or the national to the relational dynamics between different actors on different levels and among different institutions
