- These are two design examples for male chastity belts.
- The top diagram is from a US patent by Jonas E. Heyser, designed to be a male anti-masturbation device, lockable and adjustable to be worn for extended periods.
- The lower diagram shows a modern design for use as part of restraint or BD/SM, bondage and discipline/sadism and masochism. This is a form of aggressive sex-play that involves binding and acts of violence and discipline.

Signs of Virginity Micha'el Rosenberg, 2018 Signs of Virginity examines virginity testing in Judaism and early Christianity and the relationship of these tests to male sexual violence Rosenberg points to two authors Augustine of Hippo and the rabbinic collective that produced the Babylonian Talmud who construct alternative models that if taken seriously would utterly reverse cultural ideals of masculinity encouraging men to be gentle rather than brutal in their sexual behavior

Rape and the Rise of the Author Amy Greenstadt, 2016-04-08 Contending that early modern fictional portrayals of sexual violence identify the position of the author with that of the chaste woman threatened with rape Amy Greenstadt challenges the prevalent scholarly view that this period's concept of The Author was inherently masculine Instead she argues the analogy between rape and writing centrally informed ideas of literary intention that emerged during the English Renaissance Analyzing works by Milton Sidney Shakespeare and Cavendish Greenstadt shows how the figure of The Author and by extension ideas of the modern individual derived from a paradigm of female virtue and vulnerability This volume supplements the growing body of studies that address the relationship between early modern textual representation and notions of gender and sexuality it also adds a new dimension in considering the wider origins of modern concepts of selfhood and individual rights

Representing Rape in Medieval and Early Modern Literature C. Rose, E. Robertson, 2016-04-30 In thirteen studies of representations of rape in Medieval and Early Modern literature by such authors as Chaucer Shakespeare and Spenser this volume argues that some form of sexual violence against women serves as a foundation of Western culture The volume has two purposes first to explore the resistance these pervasive representations generate and have generated for readers especially for the female reader and second to explore what these representations tell us about social formations governing the relationships between men and women More particularly Rose and Robertson are interested in how representations of rape manifest a given culture's understanding of the female subject in society

Gender, Sexuality, and Material Objects in English Renaissance Verse Pamela S. Hammons, 2016-12-05 An important contribution to recent critical discussions about gender sexuality and material culture in Renaissance England this study analyzes female and male authored lyrics to illuminate how gender and sexuality inflected sixteenth and seventeenth century poets conceptualization of relations among people and things human and non human subjects and objects Pamela S Hammons examines lyrics from both manuscript and print collections including the verse of authors ranging from Robert Herrick John Donne and Ben Jonson to Margaret Cavendish Lucy Hutchinson and Aemilia Lanyer and situates them in relation to legal theories autobiographies biographies plays and epics Her approach fills a crucial gap in the conversation which has focused upon drama and male authored works by foregrounding the significance of the lyric and women's writing Hammons exposes the poetic strategies sixteenth and seventeenth century English women used to assert themselves as subjects of property and economic agents in relation to material items ranging from personal property to real estate despite the dominant patriarchal ideology insisting they were ideally temporary passive vehicles for men's wealth. The study details how women imagined their multiple complex interactions with the material world; the author shows that how a woman poet represents herself in relation to material objects is a flexible fiction she can mobilize for diverse purposes. Because this book analyzes men's and women's poems together, it isolates important gendered differences in how the poets envision human subjects, use, control, possession, and ownership of things, and the influences, effects, and power of things over humans. It also adds to the increasing evidence for the pervasiveness of patriarchal anxieties associated with female economic agency in a culture in which women were often treated as objects.

The Plays of Beaumont and Fletcher Sandra Clark, 2014-07-15 This is an analysis of sexual themes in the plays of Beaumont and Fletcher both in the context of the Jacobean theatre and in the light of modern readings of sexuality and gender during the English Renaissance. Sandra Clark challenges commonly held perceptions of Beaumont and Fletcher's work. The book is intended for undergraduate and graduate courses on Renaissance literature, Elizabethan and Jacobean drama, tragicomedy, gender, and genre in the Renaissance.

The Constant and Changing Faces of the Goddess Phyllis K. Herman, Deepak Shimkhada, 2009-03-26 The Constant and Changing Faces of the Goddess. Goddess Traditions of Asia contains essays written by established scholars in the field that trace the multiplicity of Asian goddesses, their continuities, discontinuities, and importance as symbols of wisdom, power, transformation, compassion, destruction, and creation. The essays demonstrate that while treatments of the goddess may vary regionally, culturally, and historically, it is possible to note some consistencies in the overall picture of the goddess in Asia. The book provides a comprehensive treatment of the goddess culminating in the selections that draw from research on Indian, Nepali, Chinese, Japanese, and Vietnamese traditions, seldom found in other works of similar subject. The volume will be useful for students in religious studies, gender studies, Asian studies, and women's studies. With the intent of making the volume truly broad in scope, an effort has been made to include works written by art historians, sociologists, anthropologists, and religious studies scholars. Culture cannot be separated from religion; they are intertwined as an organic whole, and variations manifest themselves in the rituals and daily lives of the people. In this sense, all the essays are interconnected; the goddess manifests in many forms and appeals to differing aspects of a particular culture as a paradigm of the divine feminine.

Bachelors Abounding Terry Reed, 2016 Standing up for gentlemen who prefer to avoid matrimony, Terry Reed explores, explains, and defends the unsteady reputation of wondrous bachelordom against its traditionally soiled reputation, its questionable eccentricities, its ill-comprehended motivations, and its ostensibly nefarious ends.

Meanings of Violence Jon Abbink, Göran Aijmer, 2020-08-20 There are good reasons to look at violence from new perspectives. In its endless manifestations, violence is part and parcel of human existence and is very probably a constituting element of human society. And yet, violent action, warfare, penalties, insults, feuding, assault, murder, rape, suicide, sports, remains in all its complexity, one of the least understood fields of human social life.

The book's contributors identify the symbolic and ritualized aspects of violence and suggest ways of reading violence as it occurs in the world whether as violent duelling and age group violence in Southern Ethiopia bullfighting in Iberia cattle rustling in Kenya guerrilla and militia wars in Colombia or public executions in China These case studies suggest that violence is not a simple universal urge but is contingent and context dependent shaped by social relations of power force and dominance To be the victim of violence is a humiliating and frightening experience But the many ambiguities that occur in the use of violence must be considered to understand why peace seems only to exist as a contrast to the violation of peace

The Men's Share? Claire Eustance, Prof Angela V John, Angela V. John, 2013-12-16 The opposition of men to women's suffrage is well known However men's support for women's suffrage is a neglected subject In the late nineteenth and early twentieth century over one thousand men were prepared to join societies and actively work for women's suffrage whilst many other men offered support The Men's Share edited by Angela John and Claire Eustance examines who these men were how they organized themselves and how they put pressure on the government

Castration and Culture in the Middle Ages Larissa Tracy, 2013 Essays exploring medieval castration as reflected in archaeology law historical record and literary motifs Castration and castrati have always been facets of western culture from myth and legend to law and theology from eunuchs guarding harems to the seventeenth and eighteenth century castrati singers Metaphoric castration pervades a number of medieval literary genres particularly the Old French fabliaux exchanges of power predicated upon the exchange or absence of sexual desire signified by genitalia but the plain literal act of castration and its implications are often overlooked This collection explores this often taboo subject and its implications for cultural mores and custom in Western Europe seeking to demystify and demythologize castration Its subjects include archaeological studies of eunuchs historical accounts of castration in trials of combat the mutilation of political rivals in medieval Wales Anglo Saxon and Frisian legal and literary examples of castration as punishment castration as comedy in the Old French fabliaux the prohibition against genital mutilation in hagiography and early modern anxieties about punitive castration enacted on the Elizabethan stage The introduction reflects on these topics in the context of arguably the most well known victim of castration in the middle ages Abelard LARISSA TRACY is Associate Professor of Medieval Literature at Longwood University Contributors Larissa Tracy Kathryn Reusch Shaun Tougher Jack Collins Rolf H Bremmer Jr Jay Paul Gates Charlene M Eska Mary A Valante Anthony Adams Mary E Leech Jed Chandler Ellen Lorraine Friedrich Robert L A Clark Karin Sellberg Lena W nggren

Epistolary Korea JaHyun Kim Haboush, 2009-05-01 By expanding the definition of epistle to include any writing that addresses the intended receiver directly JaHyun Kim Haboush introduces readers to the rich epistolary practice of Chosŏn Korea The Chosŏn dynasty 1392-1910 produced an abundance of epistles writings that mirror the genres of neighboring countries especially China while retaining their own specific historical trajectory Written in both literary Chinese and vernacular Korean the writings collected here range from royal public edicts to private letters a fascinating array that blurs the line between classical and everyday language and the divisions between men and women Haboush's selections also recast the relationship between epistolography and the concept of public and private space Haboush groups her epistles according to where they were written and read public letters letters to colleagues and friends social letters and family letters Then she arranges them according to occasion letters on leaving home deathbed letters letters of fiction and letters to the dead She examines the mechanics of epistles their communicative space and their cultural and political meaning With its wholly unique collection of materials Epistolary Korea produces more than a vivid chronicle of pre and early modern Korean life It breaks new ground in establishing the terms of a distinct non European form of epistolography      A Surgical Temptation Robert

Darby, 2013-09-20 In the eighteenth century the Western world viewed circumcision as an embarrassing disfigurement peculiar to Jews A century later British doctors urged parents to circumcise their sons as a routine precaution against every imaginable sexual dysfunction from syphilis and phimosis to masturbation and bed wetting Thirty years later the procedure again came under hostile scrutiny culminating in its disappearance during the 1960s Why Britain adopted a practice it had traditionally abhorred and then abandoned it after only two generations is the subject of A Surgical Temptation Robert Darby reveals that circumcision has always been related to the question of how to control male sexuality This study explores the process by which the male genitals and the foreskin especially were pathologized while offering glimpses into the lives of such figures as James Boswell John Maynard Keynes and W H Auden Examining the development of knowledge about genital anatomy concepts of health sexual morality the rise of the medical profession and the nature of disease Darby shows how these factors transformed attitudes toward the male body and its management and played a vital role in the emergence of modern medicine      Marcel Duchamp Rudolf E. rewrites the intellectual biography of the seventeenth century republic of letters      The American Journal of Nursing, 1912      Contested Identities Peter Loizos, Evthymios Papataxiarchis, 2016-09-29 In this collection leading anthropologists provide a comprehensive yet highly nuanced view of what it means to be a Greek man or woman married or unmarried functioning within a complex society based on kinship ties Exploring the ways in which sexual identity is constructed these authors discuss for example how going out for coffee embodies dominant ideas about female sexuality moral virtue and autonomy why men in a Lesbos village maintain elaborate friendships with nonfamily members while the women do not why young housewives often participate in conflict resolution rituals and how the dominant role of mature married householders is challenged by unmarried persons who emphasize spontaneity and personal autonomy This collection demonstrates that kinship and gender identities in Greece are not unitary and fixed kinship is organized in several highly specific forms and gender identities are plural competing antagonistic and are continually being redefined by contexts and social change

The Spinster and Her Enemies Sheila Jeffreys, 1997 Annotation This feminist text is released here with a revised and updated introduction It examines the activities of feminist campaigners around such issues as child abuse and prostitution and how these campaigns shaped social purity in the 1880s and 1890s      Off with Her Head! Howard Eilberg-Schwartz, Wendy Doniger, 1995-11-14 Whereas many books look at how women s bodies are represented in different religions and cultures around the world this work explores the site of a woman s voice and identity her head The female head threatens to disrupt the classic gender distinctions that link men to speech identity and mind while relegating women to silence anonymity and flesh The contributors to this collection argue that the objectification of women as sexual and reproductive bodies results in their symbolic beheading Decapitation occurs symbolically in myths as well as in actual practices such as veiling head covering and cosmetic highlighting which by sexualizing a woman s face turns it into an extension of her body The essays explore how similar treatments of the female head find their unique articulation in diverse religious traditions and cultures in Hindu myths of beheading in Buddhist and Tantric practices and poetry about the hair of female nuns in the resistance to veiling by early Christian women at Corinth in contemporary veiling practices in a Turkish village in the eroticization of the female mouth in ancient Judaism and in Greek and Roman cosmetic practices Together these essays show how the depiction of the female head is critical for an understanding of gender and its influence on other fundamental religious and cultural issues      The Age of Beloveds Walter G. Andrews, Mehmet Kalpakli, 2005-01-13 Examines the golden age of the culture of the Ottoman empire in the 16th century exploring sexuality gender and literary society as well as the demographics economics politics society of love and other cultural productions of the Ottoman
