International Encyclopedia of Hospitality Management 2nd edition Abraham Pizam, 2012-06-25 The International

Encyclopedia of Hospitality Management is the definitive reference work for any individual studying or working in the hospitality industry There are 185 Hospitality Management degrees in the UK alone This new edition updates and significantly revises twenty five per cent of the entries and has an additional twenty new entries New online material makes it the most up to date and accessible hospitality management encyclopedia on the market It covers all of the relevant issues in the field of hospitality management from a sectoral level lodging restaurants food service time share clubs and events as well as a functional one accounting and finance marketing strategic management human resources information technology and facilities management Its unique user friendly structure enables readers to find exactly the information they require at a glance whether they require broad detail that takes a more cross sectional view across each subject field or more focused information that looks closely at specific topics and issues within the hospitality industry today Contemporary

Management Accounting Practices in UK Manufacturing David Dugdale,2005-11-15 This report investigates the presentation and analysis of financial information in 41 UK Manufacturing companies Traditional and contemporary accounting techniques are exemplified in the case studies With old and new techniques explored the research shows that there is little that is new in management accounting theory and practice The study concludes that there is not one set of practices which all should follow Cima research report reveals methods currently used for reporting financial information in UK manufacturing companies Based on 41 companies it shows a rich diversity of reporting practices that are constrained neither by the financial accounting requirements of SSAP9 nor by any sense of general management accounting trends Financial Directors choose from a toolkit of traditional and contemporary practices in constructing reporting systems appropriate to their varied commercial needs but with a strong leaning towards contribution margin approaches

International Encyclopedia of Hospitality Management Abraham Pizam,2010 This encyclopedia covers all of the relevant issues in the field of hospitality management from both a sectoral level as well as a functional one It s unique user friendly structure enables readers to find exactly the information they require at a glance The Sustainability Curriculum Cedric Cullingford,John Blewitt,2013 The links between education and sustainable development are deepening although subject to much controversy and debate The success of the sustainability discourse depends both on the pedagogic and research functions of higher education Similarly for higher education itself to remain relevant and engaged it faces pressure not only to integrate the insights and lessons drawn from the perspective of sustainable development but also to be responsive to scrutiny of its own practices in relation to sustainability Among professionals in higher education sustainable development has its supporters and detractors It is embraced by some individuals and departments while being perceived by others as a threat to the coherence of particular disciplines Although it is not currently an academic discipline in its own right increasing public and professional familiarity with the term and the increasing urgency of global calls for the implementation of sustainable development mean that this is rapidly changing This volume analyses the impact of the concepts and practices of sustainability and sustainable development on various academic disciplines institutional practices fields of study and methods of enquiry The contributors drawn from a wide range of disciplines perspectives educational levels and institutional contexts examine the purpose of the modern university and the nature of sustainable education which includes exploring links to social movements for sustainability projects curriculum change culture and biodiversity values relating to gender equality and global responsibility and case studies on the transformation or otherwise of some specific disciplines
