Exploring 15 vital topics, as well as offering strategies and examples, Jane L. Sigford demonstrates how effective schools are a marriage of management and leadership. Organized into three sections: management and leadership theories, managing the school, and managing yourself, this resource helps administrators understand the complexity of leadership and addresses the application of effective management skills to create successful learning communities. Written for new and veteran school leaders, this essential guide acts as a handbook which contains an overview of individual components of school leadership normally scattered among many textbooks and resources. Provides suggested resources for more in-depth study. Offers individual reflective practice questions throughout for personal use. Suggests questions to help facilitate professional development group discussions, especially among peers. The Effective School Leader's Guide to Management illustrates how school administrators can run a school efficiently, balancing their roles as instructional leaders and effective school managers while still having time to improve professional development, foster parent and community relationships, make data-driven decisions, and nurture personal growth and leadership. Foundations for the LPC Clare Firth, Elizabeth Smart, Helen Fox, Lucy Crompton, Jennifer Seymour, Frances Seabridge, 2022. Foundations for the LPC covers the compulsory foundation areas of the Legal Practice Course as set out in the LPC outcomes: professional conduct, tax, and revenue law, and wills and administration of estates. The book also discusses human rights law, a topic taught pervasively across the LPC course. Using worked examples and scenarios throughout to illustrate key points, this guide is
