Cold War, Hot Science Robert Bud, Philip Gummert, Science Museum (Great Britain), 1999 Cold War Hot Science presents an authoritative history of post war British defence research as related to the establishments that now form part of the Defence Evaluation and Research Agency DERA The agency includes such well known centres as the Royal Aircraft Establishment at Farnborough the Royal Signals and Radar Establishment at Malvern and the Chemical and Biological Defence Establishment at Porton Down Collectively these have carried out a very high proportion of all the scientific research conducted in Britain since the war Study of these vast but traditionally secretive institutions is vital to understanding science in post war Britain BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

Behind the Enigma John Ferris, 2020-10-20 The definitive history of GCHQ one of the world's most tight lipped intelligence agencies written with unprecedented access to classified archives For a hundred years GCHQ Government Communications Headquarters has been at the forefront of British secret statecraft Born out of the need to support military operations in the First World War and fought over ever since today it is the UK's biggest intelligence security and cyber agency and a powerful tool of the British state Famed primarily for its codebreaking achievements at Bletchley Park against Enigma ciphers in the Second World War GCHQ has intercepted interpreted and disrupted the information networks of Britain's foes for a century and yet it remains the least known and understood of British intelligence services It has been one of the most open minded too GCHQ has always demanded a diversity of intellectual firepower finding it in places which strike us as ground breaking today and allying it to the efforts of ordinary men and women to achieve extraordinary insights in war diplomacy and peace GCHQ shapes British decision making more than any other intelligence organisation and along with its partners in the Five Eyes intelligence partnership including the United States National Security Agency has become ever more crucial in an age governed by information technology Based on unprecedented access to documents in GCHQ's archive many of them hitherto classified this is the first book to authoritatively explain the entire history of one of the world's most potent intelligence agencies Many major contemporary conflicts between Russia and the West between Arab nations and Israel between state security and terrorism become fully explicable only in the light of the secret intelligence record Written by one of the world's leading experts in intelligence and strategy Behind the Enigma reveals the fascinating truth behind this most remarkable and enigmatic of organisations Hyperbolic Partial Differential Equations Matthew Witten, 2014-05-23 Hyperbolic Partial Differential Equations III is a refereed journal issue that explores the applications theory and or applied methods related to hyperbolic partial differential equations or problems arising out of hyperbolic partial differential equations in any area of research This journal issue is interested in all types of articles in terms of review mini monograph standard study or short communication Some studies presented in this journal include discretization of ideal fluid dynamics in the Eulerian representation a Riemann problem in gas dynamics with bifurcation periodic McKendrick equations for age structured population growth and logistic models of structured population growth A number of book reviews are also included This journal provides an interdisciplinary forum for the presentation of results not included in other particular journals and thus will be beneficial to those interested in this field of study The Politics of Professionalism Gary McCulloch, Gill Helsby, Peter Knight, 2000-05-01 Many commentators feared that the Education Reform Act of 1988 sounded the death knell for teacher professionalism in Britain More than a decade later however professionalism appears to have staged a miraculous recovery David Blunkett says that it is back at the very heart of teaching But what kind of professionalism is this In whose interest is its recovery and what effects will it have And how does this development relate to changes in edict countries and other professions The Politics of Professionalism provides authoritative answers to these questions It does so by setting the debates in their historical context and by drawing on detailed research findings on teachers experience of work and education especially the curriculum in the current era In the process this book makes a major contribution to our understanding of the politics history and sociology of teaching and the other professions
