Legislation on Educational Programs in Adult Correctional Institutions Gordon A. Anderson, 1991 Resources in Education, 1999-10 General Report of the Legislative Council to the Legislature Wisconsin. Legislature. Legislative Council, 1992 Asian American Identities, Families, & Schooling Clara C. Park, A. Lin Goodwin, Stacey J. Lee, 2003-10-01 This anthology is the second volume in a series sponsored by the Special Interest Group Research on the education of Asian and Pacific Americans SIG REAPA of the American Educational Research Association and California Association for Asian and Pacific American Education The series intends to be a national voice for the education of Asian and Pacific Americans and provides an integral view of new knowledge in the field of Asian and Pacific American education from scholarly and educational practitioners perspectives The current collection includes research based articles by junior and senior scholars in the field of Asian and American education The articles highlight both the success and the continuing struggles of Asian American students teachers and families Students educational practitioners and scholars will find this book to be an important resource The Schoolmasters' Yearbook & Educational Directory, 1915 When Reform Meets Reality Jonathan A. Supovitz, 2024-09-26 An insightful inside perspective on the implementation of instructional improvement measures in a large urban K 12 district Independent Schools, 1999 Markets and People World Bank, 2020-02-10 Romania's income per capita has increased from 26 percent of the EU 28 average in 2000 to 63 percent in 2017 but this economic success rests on the wobbly foundations of unfavorable demographics weak human capital and ineffective institutions Going forward stronger competition and better human capital are critical to increasing the economy's growth potential Romanian manufacturing firms are exposed to domestic and international competition ensuring the flow of resources and market shares to more efficient players This has not been the case for services where anticompetitive regulations and direct state control often limit efficiency gains Romanian state owned enterprises do not compete on an equal footing with private sector firms distorting market outcomes and hampering the efficient allocation of resources Removal of these restrictions would have a significant positive impact on GDP growth Competitively neutral policies are needed to ensure that all enterprises public or private domestic or foreign face the same set of rules Romania's human capital accumulation proxied by the World Bank's Human Capital Index HCI is the lowest in the European Union and varies widely across counties Disparities in education outcomes remain relevant across and within regions of Romania Learning gaps in primary and secondary education persist These can be seen clearly between urban and rural areas across regions and across social groups requiring changes both at the systems level and at the learning center level In the labor market the automation of production processes has started driving demand for higher levels of cognitive skills while jobs involving the routine application of procedural knowledge are shrinking in number A paradigm shift would require reforms in primary and secondary schooling in addition to more targeted actions to establish an effective skills development system to bolster human capital Breaking the STEM Stereotype Amanda Alzena Sullivan, 2019-10-21 Men continue to outnumber women in numerous technical STEM Science Technology Engineering and Math fields such as engineering and computer science Prior work demonstrates the importance of introducing girls to STEM content early on before gender stereotypes are ingrained However many parents and teachers are not sure how to do this in a developmentally appropriate and playful way Breaking the STEM Stereotype Reaching Girls in Childhood by Dr Amanda Sullivan Ph D explores the various social cultural and psychological reasons behind the persistent gender disparity between men and women in STEM fields By explaining the powerful role of stereotypes the media and experiences with peers and adults during the foundational early childhood years this book builds the case of early childhood being a critical time in development to reach girls Breaking the STEM Stereotype is set up in three parts Part 1 provides the current state of the gender divide in each aspect of STEM and explores why early childhood is a critical time to address this divide Part 2 explores gender identity development and gender stereotypes as well as the influences of the media advertising and adult and peer role models on young children Finally Part 3 arms readers with the knowledge they need to dispel gender stereotypes in STEM It provides suggestions on tools technologies and kits that can be used with young girls beginning in pre kindergarten It provides materials needed to design effective curricula and activities to engage girls with STEM in playful ways that build on their personal interests Handbook of Education Policy Research Gary Sykes, Barbara Schneider, David N. Plank, 2012-09-10 Co published by Routledge for the American Educational Research Association AERA Educational policy continues to be of major concern Policy debates about economic growth and national competitiveness for example commonly focus on the importance of human capital and a highly educated workforce Defining the theoretical boundaries and methodological approaches of education policy research are the two primary themes of this comprehensive AERA sponsored Handbook Organized into seven sections the Handbook focuses on 1 disciplinary foundations of educational policy 2 methodological perspectives 3 the policy process 4 resources management and organization 5 teaching and learning policy 6 actors and institutions and 7 education access and differentiation Drawing from multiple disciplines the Handbook's over one hundred authors address three central questions What policy issues and questions have oriented current policy research What research strategies and methods have proven most fruitful And what issues questions and methods will drive future policy research Topics such as early childhood education school choice access to higher education teacher accountability and testing and measurement cut across the 63 chapters in the volume The politics surrounding these and other issues are objectively analyzed by authors and commentators Each of the seven sections concludes with two commentaries by leading scholars in the field The first considers the current state of policy design and the second addresses the current state of policy research This book is appropriate for scholars and graduate students working in the field of education policy and for the growing number of academic government and think tank researchers engaged in policy research For more information on the American Educational Research Association please visit <http://www.aera.net>
