Natcare And Intake Nursing School:

Nurses on the Move Mireille Kingma, 2018-07-05 South African nurses care for patients in London hospitals recruit Filipino nurses to Los Angeles and Chinese nurses practice their profession in Ireland In every industrialized country of the world patients today increasingly find that the nurses who care for them come from a vast array of countries In the first book on international nurse migration Mireille Kingma investigates one of today's most important health care trends The personal stories of migrant nurses that fill this book contrast the nightmarish existences of some with the successes of others Health systems in industrialized countries now depend on nurses from the developing world to address their nursing shortages This situation raises a host of thorny questions What causes nurses to decide to migrate Is this migration voluntary or in some way coerced When developing countries are faced with nurse vacancy rates of more than 40 percent is recruitment by industrialized countries fair play in a competitive market or a new form of colonialization What happens to these workers and the patients left behind when they migrate What safeguards will protect nurses and the patients they find in their new workplaces Highlighting the complexity of the international rules and regulations now being constructed to facilitate the lucrative trade in human services Kingma presents a new way to think about the migration of skilled health sector labor as well as the strategies needed to make migration work for individuals patients and the health systems on which they depend

Who is Nursing Them? It is Us Jennifer R. Zelnick, Charles Levenstein, Robert Farrant, John Wooding, 2017-07-05 This book explores the impacts of HIV AIDS and neoliberal globalization on the occupational health of public sector hospital nurses in KwaZulu Natal South Africa The story of South African public sector nurses provides multiple perspectives on the HIV AIDS epidemic for a workforce that played a role in the struggle against apartheid women who deal with the burden of HIV AIDS care at work and in the community and a constituency of the new South African democracy that is working on the frontlines of the HIV AIDS epidemic Through case studies of three provincial hospitals in KwaZulu Natal set against a historical backdrop this book tells the story of the HIV AIDS epidemic in the post apartheid period
