The Natural World as a Resource for Learning and Development: From Schoolyards to Wilderness Ming Kuo, Cathy Jordan, 2019-11-04

Nonlinear Analysis in Neuroscience and Behavioral Research Tobias A. Mattei, 2016-10-31 Although nonlinear dynamics have been mastered by physicists and mathematicians for a long time as most physical systems are inherently nonlinear in nature the recent successful application of nonlinear methods to modeling and predicting several evolutionary ecological physiological and biochemical processes has generated great interest and enthusiasm among researchers in computational neuroscience and cognitive psychology Additionally in the last years it has been demonstrated that nonlinear analysis can be successfully used to model not only basic cellular and molecular data but also complex cognitive processes and behavioral interactions The theoretical features of nonlinear systems such unstable periodic orbits period doubling bifurcations and phase space dynamics have already been successfully applied by several research groups to analyze the behavior of a variety of neuronal and cognitive processes Additionally the concept of strange attractors has led to a new understanding of information processing which considers higher cognitive functions such as language attention memory and decision making as complex systems emerging from the dynamic interaction between parallel streams of information flowing between highly interconnected neuronal clusters organized in a widely distributed circuit and modulated by key central nodes Furthermore the paradigm of self organization derived from the nonlinear dynamics theory has offered an interesting account of the phenomenon of emergence of new complex cognitive structures from random and non deterministic patterns similarly to what has been previously observed in nonlinear studies of fluid dynamics Finally the challenges of coupling massive amount of data related to brain function generated from new research fields in experimental neuroscience such as magnetoencephalography optogenetics and single cell intra operative recordings of neuronal activity have generated the necessity of new research strategies which incorporate complex pattern analysis as an important feature of their algorithms Up to now nonlinear dynamics has already been successfully employed to model both basic single and multiple neurons activity such as single cell firing patterns neural networks synchronization autonomic activity electroencephalographic measurements and noise modulation in the cerebellum as well as higher cognitive functions and complex psychiatric disorders Similarly previous experimental studies have suggested that several cognitive functions can be successfully modeled with basis on the transient activity of large scale brain networks in the presence of noise Such studies have demonstrated that it is possible to represent typical decision making paradigms of neuroeconomics by dynamic models governed by ordinary differential equations with a finite number of possibilities at the decision points and basic heuristic rules which incorporate variable degrees of uncertainty This e book has include frontline research in computational neuroscience and cognitive psychology involving applications of nonlinear analysis especially regarding the representation and modeling of complex neural and cognitive systems Several experts teams around the world have provided frontline theoretical and experimental contributions as well as reviews perspectives and commentaries in the fields of nonlinear modeling of cognitive systems chaotic dynamics in computational neuroscience fractal analysis of biological brain data nonlinear dynamics in neural networks research nonlinear and fuzzy logics in complex neural systems nonlinear analysis of psychiatric disorders and dynamic modeling of sensorimotor coordination Rather than a comprehensive compilation of the possible topics in neuroscience and cognitive research to which non linear may be used this e book intends to provide some illustrative examples of the broad range of

School Achievement and Failure in Portuguese and Spanish Speaking Countries

Edgar Galindo, Adelinda A. Candeias, Heldemerina S. Pires, Miguel Ángel Carbonero, 2018-08-31 This book is devoted to an increasingly important educational problem in the modern societies school achievement and failure School failure is presently a problem in developed as well as in developing countries In the Spanish and Portuguese speaking countries in Europe and Latin America school achievement and failure is consequently an important topic of political social and scientific discussion The following papers revise the latest research in the field from the perspective of Psychology

Panourgia,2014-05-24 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 12th International Conference on Intelligent Tutoring Systems ITS 2014 held in Honolulu HI USA in June 2014 The 31 revised full papers 45 short papers and 27 posters presented were carefully viewed and selected from 177 submissions The specific theme of the ITS 2014 conference is Creating fertile soil for learning interactions Besides that the highly interdisciplinary ITS conferences bring together researchers in computer science learning sciences cognitive and educational psychology sociology cognitive science artificial intelligence machine learning and linguistics The papers are organized in topical sections on affect multimodality and metacognition collaborative learning data mining and student behavior dialogue and discourse generating hints scaffolds and questions game based learning and simulation graphical representations and learning student strategies and problem solving scaling ITS and assessment World Congress on Medical Physics and Biomedical Engineering, June 7-12, 2015, Toronto, Canada

David A. Jaffray,2015-07-13 This book presents the proceedings of the IUPESM World Biomedical Engineering and Medical Physics a tri annual high level policy meeting dedicated exclusively to furthering the role of biomedical engineering and medical physics in medicine The book offers papers about emerging issues related to the development and sustainability of the role and impact of medical physicists and biomedical engineers in medicine and healthcare It provides a unique and important forum to secure a coordinated multileveled global response to the need demand and importance of creating and supporting strong academic and clinical teams of biomedical engineers and medical physicists for the benefit of human health New Challenges in the Research of Academic Achievement: Measures, Methods, and Results

Juan Luis Castejon,José Carlos Núñez,Raquel Gilar-Corbi,Iván Manuel Jorrín Abellán,2021-02-24 The Oxford Handbook of Expertise and Democratic Politics Gil Eyal,Thomas Medvetz,2023 In The Oxford Handbook of Expertise and Democratic Politics Gil Eyal and Thomas Medvetz have brought together a broad group of scholars who have engaged substantively and theoretically with debates regarding the nature of expertise and the social roles of experts to examines these areas within sociology and allied disciplines The analyses take an historical and relational approach to the topic and are motivated by the sense that growing mistrust in experts represents a danger to democratic politics today Bringing together investigations from social scientists philosophers and legal scholars into the political dimensions of expertise this Handbook connects interdisciplinary work done in science and technology studies with the more classic concerns topics and concepts of sociologists of professions and intellectuals Advances in Natural Computation, Fuzzy Systems and Knowledge Discovery

Yong Liu,Lipo Wang,Liang Zhao,Zhengtao Yu,2019-11-06 This book discusses the recent advances in natural computation fuzzy systems and knowledge discovery Presenting selected peer reviewed papers from the 15th International Conference on Natural Computation Fuzzy Systems and Knowledge Discovery ICNC FSKD 2019 held in Kunming China from 20 to 22 July 2019 it is a useful resource for researchers including professors and graduate students as well as R D staff in industry

Biocontamination Control for Pharmaceuticals and Healthcare Tim Sandle,2024-01-28 Biocontamination Control for

Pharmaceuticals and Healthcare outlines a biocontamination strategy that tracks bio burden control and reduction at each transition in classified areas of a facility The first edition of the book covered many of the aspects of the strategy but the new official guidance signals that a roadmap is required to fully comply with its requirements Completely updated with the newest version of the EU GPM EN17141 the new edition expands the coverage of quality risk management and new complete examples to help professionals bridge the gap between regulation and implementation Biocontamination Control for Pharmaceuticals and Healthcare offers professionals in pharma quality control and related areas guidance on building a complete biocontamination strategy Includes the most current regulations Contains three new chapters including Application of Quality Risk Management and its Application in Biocontamination Control Designing an Environmental Monitoring Programme and Synthesis An Anatomy of a Contamination Control Strategy Offers practical guidance on building a complete biocontamination strategy The Application of Radiomics and Artificial Intelligence in Cancer Imaging Jiuquan

Concept of Race in Natural and Social Science E. Nathaniel Gates,2014-05-01 Explores the concept of race The term race which originally denoted genealogical or class identity has in the comparatively brief span of 300 years taken on an entirely new meaning In the wake of the Enlightenment it came to be applied to social groups This ideological transformation coupled with a dogmatic insistence that the groups so designated were natural and not socially created gave birth to the modern notion of races as genetically distinct entities The results of this view were the encoding of race and racial hierarchies in law literature and culture How racial categories facilitate social control The articles in the series demonstrate that the classification of humans according to selected physical characteristics was an arbitrary decision that was not based on valid scientific method They also examine the impact of colonialism on the propagation of the concept and note that racial categorization is a powerful social force that is often used to promote the interests of dominant social groups Finally the collection surveys how laws based on race have been enacted around the world to deny power to minority groups A multidisciplinary resource This collection of outstanding articles brings multiple perspectives to bear on race theory and draws on a wider range of periodicals than even the largest library usually holds Even if all the articles were available on campus chances are that a student would have to track them down in several libraries and microfilm collections Providing of course that no journals were reserved for graduate students out for binding or simply missing This convenient set saves students substantial time and effort by making available all the key articles in one reliable source Authoritative commentary The series editor has put together a balanced selection of the most significant works accompanied by expert commentary A general introduction gives important background information and outlines fundamental issues current scholarship and scholarly controversies Introductions to individual volumes put the articles in context and draw attention to germinal ideas and major shifts in the field After reading the material even a beginning student will have an excellent grasp of the basics of the subject
