

Ethan Frome Chapter Questions

Prologue

1. What does the name Starkfield suggest about the setting? How does Harmon Gow corroborate this later?
2. What is the stereotype of an engineer? How is the Narrator/engineer atypical? Can the reader therefore trust what he tells us? Why did Wharton have the Narrator say that he "...began to piece together this vision" (rather than "version") of Frome's story?
3. What is significant about the missing L-structure on the farm? What places do Harmon Gow and Mrs. Ned Hale occupy in the story?
4. Setting: "Guess he's [Ethan] been in Starkfield too many winters." Harmon Gow says this to the narrator?. What does this suggest about the cause of Ethan's situation?
5. What else do we find out about the narrator in this prologue and are there any similarities with Ethan?
6. Look at the description of Ethan's home: " ... in all its plaintive ugliness. The black wraith of a deciduous creeper flapped from the porch, and the thin wooden walls, under their worn coat of paint, seemed to shiver in the wind that had risen with the ceasing of the snow." What impression do we get of the house?
7. Why do you think Edith Wharton uses of three lines of dots (an ellipsis) at the end of the prologue?

Chapter I

1. Since we know from the Prologue that the novel involves a tragedy, what foreshadowing devices has the author used? How is the setting itself a foreshadowing?
2. Look out for elements of Wharton's writing style – comment on the devices below:

| Quote                                                                                                                                                    | Technique                                                      | Comment |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------|---------|
| "In a sky of iron the points of the Dipper hung like icicles and Orion flashed his cold fires."                                                          | Metaphor – sky of ironSimile – hung like icicles       |         |
| As Ethan looks through the window of the church hall: "from the pure and frosty darkness in which he stood, it seemed to be seething in a mist of heat." | Symbolism – use of thresholds and light / dark and cold / heat |         |
| Mattie: "a cherry-coloured fascinator about her head"                                                                                                    | Symbolism - red color                                          |         |
| Mattie's arrival at Starkfield is described as "like the lighting of a fire on a cold hearth."                                                           | Simile                                                         |         |
| "the cold red of sunset"; "slopes of golden stubble" and "intensely blue shadows"                                                                        | Colors - symbolism                                             |         |

3. Note in this section the use of flashbacks. What role do flashbacks play in this story?
4. Explain Ethan's feelings about Denis Eady. Pick out key quotes.
5. What image do we get of Zeena in this chapter?
