Ethiopian National Examination Time Table 2014:

Higher Education in Ethiopia Tebeje Molla, 2018-01-18 This book focuses on higher education in Ethiopia analysing persisting inequalities and policy responses against the backdrop of the extensive expansion and reform that the system has experienced in recent years Drawing on empirical data generated through interviews policy reviews and focus group discussions it explicates factors of structural inequality ranging from neoliberal policy orientations to repressive gender culture and geo political peripherality In a departure from conventional studies that consider policy a response to social problems the book takes a critical perspective to show the constitutive role of policy and explains how the representation of the problem of social inequality undermines equity policy outcomes in Ethiopian higher education Not only does the book problematise the framing of the problem of inequality in the system it also outlines strategies for designing transformative equity instruments In explaining structural factors of inequality and equity provisions the book productively combines sociological concepts with historical accounts and political economy insights Given the increased economic optimism associated with higher education in sub Saharan Africa and the neoliberal ideals underpinning much of the restructuring of the system in the region this is a timely and important contribution that sheds light on the social justice implications and consequences of such changes It offers fresh accounts of largely neglected qualitative cases of inequality making it a valuable read for students and researchers in the areas of Ethiopian education policy studies international and comparative education and international development National Human Development Report 2014 - Ethiopia United Nations Publications, 2015 Over the 15 years since the countrys last National Human Development Report NHDR was published Ethiopia has undergone significant economic and social changes and has recorded some of the highest growth rates in the world over 10 per cent in some years However Ethiopias Human Development Index HDI and its relative ranking have not moved appreciably during the past decade Even though Ethiopia is one of the 10 countries globally that has attained the largest absolute gains in its HDI over the last several years it still ranks 173rd out of 186 countries in the latest UNDP Human Development Report It is this development challenge that underlines the fact that the preparation of the NHDR is so opportune now and why the focus of the report on inclusive growth for sustainable human development is so apposite In 1998 when the last NHDR was written the development challenges facing the country were considerably different The Ethiopian Army Fantahun Ayele, 2014-10-30 The Ethiopian popular revolution of 1974 ended a monarchy that claimed descent from King Solomon and the Queen of Sheba and brought to power a military government that created one of the largest and best equipped armies in Africa In his panoramic study of the Ethiopian army Fantahun Ayele draws upon his unprecedented access to Ethiopian Ministry of Defense archives to study the institution that was able to repel the Somali invasion of 1977 and suppress internal uprisings but collapsed in 1991 under the combined onslaught of armed insurgencies in Eritrea and Tigray Besides military operations The Ethiopian Army discusses tactical areas such as training equipment

intelligence and logistics as well as grand strategic choices such as ending the 1953 Ethio American Mutual Defense Agreement and signing a treaty of military assistance with the Soviet Union The result sheds considerable light on the military developments that have shaped Ethiopia and the Horn in the twentieth century
