An Age of Accountability John L. Rury, 2023-10-13 An Age of Accountability highlights the role of test based accountability as a policy framework in American education from 1970 to 2020 For more than half a century the quest to hold schools and educators accountable for academic achievement has relied almost exclusively on standardized assessment The theory of change embedded in almost all test based accountability programs held that assessment with stipulated consequences could lead to major improvements in schools This was accomplished politically by proclaiming lofty goals of attaining universal proficiency and closing achievement gaps which repeatedly failed to materialize But even after very clear disappointments no other policy framework has emerged to challenge its hegemony The American public today has little confidence in institutions to improve the quality of goods and services they provide especially in the public sector As a consequence many Americans continue to believe that accountability remains a vital necessity even if educators and policy scholars disagree Minerals Yearbook ,2013

Communitarian Foreign Policy Nikolas K. Gvosdev, 2017-07-05 This volume establishes Amitai Etzioni s communitarian approach to international relations as a distinct school of American foreign policy thought Nikolas K Gvosdev systematically evaluates Etzioni s ideas tracing their origins during the Cold War and their relevance to current challenges in Asia and the Middle East and considering their strengths and weaknesses Etzioni agrees with liberal internationalists who believe that traditional notions of state sovereignty are eroding and that a new set of global norms is required However he argues against the imposition of Western policies on the rest of the world which he sees as a recipe for conflict which the United States cannot afford He warns against the post Cold War triumphalism arguing that it undercuts efforts to find necessary common ground with both Russia and China An enduring and stable global architecture cannot be maintained unless it appeals to the interests of a broad community of nations The trust that is needed for forming closer associations between nations and to have a productive dialogue on human rights can only come about through the voluntary coordination of states forced to combat an increasing array of transnational threats
