

Activity A

Read the poem carefully. Jot down some comments or questions that pop into your mind as you read the title and the stanzas. You may write the summary of each stanza or inferences you draw as you read the selection. Copy first the chart below in your activity notebook. Write the annotation in the copied chart after. Do not write anything on the module

SELECTION	ANNOTATION
THREE WORDS OF STRENGTH by Friedrich Von Schiller
There are three lessons I would write Three words as with a burning pen, In tracings of eternal light Upon the hearts of man.
Have hope. Through clouds environ round And gladness hides her face in scorn, Put up the shadow thy brow No night but hath its morn.
Have faith, Where'er thy bark is driven , The calm's disport the tempest's mirth Know this: God rules the hosts of heaven The inhabitants of earth.
Have love, Not love alone for one But man, as man thy brothers call. And scatter like a circling sun, Thy charities on all

What I Can Do

You are a student contributor to a quarterly folio for school students. This quarter's issue seeks to spotlight book reviews from high school students. As such, you are to write a critique that evaluates a poem of your choice according to how it demonstrates values of humanism through its elements and theme.

In order to be of the quality and depth expected by the folio, the critique must have the following features:

Vardell,2019-06-14 This practitioner oriented introduction to literature for children ages 5 12 covers the latest trends titles and tools for choosing the best books and materials as well as for planning fun and effective programs and activities The third edition of Children's Literature in Action provides an activity oriented survey of children's literature for undergraduate and graduate students seeking licensure and degrees that will lead to careers working with children in schools and public libraries. Author Sylvia M. Vardell draws on her 30 years of university teaching and extensive familiarity with the major textbooks in the area of children's literature to deliver something different: a book that focuses specifically on the perspective and needs of the librarian with emphasis on practical action and library applications. Its contents address seven major genres: picture books, traditional tales, poetry, contemporary realistic fiction, historical fiction, fantasy, and informational books. Each chapter includes practical applications for the educator who shares books with children and who develops literature-based instruction. Chapters are enriched by author comments, collaborative activities, featured books, special topics, and activities including selected awards and celebrations, historical connections, recommended resources, issues for discussion, and assignment suggestions. This new edition incorporates the 2018 AASL National School Library Standards. Explanatory

Mensuration ... Alfred Hiley (M.A.), 1871 Notes on River Basins Robert A. WILLIAMS (of Great Marlow.), 1872 A Key to Walkingame's Tutor's Assistant ... A new edition, with corrections and additions T. Hewitt (Mathematician), 1827

Notes on River Basins Robert A. Williams, 1872 Poetry Rx Norman E. Rosenthal M.D., 2021-05-04 I used to believe that poetry did not speak to me but I now see how wrong I was. I lived for 44 years with a husband, a lyricist whose beautifully crafted heartfelt lyrics touched my every fiber and continue to uplift and inspire me a decade after his death. The special beauty of Dr. Rosenthal's book for me is his discussion of what each poem is saying, what the poet was likely feeling, and often how the poems helped him personally as when he left his birth family in South Africa for a rewarding career in the United States. Jane Brody: Author, love that is fulfilling or addictive when to break up and how to survive when someone breaks up with you. Separate sections deal with responses to the natural world and the varieties of human experience such as hope, reconciliation, leaving home, faith, self-actualization, trauma, anger, and the thrill of discovery. Other sections involve finding your way in the world and the search for meaning as well as the final stages of life. In describing this multitude of human experiences using vignettes from his work and life, Rosenthal serves as a comforting guide to these poetic works of genius. Through his writing, the workings of the mind as depicted by these gifted writers speak to us as intimately as our closest friends. Rosenthal also delves into the science of mind and brain. Who would have thought, for example, that listening to poetry can cause people to have goosebumps by activating the reward centers of the brain? Yet research shows that to be true. And who were these fascinating poets? In a short biosketch that accompanies each poem, Rosenthal draws connections between the poets and their poems that help us understand the enigmatic minds that gave birth to these masterworks. Altogether, a fulfilling and intriguing must-read for anyone interested in poetry, the mind, self-help, and genius. Collecting for the Curriculum Amy J. Catalano, 2015-09-28 If you're a librarian charged with collecting curriculum materials and children's literature to support the Common Core State Standards, then this book is the only one that offers explicit advice on collection development in curriculum collections is for you While there are many publications on the Common Core for school librarians and K 12 educators no such literature exists for curriculum librarians at the post secondary level This book fills that gap standing alone as a guide to collection development for curriculum librarians independent of the Common Core State Standards CCSS The book provides instruction and guidance to curriculum librarians who acquire and manage collections so you can develop a collection based on best practices The book begins with a primer on the CCSS and how curriculum librarians can support them Discussion of the Standards is then woven through chapters arranged by content area that share research based practices in curriculum development and instruction to guide you in curriculum selection Material types covered include games textbooks children s literature primary sources counseling and nonfiction Additional chapters cover the management of curriculum collections testing collections and instruction and reference as well as how to support and collect for special needs learners Current practices in collection development for curriculum materials librarians are also reviewed The book closes with a discussion of the future of curriculum materials
