

EXERCISE 53-8 ♦ MLA documentation

To read about MLA documentation, see 53 and 54 in The Bedford Handbook, Eighth Edition.

Write "true" if the statement is true or "false" if it is false.

1. A parenthetical citation in the text of the paper must always include the following information if available: the author's name, the work's title, and a page number.
2. The works cited list is organized alphabetically by authors' last names (or by title for a work with no author).
3. The works cited list should include all of the works the writer consulted while researching the paper.
4. An in-text citation names the author (if there is an author) either in a signal phrase introducing the cited material or in parentheses after the cited material.
5. When a work's author is unknown, the work is listed under "Anonymous" in the list of works cited.
6. The list of works cited is titled Bibliography.
7. When a work has no page number, it is possible that nothing will appear in parentheses to mark the end of a citation.
8. In the parentheses marking the end of an in-text citation, use the abbreviation "p." or "pp." before the page number(s).
9. When a paper cites two or more works by the same author, the in-text citation includes at least the author's name and the title (or a short version of the title).
10. An entry for a Web source in the list of works cited gives the date the Web source was accessed.
