

Writing Task:

A. Finding Research [20 minutes]

- Tell students that in this lesson they are going to finish up collecting evidence from the texts in their Research Folders.
- Invite students to refer to their Research Task Card (pg. 88) from previous lessons and tell them that, as in the previous lesson, they are going to work on the remaining texts in their Research Folders to find the plot, underline the What? Where? and Why? evidence, and then collect that evidence in the appropriate boxes on their Research Guide.
- Tell students that they may all need to work on the same text this time, as they may have only one text left to work on, but they are still to work in pairs.
- Circulate to assist students with reading for the plot and identifying the What? Where? and Why? details. Remind students of the guiding words in brackets on the Research Guide.

Meeting Students' Needs:

- Refer students to the glossary for each of the texts in the Research Folders to help them understand unfamiliar words. Providing students with task cards ensures that expectations are consistently available.

B. Another Performance Task Prompt [5 minutes]

- Celebrate the work that students have done in collecting the strongest evidence from the informational texts. Remind them that this is something that researchers have to do in the real world when they gather evidence, so it is a very important skill to practice.
- Tell the students that when they read text lessons they will use the evidence recorded on their Research Guide to develop their individual "Inside Out" poems.
- Invite students to read Part 2 of the Standards-Related Performance Task Prompts from Unit 2, Lesson 1.8 (pg. 82 in E.L. Workbooks). In their books as you read it aloud. "Then imagine that you are a refugee from this specific time and place in history. You, like him and the real refugees we have read about, have been forced to leave your home country for your safety. In your class, write two free verse poems similar to his diary entries in the novel Jordan (2nd & 3rd Acts). One poem will be an "Inside Out" poem. For this poem, consider these questions:
 - What hardships did you face in your country?
 - Why did you decide to leave your country?
 - What was it like for you when you fled?
 - Where did you go?
 - Where did you find help?
 - Where did you settle?
 - How was your life turned "Inside Out"?"
- Tell students that the questions in the prompt are to help them to think about what they know about their refugees. They don't have to answer all of these questions in their poem, as they may not have found all of this information in their research texts, but they should use them as a guideline for the kind of details to include to make their poem more realistic and believable.
- Ask students to Think-Pair-Share:
 - "So what is your "Inside Out" poem going to be about?"

Listen for students to explain that they are going to imagine they are a refugee from the country they have researched and they are going to write a poem that answers the questions and explains how their lives turn "Inside Out" when they have to flee.
