Factory Service Manual 04 Frontier:

The Moving Frontier Lois Labrianidis, 2019-06-04 Originally published in 1992 and based on two theoretical approaches the Global Commodity Chain and the Global Production Network this book investigates the multitude of processes as well as diverse consequences of global integration upon industries regions enterprises and employees In doing so it draws from the experience of Western and Eastern and South eastern Europe These European cases are complemented with evidence from Kenya Thailand as well as US China India and Mexico The book explores multiple causes of decentralization arguing beyond the pursuit of cheap and adaptable labour It goes on to argue that the effects of delocalization within Europe unlike those in the rest of the developed world are less negative than usually portrayed It concludes by putting forward recommendations for best future practice of successful adjustment strategies and examines how these might be adopted elsewhere in the world
