Faith A Novel:

Faith Jennifer Haigh, 2012-01-17 It is the spring of 2002 and a perfect storm has hit Boston Across the city's archdiocese trusted priests have been accused of the worst possible betrayal of the souls in their care Estranged for years from her difficult and demanding family Sheila McGann has remained close to her older brother Art the popular dynamic pastor of a large suburban parish When Art finds himself at the center of the maelstrom Sheila returns to Boston ready to fight for him and his reputation But what she discovers is more complicated than she imagined as the scandal forces long buried secrets to surface Elegantly crafted and sharply observed Jennifer Haigh's Faith is a haunting meditation on loyalty and family that demonstrates how the truth can shatter our deepest beliefs and restore them Matters of Faith Kristy

Kiernan, 2008-08-05 From the author of Catching Genius a novel of a young man's search for faith and its unintended consequences At age twelve Marshall Tobias saw his best friend killed by a train It was then that he began his search for faith delving into one tradition then discarding it for another His parents however have little time for spiritual contemplation Their focus has been on his little sister Megan who suffers from severe food allergies Now Marshall is home from college with his first real girlfriend but there is more to Ada than meets the eye including her beliefs about the evils of medical intervention What follows is a crisis that tests not only faith but the limits of family forgiveness and our need to believe

Faith Beyond the Trials Paul Turk, 2009-12-01 Paul Turk's debut novel follows the lives of John and Anna Taylor high school sweethearts who marry soon after John graduates from law school By their mid thirties the Taylors have achieved the American dream prestigious careers a sprawling home in Palm Beach and exotic vacations to locations around the world Although John and Anna's relationship seemed to be made in heaven a tragic death followed by an unexpected arrest puts them through the fires of hell These stormy trials will test their confidence in God and the strength of their love Only time will tell if their faith and their marriage will endure Paul Turk a former trial attorney practiced law for thirty years until he changed careers at the age of fifty four to pursue a long time ambition of authoring Christian based legal novels The legal plot involved in the novel concerns a felony DUI trial as well as a civil lawsuit surrounding the auto crash A Step of

Faith Richard Paul Evans, 2013-05-07 Following the New York Times bestseller The Road to Grace Richard Paul Evans's hero Alan Christoffersen faces a life changing crisis on his journey to grace After the death of his beloved wife after the loss of his advertising business to his once trusted partner after bankruptcy forced him from his home Alan Christoffersen is a broken man Leaving everything he knows he sets out on an extraordinary cross country journey with only the pack on his back he is walking from Seattle to Key West the end of the map Along the way Alan begins to heal meeting people who teach him lessons about love sacrifice and forgiveness But in St Louis Alan faces another life changing crisis and now the journey is in jeopardy Faith and Fiction Barbara Pell, 2006-01-01 Is it possible to write an artistically respectable and theoretically convincing religious novel in a non religious age Up to now there has been no substantial application of theological criticism to the works of Hugh MacLennan and Morley Callaghan the two most important Canadian novelists before 1960 Yet both were religious writers during the period when Canada entered the modern non religious era and both greatly influenced the development of our literature MacLennan s journey from Calvinism to Christian existentialism is documented in his essays and seven novels most fully in The Watch that Ends the Night Callaghan s fourteen novels are marked by tensions in his theology of Catholic humanism with his later novels defining his theological themes in increasingly secular terms This tension between narrative and metanarrative has produced both the artistic strengths and the moral ambiguities that characterize his work Faith and Fiction A Theological Critique of the Narrative Strategies of Hugh MacLennan and Morley Callaghan is a significant contribution to the relatively new field studying the relation between religion and literature in Canada

Rescuing Faith Carol James, 2017-03-08 Once orphaned newly divorced a schoolteacher questions God s plan when she falls in love with a grieving widower in this inspirational romance Given up for adoption at birth schoolteacher Faith Holmes has spent her life trying to prove she is enough good enough smart enough pretty enough When she finds her husband with another woman yet again she has trouble forgiving him as she has in the past So he divorces her Rejected first by her parents now by her husband Faith begins to wonder if God has rejected her too In the midst of her marital trials Faith has to deal with surly Luke Johnson the father of one of her students Consumed with guilt Luke blames himself for his wife s recent death His daughter Emmie struggles with both her schoolwork and the loss of her mother and Faith is determined to help her despite Luke s resistance As time passes Luke sees Faith for the wonderful woman she is But as much as Faith wants to accept Luke s affection she wonders if she could ever be enough to heal his wounded heart Rescuing Faith is a story of how God s perfect love and truth helps two people overcome guilt and insecurity for the sake of a future together Faith and Fiction Anita Gandolfo, 2007-08-30 In recent years there has been an explosion in the market for fiction on religious topics and themes most notably Dan Brown s The Da Vinci Code The variety of contemporary religious fiction and the publishing phenomenon surrounding it indicate that this literature transcends any overt religious meaning and is significant in its political and social implications it is emblematic of the contemporary American Zeitgeist Traditionally literature is both mirror and lamp reflecting the society that produces it and illuminating the values and interests of that society Recognizing both of those perspectives Gandolfo examines Christian literature s place in American culture today and explores the cultural meaning and significance of the wildly popular Christian fiction now available The phenomenon surrounding Dan Brown s The Da Vinci Code has led to a cottage industry of interpretations attacks and commentaries but one thing is certain the book has had an enormous impact on American society culture and religious understanding not to mention the publishing industry which scrambles to find similar religious books to feed to an eager public But The Da Vinci Code is not the only book of its type on the market today In recent years there has been an explosion in the market for fiction on religious topics and themes with an entire series devoted to the impending Rapture as described in the Left Behind series Some fiction does not take an explicitly religious theme as these books do. Instead, writers like Andre Dubus and Ron Hansen imbue their creative work with spiritual and religious themes embedded in the everyday lives and concerns of their characters. Regardless of the specific approach, what is not in doubt is that American readers have made the authors of these works wealthy as bookstores cannot stock their shelves with enough copies. Why the recent surge of interest in Christian fiction? How does it reflect trends in our culture and our lives? How has it changed our society and our understanding of spirituality and religion? How accurate are these books in terms of the theology they espouse? The variety of contemporary religious fiction and the publishing phenomenon surrounding it indicate that this literature transcends any overt religious meaning and is significant in its political and social implications; it is emblematic of the contemporary American Zeitgeist. Traditionally, literature is both mirror and lamp, reflecting the society that produces it and illuminating the values and interests of that society. Recognizing both of those perspectives, Faith and Fiction examines Christian literature's place in American culture today and explores the cultural meaning and significance of the wildly popular Christian fiction now available.

The Faith Book Tawdra Kandle, Olivia Hardin, 2019-11-26. Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. Tawdra and Olivia live over a thousand miles apart in Florida and Texas respectively. They found each other through the miracle of the internet and their love of writing and romance, but their abiding friendship and devotion to one another was built on something far greater and stronger. Their relationship was cemented by their shared journeys of FAITH. Through the years they've enjoyed and celebrated each other's triumphs. They've cried and comforted each other through the pain of death and loss. They've shaken their fists together and commiserated over the hurt of betrayal. They've survived periods of angst and silence and have been brought back together by a bond that can only be explained as God's blessing and grace. In The Faith Book, Tawdra and Olivia share the stories of their journey to understand God's movement in their lives. In each chapter, they explore the growth, learning, and revelations they continue to experience as they strive to turn their eyes upwards.

The Book of Faith Elaine Kalman Naves, 2015. Faith and Fiction of Muriel Spark Ruth Whittaker, 1984-06-18. Finding Faith Denise Hunter, 2006-03-06. Set in the high-pressure world of a Chicago TV newsroom, award-winning author Denise Hunter brings to life a heartwarming story of love and pain, desperate choices with dire consequences, and honesty and redemption. If you like Karen Kingsbury or Nicholas Sparks, this is an author you'll love as much as I do. Colleen Coble, author of Alaska Twilight, One woman sacrificing everything for her career. A young girl's longing for acceptance. And the road to forgiveness. Paula Landin Cohen, an investigative reporter, feels like a fish out of water in the small town of Jackson Hole, Wyoming. Then she's offered her dream job as a TV reporter in Chicago. There is so much to gain and so much to lose, including the only man she's ever loved. Linn Caldwell has made a lot of mistakes, bad mistakes. She can never forgive herself for all the pain she's caused others. How can she dare to get close to anyone again? What will happen if Paula and Linn's secrets are revealed? Will the men they love ever be able to forgive them? Finding Faith is the third novel in the New Heights series, after Mending Places and thinking about religion in Britain Not only were leading international thinkers of the day theologians Ronald Niebuhr Paul Tillich Jacques Maritain but leading writers contributed to discussions about religion Graham Greene Muriel Spark and Barbara Pym incorporated miracles evil and church going into their novels while Louis MacNeice T S Eliot and C S Lewis gave radio broadcasts about the role of Christianity in contemporary society Certainly the war revived interest in aspects of Christian life Salvation and redemption were on many people s minds The Ministry of Information used images of bombed churches to stoke patriotic fervour and King George VI led a series of Days of National Prayer that coincided with crucial events in the Allied campaign After the war and throughout the 1950s approximately 1.4 million Britons converted to Roman Catholicism as a way of expressing their spiritual ambitions and solidarity with humanity on a world wide scale Religion provided one way for writers to answer the question what is man It also afforded ways to think about social obligation and ethical engagement Moreover the mid century turn to religion offered ways to articulate statehood not from the perspective of nationhood and politics but from the perspective of moral action and social improvement Instead of being a retreat into seclusion and solitude the mid century turn to religion is a call to responsibility

The Life of Faith Collection Martha Finley, Kersten Hamilton, 2006-07-25 This collection includes the first novel from each of the four A Life of Faith historical fiction series Elsie s Endless Wait Millie s Unsettled Season Violet s Hidden Doubts and Laylie s Daring Quest Keeping Faith Jodi Picoult, 1999 Little Faith Nickolas Butler, 2019-04-02

From the celebrated author of Shotgun Lovesongs a heart wrenching look at family and the American mid west Stylist With its focus on spirituality and reverence for the joys of everyday life Little Faith calls to mind Marilynne Robinson s Gilead The New York Times Lyle Hovde is at the onset of his golden years living a mostly content life in rural Wisconsin with his wife Peg daughter Shiloh and five year old grandson Isaac After a troubled adolescence and subsequent estrangement from her parents Shiloh has finally come home But while away she became deeply involved with an extremist church and the devout pastor courting her is convinced Isaac has the spiritual ability to heal the sick Reckoning with his own faith or lack thereof Lyle soon finds himself torn between his unease about the church and the growing threat it poses to keeping his daughter and grandson in his life Set over the course of one year and beautifully evoking the change of seasons Little Faith is a powerful and deeply affecting novel about family and community the ways in which belief is both formed and shaken and the lengths we go to protect our own

Acts of Faith and Imagination Brent Little, Mark Bosco, SJ, 2023-08-04 Acts of Faith and Imagination wagers that fiction written by Catholic authors assists readers to reflect critically on the question what is faith To speak of a person s faith life is to speak of change and development As a narrative form literature can illustrate the dynamics of faith which remains in flux over the course of one s life Because human beings must possess faith in something whether religious or not it inevitably has a narrative structure faith ebbs and flows flourishes and decays develops and stagnates Through an exploration of more than a dozen Catholic authors novels and short stories Brent Little argues that Catholic fiction encourages the reader to reflect upon their faith holistically that is the way faith informs one's affections and how a person conceives and interacts with the world as embodied beings. Amidst the diverse stories of modern and contemporary fiction, a consistent pattern emerges. Catholic fiction portrays faith at its most fundamental, often unconscious level, as an act of the imagination. Faith is the way one imagines themselves, others, and creation. A person's primary faith conditions how they live in the world, regardless of the level of conscious reflection, and regardless of whether this is a religious faith. Acts of Faith and Imagination investigates the creative depth and vitality of the Catholic literary imagination by bringing late modern Catholic authors into dialogue with more contemporary ones. Readers will then consider well-known works such as those by Graham Greene, Flannery O'Connor, and Muriel Spark in the fresh light of contemporary stories by Toni Morrison, Alice McDermott, Uwem Akpan, and several others.

A Novel Hope? Bernard Marcus Woodley, 2025-06-13

Christians today are often struggling with many of the same theological problems that Victorians were especially regarding hell and the God of love. One answer to these questions found in nineteenth-century Britain was the seemingly surprising reappearance of the early Christian eschatological theory of universalism, the belief that all of humanity will be saved. Even though this re-emergence has already been acknowledged by scholars of Victorianism, its extent has been widely underestimated. This book then aims to describe why universalism became an increasingly viable option in a time of growing religious doubt, and especially how it established itself in and with the help of the century's fiction, not only in the more overtly universalist novels of Gaskell and Anne Brontë but also across works ranging from Dickens, Gissing, Linton, and Oliphant all the way to Ward and Wells.
